KING OF CONEY WILL BE NAMED IN JUST 10 DAYS

Now 55 Candidates for Evening World Readers to Choose From.

ECONOPOULY IN LEAD.

Friends of Others Are Hustling Though, and Every Ballot Counts.

Visitors to Coney Island who desire to vote for King of the Mardi Gras should cut out this guide.

Location of ballot boxes at Coney Island:

Miller Bros. 101 Ranch, Brighton Beach.
Deluge, Surf avenue and West Fifteenth street.
Bayside River, Surf avenue, near West Seventeenth street.
Hollender's Music Hall, Bowery and Thompson's Walk.
Tilyou's Steeplechase Park.
Albemarle Hotel, Surf avenue.
F. Akoun's, Sea Beach Palace.

There are only ten days of the campaign left in which to determine who is to have the honor and wear the crown of King of the Mardi Gras and Carnival of the Original States at Coney Island, ruling the Isle of Joy from Sept. 16 to Sept. 21, inclusive. Twenty-two candidates have polled more than 1,000 votes each, and the five leaders in the contest have an aggregate of 150,000 Evening World coupon ballots to their credit.

New candidates appear in the field every day, and fifty-five aspirants are now on the roll with more than 200 votes each.

John Econopouly, of Econopouly Brothers, of the vast Moving Picture Auditorium, Henderson's Walk and Bowery, Coney Island, has the lead today with 45,318 votes to his credit.

May be this announcement, blazoned on the moving picture curtain between exhibits, has something to do with it:

THE EVENING WORLD
Has Granted Permission to the Sweetest of All Creations, Namely
THE LADIES,
To Cast a Vote,
Cut Out Coupon Ballot from the Evening World, and Vote for
JOHN ECONOPOULY
for King of the Coney Island Mardi Gras

Maybe it is because his 25,000 fellow-Greeks in Greater New York are working for this tall son of Sparta.

Here is a letter from one accompanying a big bundle of Evening World coupon ballots marked for him:

Inclosed please find 6,000 Evening World coupons for Mr. John Econopouly from his employees, of whom George Cane is working hardest to see his employer elected King.
G. CANEL.

I send in a vote for Mr. John Econopouly.
SAMUEL GROESIYAN, Brooklyn.

Mr. Econopouly has the advantage today, too, because, three miles away, at Ulmer Park, 20,000 of his brother Knights of Pythias are picnicking and he is floor manager for the dancers. The following letter, addressed to him from the Kalich Theatre, Manhattan, tells the feeling of the Knights toward this member of Arion Lodge, Brooklyn:

Most Illustrious Brother Knight—Out from amid the darkness your name shone in golden letters before us as a candidate for the high honor of "King of the Mardi Gras."

Sire! It is our extreme pleasure to extend to you our votes and at the same time our congratulation. We already hail you the "Majesty of the Carnival" for he who wears the golden spurs of Pythian knighthood, he only is worthy of the kingdom of any carnival under the earth.

Be brave and you shall conquer. We, your brave knights, are with you. Do not fear, for the darkness that now surrounds you is symbolic of life.

Again congratulating you, sire, we beg to be yours in F. C. and B.
Leon Spadlin, Victor Trager, Louis Lapidus.

There Are Others.

But there are others. Corse Payton has 40,577 votes, Elias Rosenthal has 28,325, while Jerry Donnelly, manager of Ike Hollender's Music Hall, Coney Island, has 22,266 and confidently expects that when The Evening World readers look upon the picture of his beautiful young wife, Miss Edna Crane, the dainty soubrette, they will double his count in a single day.

Mr. Rosenthal's friends are still working hard, as these letters to the Mardi Gras editor imply:

"Inclosed please find 100 coupons for our esteemed and noble friend, Elias Rosenthal, which kindly add to his. We are not very fast leaving the post, but you will pass from us at the finish. We will be very thankful if you enter this little item in your valuable paper.
"JACK KRAUSHAAR.
"Chairman of Committee.
"Members—Rink Leef, Venezia Kaufhelmer, Pole Rosenthal, Woolen Brains Wallenstein, Nick Seligman, Bruno Kaiser, Count Von Horn, Brenk Spear and Dricktoo Feichtwanger."

"Inclosed find 15 votes for Elias Rosenthal as King of Mardi Gras, Coney Island.
"BARNET BERNSTEIN,
"No. 56 Hester street."

"Inclosed find 10 votes for Mr. Rosenthal from some of the boys.
"CHARLES STOLLINGHAM."

George W. Hall's vote went up a peg on Sunday, his total being 2,152. He is a fine specimen of American young manhood. At twenty-five he is chief crew despatcher at the Thirty-sixth street station of the B. R. T. He has been eight years with the company and has played every part, from porter and platform man up. He will be president of the company some day.

Excerpts from a few letters follow:

"Just a reminder—226 votes for F. Gussibel, President of the Peanut Club, Brooklyn."

"Here are 17 votes for Fred Schue, of the Sparkling Hotel, New Iron Pier Walk, Coney Island—one for every year since he opened this house. He is 'mainzer' or historian of the Carnival Verein, which has at Terrace Garden each year the biggest and most sensational masquerade ball since the Liederkranz gave theirs up. "VEREIN.
"VEREIN."

"Inclosed please find 56 votes for Fred Schue, our old member. Collected from members of Mainzer Carnival Verein."

Mr. Schue has 1,319.

1,000 for Ben Ryan.

"Inclosed please find a vote for Chief Bull Bear, of 101 Ranch, Wild West Show, of Brighton Beach, Coney Island. One vote is not much, but every little bit helps. I think if an Indian chief would lead the parade it would draw great attraction. With luck to Chief Bull Bear.
"HERMAN BUNGARZ."

Ben Ryan, of the Dan Kelly Club, is looking up, and his stock is booming. He has 1,539 votes. This letter came to-day:

"Inclosed find 1,000 votes for our president, Ben Ryan, of the Daniel R. Kelly Club, of Brooklyn. We are striving to make him if not King, at least one of the honorary escort. Don't think for a moment that we have given up hope of electing him King, as there are a lot of our members who have made no returns as yet, and when the final votes are counted we don't think our candidate will be very far down from first. Kindly give this letter a space in your paper and prepare to count many more for Ben Ryan. "DANIEL R. KELLY CLUB.
"Robert O'Neill, Secretary."

"Eighty-one votes for King Corsi and Queen Amelia Gibson Girl.
"THOMAS SCHOOL OF ART."

"Inclosed please find 325 votes for our friend, James Curakos as King of Mardi Gras. Member of the firm of Paradise Confectionery Company, Seventy-second street and Second avenue, New York City.
"THE JUNIOR EDUC. AND PLEASURE CIRLE."

"Inclosed find 80 more votes for Mr. D. E. Taylor, of No. 234 Spencer street, Brooklyn. Please add to what has been sent, making in all about 230, and publish in the candidate column. By doing so you will greatly favor
"THE RACHET CLUB.
J. Byrne, President."

Mr. Taylor has 202 votes.

"If you will kindly support Chief Bull Bear I will be very thankful to you. My reasons for wishing him elected are these: He will be a real American King and it will delight the Indians to see partly what the white men can do for their chief. The carnival will be more interesting to see the Indians; cowpunchers, cowboys and cowgirls in parade. Though there will be many other things, this will make it still more interesting and amusing. "COLBY WALKER.
"Ten years of age."

"Inclosed find 78 votes in favor of Chief Bull Bear, of 101 Ranch, which please place to his credit and oblige
"LOVERS OF WILD WEST."

FOUR RESCUED AFTER HUNT FOR LIFE-SAVERS

Crippled Launch Drifted Helplessly in Front of Manhattan Beach.

For an hour and a half last night a disabled launch with four men in it drifted in a heavy sea in front of Manhattan Beach Hotel, while persons on the shore hunted for life savers. Finally two volunteers went out in a little boat and brought the exhausted quartet to land.

Henry Meyers, one of the lessees of the hotel, was walking along the ocean when he heard cries and caught a glimpse of a dim flare about 300 yards out in the surf. Meyers gave the alarm.

Three men from Bath Beach—Joe Mack, Bernard Morse and Jacob Emetsky—ran along the front, clear to Sheepshead Bay trying to find a life guard. They kept up the hunt for more than an hour. Meanwhile the cries from the sea grew fainter and fainter.

At length the Bath Beach men located Jerry Donohue and Edward Clarke, bathhouse attendants at Manhattan Beach Hotel. These two put out in a 14-foot rowboat. A quarter of a mile out in the big swells the plucky rowboat pair found a gasoline launch with a crippled engine pitching in the rollers. In it were four very sick, very tired, very badly frightened men—two of them so nearly worn out as to be helpless. It was hard work getting the overloaded 14-footer back to the shore, but Donohue and Clarke accomplished it by careful steering.

After they had been warmed and revived at the hotel the rescued men told their story. They said they had started from Jersey City after blue fish. Off Sandy Hook late in the afternoon their batteries gave out, and for five hours they drifted along the Long Island shore. They gave their names as C. W. Berger, of No. 230 Perry street; Charles F. and Bernard Johnson, brothers, of No. 325 Bowers street, and Henry Hanson, of Ocean avenue, all in Jersey City.

GOT ARRESTED FOR TALKING TO BOYS

Magistrate Gives Warning of Danger There Is in "Being Nice" to Children.

"In these days in New York City any man is a fool who talks to a boy or girl on the street, no matter how fond he may be of children."

With this lecture Magistrate Breen to-day discharged Henry Ferris, a telegraph operator, who was arrested Sunday on a Hamilton avenue ferry boat for conversing with two boys, William and James Burns. The technical charge was attempted kidnapping.

Ferris explained when arraigned in the Centre Street Police Court that he was a father, and extremely fond of boys. He admitted having taken a glass too many, but declared that when he offered the Burns boys money he did it solely because he liked children.

BATHER DIES IN SURF.

BEACH HAVEN, N. J., Sept. 2—Charles S. Oesterle, aged forty years, of Philadelphia, died of heart disease while bathing in the surf here yesterday. He was a member of the Avis Publishing Company, of Philadelphia.

MANY FAMILIES ROUTED BY FIRE

Police Assist in Rescuing Horses in Burning Stable Near Tenderloin.

During a fire early this morning in a stable at No. 233 West Thirtieth street, opposite the West Thirtieth Street station, a score of horses were rescued and before the blaze was extinguished the occupants of adjoining houses were routed out by the firemen and police.

While passing the stable, John Reilly, of No. 234 West Thirtieth street, and John P. Fallon, of No. 233 West Thirtieth street, who had been to a wedding, saw smoke issuing from the second story window.

"My brother, Frank, has got some horses in there. We must get them out," Reilly exclaimed as he dashed to the door. The two men succeeded in getting the door open and both started in to unhitch the score of horses.

In the meantime the police from the "Tenderloin" station, across the street, arrived and got hold of the animals as they dashed to the door.

Smoke quickly filled a three-story tenement-house in the rear of the stable and also an adjoining tenement at No. 235. The families were quickly ordered out by the police and firemen.

The damage was small.

KNOWS MURDERER OF GOEBEL, POWERS SAYS.

Accused Kentuckian, Resenting the Action of Political Candidate, Promises Sensation.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Sept. 2.—Goaded by the statements Saturday in the opening speech of Judge S. W. Hager, Democratic nominee for Governor, that if elected he would not pardon Caleb Powers if convicted for conspiracy in the murder of Gov. William Goebel, Powers has issued a written statement saying that he has at last learned the name of the man who murdered Goebel, and could point him out.

Powers says that the man who killed Goebel is not Jim Howard, who is serving a life sentence in the penitentiary on that charge.

"The time has come," he added, "when my name must not be dragged into political campaigns to be used to win one candidate, or prove a disadvantage to the other."

Powers says if he does not get a trial before the election, that immediately after the next Governor of the State is elected, he will demand a trial, and will aid in bringing the real murderer to justice.

"L'S" HIGHEST CURVE SAFE, SAY EXPERTS

Quicksand Has Undermined Pillar, but Structure Is All Right.

Interborough engineers declared today that the elevated railroad structure in Cathedral Parkway is safe, notwithstanding a section of the street surrounding one of the pillars supporting the road has caved in from two to five feet. Quicksand is believed to have caused the drop of the street, which occurred in the Parkway just west of Manhattan avenue yesterday.

It was believed by non-experts that the "L" structure was weakened, but inspectors from the Department of Highways and Interborough engineers started an examination and decided it was all right. Trains went ahead as if nothing had happened. A section of the street fifteen feet square fell in.

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

The deep, underlying cause of every old sore is a bad condition of the blood. This vital fluid has become infected with some germ or poison which prevents the place from healing. This infection may be the result of an inactive, sluggish condition of the system leaving the refuse matter of the body to be absorbed into the circulation instead of throwing it off through the usual channels of nature. Another cause is the weakening or polluting of this life stream from hereditary taints, or from the effects of a long spell of sickness, leaving disease germs in the system. When the blood is in this condition a sore cannot heal because the impurities with which the circulation is filled are being constantly discharged into the place to irritate and inflame the tissues and further disease the surrounding flesh. The only treatment that can do any good is one that removes the cause, and for this purpose nothing equals S. S. S. It begins at the fountain head of the trouble and drives out all germs, impurities and poisons, and then the place, being supplied with rich, pure blood, heals naturally and permanently. Local applications assist in cleansing the place, but a cure can only be effected through a purification of the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free.
