BIG CROWD AT PUBLIC HEARING ON RECOUNT BILL

Ivins, Who Supports the Measure, Is Cheered, While Jerome's Letter in Opposition Is Hissed.

The bill ordering a recount of the votes cast for W. R. Hearst and George B. McClellan in the Mayoralty election came up for a public hearing in the City Hall to-day. The Mayor had taken the opinion of the Corporation Counsel, who instructed him that as he was directly interested in the proceedings he should not preside. The Mayor accordingly delegated President McGowan, of the Board of Aldermen, to take the chair.

The Council Chamber was packed to the doors when President McGowan called the meeting to order, while the corridors outside the doors were crowded with those who could not get inside.

At the opening of the proceedings Corporation Counsel Ellison sat beside President McGowan. Promptly at 2 P. M. President McGowan explained the object of the hearing and said that demonstrations from either side would be frowned upon. He then read Mayor McClellan's letter explaining why he, the Mayor, could not preside at the hearing.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Hoyt read Mr. Ellison's opinion.

After President McGowan had fixed the time limit for the speakers Rev. Dr. Lyman Abbott made the first argument in opposition to the Recount bill. He was followed by Mr. Ivins, who favored the bill.

When Mr. Ivins concluded there was

BEN BAN WINS VAN COURTLANDT IN EASY STYLE

Aristocracy Divides Honors at Belmont Park With the Bowery.

30 TO 1 SHOT WINNER.

Earl G. Was Played Down to 10 to 1 Before Start of Second.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK, June 4.—With the Bowery coterie cleaning up on Sir Toddington to-day it was up to society to follow up with a win in the Van Cortlandt Stakes, and H. B. Duryea did the trick with his colt Ben Ban.

Ben Ban was added and assigned the light impost of 94 pounds, which he carried to victory in good shape. Red River, fleet, set the pace clear into the stretch, with Sir Lynnewood next and the others in close order. It looked at the last sixteenth as though Red River would win, but he closed up as the others made their rush. Ben Ban moved down the field and headed the fleeing bunch, winning a fast race in a drive from Smiling Tom, who ran a remarkable race, being all but left. Okenite closed with his stable mate, getting third. Dinna Ken got a rough passage and might have done better. He finished fourth at that.

Aste Lands a Winner.

Herman's owner, Tony Aste, took no interest in his horse's performance in the first race—no betting interest, at any rate—but Herman was right on the job, making a remarkable win. Koerner took Herman out in front and increased the lead to five or six lengths at the stretch turn. Linnepee, ignored in the betting, got second in a whipping finish from Kestrel. Neither the first nor second choice were in the money.

Easy for Sir Toddington.

Archie Zimmer, trainer of Sir Toddington, who won the second race in a gallop, was in a humourous vein in the paddock before the race. Paddockites crowded around Sir Toddington's stall. "There they come," said Archie, indicating the crowd, "when I am 7 to 20 they come in multitudes, but when I win at 12 to 1 nobody calls to see me." Jockey Henry, Sir Toddington's rider, who weighs 89 pounds, arrived to take his mount, accompanied by two valets. "What a brace of valets and what for, to carry the weights!" exclaimed Archie. "Sir Toddington's weight had been increased to 116 pounds." The colt won practically all the way and galloped easily despite a badly cut right hand ankle. Fustian rushed in second with the Cricket, but the latter was disqualified on a claim of a foul and third money went to Fliminap.

Earl G. Wins Third.

Following a bumping match in the stretch, during which Eonite swerved clear across the track, threatening half the field of nineteen flying youngsters, Earl G., played from 20 to 1 to 10 to 1, won the scramble from Scallop, with Joe Nealon third. Both the public and the ring lost to the race when the bottled-up good thing went through. The public launched its coin on Eonite, of the Rainey stable, and the young millionaire helped to force the price down with a liberal commission. The jumper was lucky to score, following the stretch mix-up.

Rogan Has Strong Arms.

The running of Dick Shaw, a favorite in the steeplechase, left a bad impression. Rogan rode the horse under restraint three-fourths of the journey. Navajo came along before the final two jumps and won on the flat from Dick Shaw, whose yanking during the race stopped the gelding almost to a walk. Bayonet outfooted the others for third.

Won Like a Good Horse.

Philander is a good horse at a mile and a quarter and he won the final race at that distance like a good one. An exciting fight for the place ensued between Veslon and Flaviguy and the former grabbed the place by a short head. Veslon spread a hoof in the race which made him stop at one part of the journey. Otherwise he might have won.

GUNS, KNIVES AND CLUBS USED IN DOCK RIOT

Trouble Begins When 'Longshoremen Attack Non-Unionists.

MAN'S SKULL BROKEN.

Handling Freight Comes to a Standstill and More Rioting Is Threatened.

At intervals for three hours to-day a good-sized riot raged on the piers of the Italian Transportation Company, a tramp line, at the foot of York street, Jersey City. The fight was a by-product of the big 'longshoremen's strike, which has been languishing for several days. Pistols, knives, clubs and boulders were all employed before the police got th upper hand. One man went to the City of Hspital with a great to the police station. Two more men, badly hurt, were carried away by their comrades.

The trouble started when the 200 union 'longshoremen who had returned to work under promise of getting the new scale discovered that a big force of non-union men had been brought aboard the pier to handle the cargo of the Regina d'Italia, which has been in port since last Friday. Deserting their places in the hold of the Principessa Laticia, the union men charged the newcomers and, with stones and cudgels, chased them off the wharf.

Under escort of Roundsman Higgins and a dozen policemen the strike breakers returned to the ship. At the sight of them the union men made another attack. Defying the drawn revolvers of

The driver, Anton Boll, of No. 1323 Avenue A, was arrested.

An Attempt Is Made to Blow Up the Recorder, Joseph Kennel, at New Durham, N. J.

HE HAS SENT MANY MEMBERS OF "BLACK HAND" TO PRISON

Warnings Have Been Repeatedly Sent to Him By Mail and Telephone—Bomb Probably Left By Some One Seeking Revenge.

An attempt to blow up the hotel and justice court of Recorder Joseph Kennel, of New Durham, N. J., was frustrated this afternoon by the discovery of the bomb and sputtering fuse. The plot is believed to have been the result of the Justice's activity in sending Black Hand criminals to the penitentiary.

The Justice who is Recorder of North Bergen Township has sat on the bench for many years and in that time has sent away about five hundred men accused of the usual Black Hand extortion schemes, knife plays and revolver carrying. His activity in stamping out this style of crime in the large Italan populaton has brought on him the enmity of the extortionists and although he has received no letters he has been repeatedly warned over the telephone that his home would be blown up.

The Recorder's court is in his hotel and home at Hackensack Plank road and Washington street. The Judge was passing from his court-room to the hallway of the hotel this afternoon when he smelled pungent smoke. Tracing the smoke to the basement, he saw the sputtering of a fuse which, on investigation, proved to be about five feet long.

Hastily stamping out the fire he trailed down the fuse to a metal bomb buried in the basement. It weighed about three pounds and contained dynamite. Recorder Kennel shouted for his wife to run to the street, and with the bomb in his hands followed.

He notified the North Bergen police and an investigation was started. The bomb was placed in a pail of water for investigation. A great crowd of New Durhamites crowded around on hearing the news, and vowed vengeance on the perpetrators of the plot.

HIGHLANDERS LOSE FIRST HOME GAME

Orth's Wildness Helped Clevelanders to Roll Up Lead and Errors Gave Runs to Griffithites Against Rhoades.

(Special to The Evening World.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE BALL GROUNDS, June 4.—After an absence from home of thirty-eight days, during which they played twenty-five games, losing thirteen and winning twelve, Clark Griffith's Highlanders came out on the diamond this afternoon and began their long engagement at home by tackling Napoleon Lajoie's heavy hitters from Cleveland in the first of a series of four games.

Despite the poor showing of the team on its Western trip, the local fans are still loyal, there being about 5,000 present when the bell rang to start the game.

Walter Clarkson, the young twirler, and Frank Delehanty, the former Highlander players, received an ovation when they came on the field in a Cleveland uniform. Kitson and Moore, the pitchers recently secured by Griffith, also came in for applause as they walked to the bench.

First Inning.

Flick hit a slow bounder and easily beat Elberfeld's throw to first. On the hit and run game Bradley was disposed of at first, Williams teasing to Chase and Flick reaching second. Stovall smashed a hot grounder to Williams, who retired him at first by a low throw, Flick moving up to third. Lajoie was given a great ovation when he came to the plate, and after sitting out several balls hoisted a short fly to Conroy. NO RUNS.

Keeler laid down a pretty bunt and reached first. Elberfeld smashed a low line fly into Birmingham's hands. Chase soaked a hot one to Turner, who threw fast to Lajoie, forcing Keeler. Conroy hoisted a fly which Bradley got by a sprint. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Orth couldn't get them over for Clark and the backstop went to first. Birmingham soaked a fast bounder to Williams, who shot it to Elberfeld, forcing Clark. Hinchman lifted a high fly to Keeler, and on Willis's throw to Chase Birmingham was doubled up before he could get back on the bag. NO RUNS.

Williams's high fly went to Birmingham. Moriarty was only able to hoist a fly which Stovall got on the run. Hoffman laced out a low line fly, which Hinchman muffed, but as Hoffman tried to make two bases he was caught by Hinchman's throw to Turner. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Turner waited until Orth had tossed four bad ones. Rhoades sacrificed Chase to Williams. Flick hit to Orth, who threw to Moriarty, just as the latter muffed. Turner reached third and Flick went to first. Bradley drove a long fly to Keeler, Turner scoring. Flick stole second. Kleinow making a bad throw down Stovall smashed the ball between Keeler and Hoffman for two bases, sending Flick over the plate. Lajoie failed to connect with three of Orth's benders. TWO RUNS.

Kleinow hit to Turner, who fumbled, giving Jack his base. Orth hoisted a high fly back of first, which Lajoie got after a sprint. Keeler also sent one up in the air and Flick was under it. Elberfeld's long fly was captured by Flick on the run. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Clark bounced to Orth, who threw him out. Birmingham strolled. Hinchman out. Moriarty to Chase. Birmingham reaching third. Turner hit to centre for a base, scoring Birmingham. Orth was still wild and gave Rhoades a pass. Chase fumbled Flick's ground-er, allowing Turner to score and Rhoades to reach second. Bradley fouled to Chase. TWO RUNS.

Chase went to first on Turner's fumble. Conroy fouled to Bradley. Williams sent a long fly to Flick. Moriarty planted a single in right, sending Chase to third. Moriarty tried to steal second, but was caught on Clark's throw to Turner. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Stovall was the victim of strikes. Hoffman passed a fly to Hoffman. Turner rolled out, Orth to Chase. NO RUNS.

Hoffman slammed a three-bagger to right, and on Lajoie's wild throw to third he kept on to the plate. Kleinow singled, but was forced out, second by Orth, Turner shooting the ball to Lajoie. Keeler sacrificed, Bradley to Stovall. Lajoie knocked down Elberfeld's low line fly and flung it to Stovall. ONE RUN.

MAD DOG BITES THREE PERSONS, ONE A WOMAN.

Terrier Attacks Man Who Clubbed It, Supposedly To Death.

Three persons were bitten by a black and tan terrier, which is supposed to have been mad, in Kreischerville, S. I., this afternoon. The dog belongs to Frederick Boeleigh, a merchant, on the main street of the village. It had been sulking at the back of its master's store for a day or two.

Suddenly the terrier jumped up and, running across the street, entered the yard of its owner. First it attacked Mrs. Boeleigh and gashed her on the right wrist and forearm. Her screams brought her husband. He struck at the frenzied animal with his fist and it turned on him, sinking its teeth to their roots in his right hand.

Paul Daniel, a neighbor, also heard Mrs. Boeleigh's cries. He came running with a club. He knocked the black and tan down with a blow on the head. Supposing he had stunned or killed the dog, he leaned over it to make sure. It leaped up, biting him on the forearm and then, fleeing int othe street, disappeared in the distance.

Dr. Walker Washington was called to cauterize the wounds of the three victims. He gave it as his judgment that the dog was mad and advised the Pasteur treatment.
