FARMERS IN IRELAND ENLIST RELUCTANTLY

TOWNSPEOPLE MORE READY TO RESPOND TO CALL TO ARMS

(By Associated Press.)

DUBLIN, Mar. 1.—Irish recruiting is proceeding in accordance with the expectations of the military authorities. It received a great fillip from the visit to Galway of the Lord Lieutenant and John Redmond. The scenes in the Galway streets exceeded in the number of crowds and the enthusiasm of the welcome, anything previously experienced in the same city at purely Nationalist demonstrations.

The main difficulty about Irish recruiting is the reluctance of the farmers to enlist. The trouble was also found in England, and indeed in all countries the man on the farm is the most reluctant fighter. There has been a good deal of argument in Ireland as to the respective contributions of Unionists and Nationalists, and some bandying of criticisms in the party newspapers on each side. But the real line of distinction is between town and country. In all parts of Ireland the townsmen have joined in large numbers in proportion to the population. In no part of Ireland have the farmers done anything like so well.

Lord Wimborne noted that at least twenty Irish towns claim to be at the top of the list in the proportion of men recruiting and that Ballina challenges Belfast. In some small towns the average has been higher than in England. Mr. Redmond did not mince his words in his appeal to the farmers to come forward. He believed that they would have most to lose from a defeat in the war, and he told them that if they would not fight for their land and left the townsmen to do the fighting for them their position was contemptible. There has been much improvement in the way of approaching the people with recruiting appeals and so far the result has been admittedly satisfactory. But eleven hundred men a week at least are wanted and the effort to keep up the supply will be steadily maintained.

NEW RULER FOR THE DUTCH EAST INDIES

FORTY-FIVE MILLION PEOPLE HAVE COUNT VON STIRUM FOR GOVERNOR

(By Associated Press.)

THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Mar. 1.—A new ruler for the forty-five million inhabitant of the Dutch East Indies has just left for his post in the person of Count Johan Paul von Limburg Stirum.

The new governor general belongs to one of the most aristocratic Holland families. He studied at Leyden university, where he received the degree of Doctor of Laws. Entering the diplomatic service, he was soon reckoned among the best of the corps. He was at different times served at the Dutch legations in Rome, Constantinople and Peking. It was in these two latter capitals that he acquired what knowledge he possesses of Netherlands' Indian interests. Then up to the time of his appointment two or three months ago he was Dutch minister in the Scandinavian countries. On a previous visit to the East Indies he is stated to have made a deep impression on high government circles, both by his personality and his correct insight, especially into Mohammedan affairs.

THE ELKS' LEAP YEAR PARTY

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the announcement by the social committee of the Elks that the ladies will do the soliciting of dances at the leap year party to be given in the Elks' home Friday night. It is predicted that some of the heretofore heartless men will find out just where they stand, or rather sit, when the ladies have a chance to make wall flowers of them. However, a most enjoyable time is looked for, this being the last pre-Lent affair to be given by the Elks.

OFF FOR DOG HEAVEN

The impression seems to prevail that there is no dog catcher on the job at present, but Chief Evans informs the Bonanza that an average of two unmuzzled dogs a day are yielding up their lives on the city dump. The name of the new dog catcher is not given out at present, as he can do better work quietly.
