A PLEA FOR THE EAGLE.

There is merit in the proposal of T. Gilbert Pearson, president of the National Association of Audubon Societies, that the killing of bald eagles of Alaska be stopped until careful investigation has disclosed whether the birds deserve death. Alaska is the last remaining place owned by the United States where the bald eagle, symbol of American independence, is to be found in large numbers, and there is some likelihood that it will be exterminated there unless the warfare now being waged against the bird is ended. On the ground that as a predatory creature it destroys animal life which would be of value to mankind the territorial government is paying a bounty for each eagle killed, and

PERU PAYS HONOR CONGRESSWOMAN ALICE ROBERTSON

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 13.—When Representative Alice Robertson presided over the house recently during adoption of a resolution authorizing the United States to participate in the fiftieth anniversary of Peruvian independence, Ambassador F. A. Pezet of Peru sent to the first woman who has ever swung the house gavel a great bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Republican Leader Mondell stopped proceedings in the house to read to it the accompanying letter which accompanied the flowers, the Oklahoma Republican woman member:

"Our fair congresswoman," Ambassador Pezet wrote. "For the first time in the annals of history a lady representative in the parliament of a great nation became upon the assembling of a lady presidential [illegible] the motion authorizing the passage of a [illegible] resolution of the senate and house of representatives of the United States authorizing the president to appoint a special mission on the part of the United States at the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the proclamation of independence of the Republic of Peru.

"In the representative of the people of enlightened and valiant America I wish to express my satisfaction [illegible] gratification [illegible] [illegible] of a vote of refer[illegible] to participation in my country's [illegible] celebration. I wish in the name of the Peruvian government and people to present these flowers [illegible] with the colors of [illegible] a token of our respect and [illegible] the government and people [illegible] sincerely yours,

"F. A. PEZET,
Ambassador of Peru."

"What's in a Name?"

By MILDRED MARSHALL

Facts about your name, its history, meaning, when it was derived, significance, your lucky day and lucky jewel.

ROSALIE.

ROSALIE and Rose appear to be of the same general root, the more euphonious name of Rosalie being a French extraction. A curious point is that the color rose is irrevocably associated with the name Rosalie, as well as Rose.

The history of the name Rosalie is most interesting. It first was given to fair women of France and it was there that St. Dominic arranged a series of devotions by means of telling beads upon a string. These formed the "rosarium," or rose garden, or freely translated, delights of devotion. The Rosarium has a day to itself in the Roman calendar and may possibly have named the transatlantic Saint Rose of Lima, which gave rise to Rosie. Switzerland calls her Rosel and France Rosette or Rosette. In England she is Rosamund, sometimes Rosabella, meaning "beautiful rose." From Italy comes Rosina and Rosetta. A more rare, but no less charming interpretation is Rosalba, signifying "white rose."

There are red roses and white roses and yellow roses in nature, yet the real rose is the deep pink and the beauty of the name or any of its derivatives should surround herself with the flowers if she would wish the psychic atmosphere which their quality bestows. Her jewel is that rare beautiful gem, the tame-hearted ruby, it signifies pride and haughtiness and suggests Tuesday as the fortunate day for its wearer and three the lucky number.

"Is it never talk scandal?"

"No," replied Miss Cayenne. "The fact that people do something terrible is no reason why I should say something shocking."

In barring catch-as-catch-can, have the dancing masters overlooked the "cake walk?"
