JACMEL, IN HAITI, GROWS PROSPEROUS

JACMEL, Haiti, Sept. 22.—Haiti is fast wresting from the island of Curacao, in the West Indies, the monopoly in the exportation of sour orange peel used for the flavoring of Curacao. Amer Picon and other liqueurs made in France, Holland and Denmark.

In July Jacmel exported 189,000 pounds of the dried peel valued at $42,000 to Hamburg, from which it is in turn shipped to the principal European markets. This amount is sixteen times greater than the total for any one month in the last nine months.

Sour orange trees grow here with practically no care, and the Jacmel district is especially prolific in the type held in such high repute in Europe. The price paid to the peasant averages between 2 and 3 cents a pound, and for each pound the peasant must pick and peel and drive into market 50 oranges. In Hamburg the selling price, f. o. b., is 22 cents a pound and Jacmel is enjoying a boom in the rapidly-expanding industry.

Reports from Hamburg from a trial shipment made several months ago were to the effect that the Jacmel peel was superior to the Curacao peel.

Jacmel's exportations of the peel to the United States, where it is used for flavoring extracts and medicinal preparations, also more than doubled last year. This year's figures will show a considerable increase over the 75,596 pounds shipped in 1921.

All this metal and more is expected, is to be converted into cash for the purchase abroad of supplies for the hungry of Russia. The first lot realized by the sale of church gold and silver was exported to Finland for food some months ago.

THE ECONOMY BAKING POWDER
CALUMET
Calumet possesses the farthest-reaching baking powder economy. It is the most modern and efficient leavening agent. It saves in many ways, and most important saving, over other baking powders.
Less to buy. The price is moderate, not far above making even the cost of inferior powders, less than other articles. Costs less than cheap powders—far more economical.
You save when you use it. Possesses more than the ordinary raising force—you use only half as much as is ordinarily required.
You save most when it is used with. Calumet never fails with any kind of recipe or with any kind of flour—always produces perfectly raised, delicious bakings.
You'll notice a great difference when you use Calumet. Calumet produces light, sweet, wholesome, flaky bakings. You will notice with some of the cheaper brands the bakings are soggy, heavy, dark in color, and sometimes have a bitter taste.

Used by leading chefs and domestic scientists, and by more housewives than any other brand. Made in the world's largest and finest baking powder plants.
Best by test. A trial proves it.

The Law Says 16 oz. to a Pound
A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

This illustration of the New Queen Broom Holder will give you an idea of how handy and simple it really is—No home is complete without this practical, convenient device. We have one for your home and want you to call and receive this useful household necessity with our compliments.
