STOCKS FALL AWAY IN BRISK MARKET

Trading Lacks Feature and Most of the Leaders Show Fractional Changes

The current of the opening price movement in stocks to-day was uncertain and did not show vigor in either direction, while the dealings were small. New York Central declined a point, and Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Sainte Marie rose 1 1-2. Otherwise there were only narrow fractional changes.

In later dealings the tendency was downward. Business was fairly active. Missouri Pacific and New York Central declined 2 points, St. Paul 1 3-4, Great Northern preferred 1 3-8, Atchison and Colorado & Southern second preferred 1 1-2, American Smelting 1 3-8 and Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Northern Pacific, Pennsylvania, Amalgamated Copper and People's Gas 1 to 1 1-8. Federal Mining preferred advanced 3 3-4, Central Railroad of New Jersey 2, Cleveland, Chicago, Cincinnati & St. Louis 1 1-2, Denver & Rio Grande 1 1-4 and Distillers' Securities 1.

In the afternoon the market receded on light offerings. The liquidation of Missouri Pacific created an uneasy impression of the possible resumption of other urgent liquidation. Missouri Pacific broke 5 1-2 to 46 1-2, the lowest of the year. Union Pacific and Atchison extended their losses to 2 1-2, Amalgamated Copper 1 5-8, American Sugar 1 1-2, Baltimore and Ohio and Brooklyn Transit 1 3-8 and Delaware and Hudson and General Electric 1. National Lead preferred improved 2 points.

The market closed weak. Declines were extended all around. St. Paul falling an extreme 8 points. Central Railroad of New Jersey reacting 5 from its 2-point advance. Northern Pacific losing 3 3-4. Great Northern preferred 3. Corn Products preferred and Pennsylvania 2 1-4. Brooklyn Transit, Reading, Pacific Coast and General Electric 2 and Louisville and Nashville, Chesapeake and Ohio, Northwestern, Atchison preferred, Erie 1st preferred, Pressed Steel Car preferred, Consolidated Gas and Colorado Fuel 1. Canada Southern sold at a decline of 6 5-8. Atlantic Coast Line gained 1 3-4 and Westinghouse Electric 1 1-4.

The total sale of stock were 422,600 shares, and of bonds $2,690,000.

COUPLE END LIFE BY JUMP IN THAMES

Alexander Good and Wife, Authors, Give Up Losing Battle With Poverty.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The bodies of Alexander Good and his wife were found here in the Thames to-day. Both were authors and Mrs. Good was a painter of some note. They had tied themselves together and jumped into the river after a losing struggle for existence. They left the cheap lodgings to which they had been reduced Nov. 2, and gave their last pennies to the landlady.

A letter to a friend said in part:

"If you think of us in the future do not do so sadly. Remember we shall sleep together, and what is better than sleep after the long day's work?"

The tragedy recalls the death recently of Francis Thompson, the poet, who after being rescued from selling matches and holding horses, became admired all over the world, and died in poverty.

Charm

Charm—more potent than beauty—is the summation of small attractions. The charming woman appreciates the importance of good taste in the selection of her perfume.

Kerkoff's Djer-Kiss
