GATES WINS BET ON A KEENE TIP AT GRAVESEND

Meggs Hill Captures Stake and Financier Takes $8,000 From "Bookies" on Season's Record Commission.

(Special to The Evening World.)

GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, June 12.—John W. Gates to-day got back a large slice of the money he bet and lost on the jumper Merry Saint yesterday, when Meggs Hill, from the Keene barns, won the Clover Stakes for fillies, fourth on the programme. Mr. Gates was as confident as Mr. Keene himself that Meggs Hill would win and sent a commission of $10,000 into the ring, which his commissioners placed at 4 to 5. It was the largest individual wager at this meeting, the winning netting Mr. Gates a cool $8,000.

The race itself was without incident. Berry Maid going off in the lead to the head of the stretch. Then Meggs Hill came along a-sailing, entering the stretch in the van and winning cleverly. Fancy and Half Sovereign, in close attendance, made their final play in the stretch, but could not overtake the flying Meggs Hill. Fancy outfinished Half Sovereign for the place gamely.

The Steeplechaser Douro, who fell during the steeplechase race yesterday, died to-day in the barn of his owner J. W. Colt. Douro was a fast horse and a winner several times at the chasing game.

CUBS BEAT DODGERS IN CLOSE GAME; WHITE SOX WIN FROM HIGHLANDERS

World's Champions Quickly Knocked Keefe Out of the Box and Veteran Kitson Went in to Relieve Him.

(Special to The Evening World.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, NEW YORK, June 13.—The Chicago White Sox, the world champions, made their first appearance of the season here this afternoon, hooking up with Clark Griffith's unfortunate aggregation in the first of the series of four games. The weather was very disagreeable. It was raw and chilly and a strong wind blew across the diamond and it looked as if rain would fall any minute.

First Inning.

Hahn started off with a high one to Conroy. Jones went a slow roller to Moriarty and was safe at first. Isbell singled over second, and Jones went forward a base. Donohue smashed a double to right and Jones scored, while Isbell rested at third. Davis hit to centre for a base and Isbell scored. Donohue stopping at third. Dougherty then followed with a wallop to right for two bases, scoring Donohue. Kitson then replaced Keefe. Rohe was hit with a pitched ball filling the bases. Sullivan flied out to Conroy. Walsh was called out on strikes. THREE RUNS.

Keeler made a safe hit to the infield. Elberfeld forced Keeler out at second, Davis to Isbell. Chase struck out. Laporte's crack was taken care of by Walsh, who threw him out. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Hahn was retired on a beautiful play by Laporte and Chase. Jones raised a swift fly which Keeler collared after a run. Isbell hit to Moriarty, who fumbled, but recovered the ball in time to retire him. NO RUNS.

Moriarty waited patiently and was handed a free pass to first. Conroy drove a long fly to Jones. Hoffman forced Moriarty at second, Isbell unassisted. Hoffman stole second. Sullivan's throw down being low. Kleinow's hot grounder hit Walsh's shins, but Davis got the ball and threw in time to nail him at first. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Donohue's high bounder to the infield was good for a base. Davis sacrificed, Kleinow throwing him out to Chase. Dougherty hit to Kitson and Donohue was caught between second and third, Kitson to Moriarty to Laporte. Rohe was retired by Moriarty and Chase. NO RUNS.

Davis made a pretty running stop of Kitson's bounder over Walsh's head and threw him out. Keeler fanned out and the rooters groaned. Elberfeld sent a bounder to Donohue, who tossed it to Walsh, who covered the bag. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Sullivan sent up a fly to short left and Moriarty got it when it came down. Walsh planted the ball in short right centre and rested at first. Hahn sent out a high one to Keeler. Jones waited for the ball between Elberfeld and Laporte, sending Walsh to second. Keeler made a great running catch of Isbell's long fly to right, robbing the batter of a three-bagger. NO RUNS.

Chase was deadlocked to first. Laporte was only able to send a long fly to Jones. Moriarity hit to Rohe, who threw to Isbell, forcing Chase. Moriarity tried to steal second, but was easily nailed by Sullivan's throw to Davis. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Donohue smashed a hot grounder to Laporte, who got the ball in time to Chase. Davis smashed a fly straight into Conroy's hands. Dougherty drove one up the first base line for two bases. Rohe went out on his bounder to Chase, unassisted. NO RUNS.

Conroy sent a scorching grounder to Isbell, but perished at first. Hoffman let four wide ones go by. Kleinow drove a bounder at Isbell, who threw to Davis, forcing Hoffman. Kitson lined the ball over Rohe's head for a base, sending Kleinow to second. Keeler looked too dangerous and Walsh gave him a pass. Elberfeld hit safely to the infield, scoring Kleinow and leaving the bases full. Chase hit safely to centre, scoring Kitson and Keeler with the tieing runs. Elberfeld reaching second. Laporte forced Chase at second. Davis tossing the ball to Isbell. THREE RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Sullivan was disposed of on his infield grounder to Moriarity to Chase. Walsh's grounder was nailed by Elberfeld, but he fumbled it and Walsh was safe at first. Hahn hit to Elberfeld, and Walsh was forced at second, Elberfeld to Moriarity. Jones flied out to Conroy. NO RUNS.

Donohue made a sensational one-handed running catch of Moriarty's low line fly. Conroy was a good waiter and was rewarded with a free pass to first. Hoffman sacrificed. Rohe making a fast throw to Donohue. Kleinow's infield grounder was taken care of by Isbell and Donohue. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Isbell hit to Chase, but as Hall threw the ball high to Kitson the batter was safe. Donohue was retired by Laporte and Chase. Isbell moving up to second. Davis raised a high foul fly back of first which Chase collared after a run. Dougherty was the third victim, Chase making a great one-handed catch of Moriarty's throw. NO RUNS.

(Special to The Evening World.)

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 13.—The famous woman in blue from Manhasset, Long Island, who last year and the year before last made repeated ineffectual efforts to reach President Roosevelt, has arrived at Oyster Bay.

She was seen on the street in Oyster Bay this afternoon. She said she hoped see President Roosevelt this year. What she had to tell him could not be placed in writing. ORCHARD GIVES WAY AND SOBS ON WITNESS STAND

Long Spell of Cross-Examination Has Its Effect on Gov. Steunenberg's Slayer and He Breaks Down.

GIVES WAY TO TEARS WHEN GOV. PEABODY GREETS HIM,

Assassin Tells the Man Whose Life Was in Danger from Bombs and Bullets That He Is Glad He Didn't Kill Him.

BOISE, June 13.—After withstanding with marvellous strength of nerve and muscle a week's examination that was one prolonged confession of crime, Harry Orchard to-day broke down and for a few moments wept like a child. His unnerving came with the story of his conversion and confession, and the mention of King David, murderer, the Biblical figure which is supposed to be Orchard's later guide.

The defense had given solemn pledge to the scene preceding the meeting between Orchard and Detective McParland, to whom he confessed, by showing that Orchard was first illegally brought to the penitentiary and thrust into almost solitary connnement. His only cell neighbor was a negro, Bob Weiter, a condemned murderer. Then came the first McParland interview and the story of David and Uriah.

Thought of Suicide.

Orchard just before the noon adjournment, in low and sunken tones, told of his conversion. He told how, when in the penitentiary, he reviewed his past life and thought of putting himself out of the way, and that he ought to make a clean breast of it all. He said he had come to feel that the grave did not end it all.

The story was told to a hushed courtroom, the silence only being broken by the drone of Orchard's voice.

Orchard also testified that he was a Mason when he lived in Canada and a member of the Colborn Lodge.

Cries at Meeting Peabody.

Former Governor Peabody and Orchard met face to face in the office of J. H. Hawley a few minutes after the recess. Orchard, while plainly nervous from the strain of his examination, had recovered his equanimity and was speaking to one of the men who had accompanied him from the court-house when the Governor entered.

Orchard recognized him at once. As Mr. Peabody approached the man who had hunted him for a year, seeking an opportunity to kill, Orchard's face changed. He shrank back and trembled. The former Governor, smilingly held out
