THE CELEBRATED JACK,
DON QUIXOTTE.

THE subscriber being desirous, and seeing the necessity of raising our own stock, has taken great pains in selecting one of the finest imported Jacks that could be obtained from Europe. He is a beautiful white, near fourteen hands high, possessing fine bone and sinew. He will stand the ensuing season at the subscribers five miles south-east of Canton, and will be let to mares at the following prices:—Ten dollars the single visit, to be paid on rendering service, fifteen dollars if paid within the season, or seventeen and a half without, and twenty dollars insurance; in all cases where a mare is put by the insurance and traded off before the expiration of the season, the insurance money will be demanded. All persons living at a distance, and wishing to put mares, can have them kept in a good pasture, or fed on any kind of grain, on the most reasonable terms.

Persons wishing to raise their own stock would do well to call and examine for themselves, as I consider him the finest animal of his kind in all our country. All care will be taken to prevent accidents, but I will not be responsible for any. Season to commence on the first of March, and end the first of July.
