GREATEST WALKING CLUB IN AMERICA TO START WITH WESTON MONDAY

Mayor McClellan Indorses The Evening World's Walk.

I know from personal experience that walking, systematically indulged in and attended by proper observance of the rules of health, is a great exercise and muscle builder for the boys of New York. I am glad to note the movement making by The Evening World toward the establishment of walking clubs, and those who participate in the jaunts under the direction of that experienced pedestrian, Edward Payson Weston, must needs benefit physically. I shall cheerfully co-operate in making the club walks successful so far as my official capacity will allow, and I am sure that if city permits are required for walks through park paths and avenues they will be forthcoming from the proper officials.

Walking is a great upbuilder of the system and should become a national method of exercise. Less street-car riding and more walking would prove profitable in more ways than one to our people."

"Good Idea; Schoolboys Get Little Chance to Walk."

—LUTHER HALSEY GULICK.

I think Mr. Weston's proposition is a very good one. Walking is a fine exercise. If interest in it should spread through the schools Mr. Weston would find himself a busy man. There are about six hundred thousand school children in New York City. At least half of the boys are interested in athletic sports and take some part in the school athletic games.

We don't know yet positively what will be the effect of early training. Complete records are being kept of the effect of athletic training on the boys. In a few years we may find our modern system of school athletics turning out athletes that will completely eclipse our record performances of to-day. Children in the city have very little chance to walk. A few years ago most American children had to walk long distances to go to school. Now if they have far to go they ask their parents for carfare. Walking is far more healthful than riding. We are becoming too much of a sit-down animal. We sit down when we are at work and when we are going from one place to another, even if it is only for a short distance. Yes, indeed; I think Mr. Weston's idea is an excellent one, and I shall be glad to help him try the practical application of it.

LUTHER HALSEY GULICK, of Schoolboys' Athletic League.

T. P. Shonts Wishes He Were a Boy to Join the Walks.

I believe Mr. Weston's idea of improving the health of the boys of New York will be a great benefit to the physical manhood of the city in the future. It is very necessary that they should be taught to walk right, and Mr. Weston is the man to do it. If I had time I would like to join the club and be one of those boys myself.

T. P. SHONTS, President Interborough-Metropolitan Company.

Boys Enthusiastic About First Walk Under Direction of Famous Old Pedestrian.

Some Notable Feats in the Career of Pedestrian Weston

His first walk of importance was from Boston to Washington to attend the inauguration of President Abraham Lincoln.

In 1879 he tramped 5,000 miles in 100 days, from Portland, Me., to Chicago, about 1,500 miles, in twenty-five days.

In 1874 he walked 500 miles in six days, and five years later he added fifty miles to that record, winning the Astley belt.

In 1879 he tramped 5,000 miles in 100 days.

At the age of sixty-eight he walked from Philadelphia to New York in twenty-four hours less time than it took him to cover the same course in 1863.

His last great feat of pedestrianism was his walk from Portland, Me., to Chicago in twenty-four days, making the record he made forty years ago.

Mr. Weston is now sixty-nine years old and says his career as a walker is far from being ended.

By Edward Payson Weston.

WHEN we gather at One Hundred and Tenth street and Seventh avenue for our first walk on Monday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock we are going to have the greatest walking club that was ever organized in America. I know it. The boys all over New York are writing to me every day and they tell me that they have already started on preliminary walks and are in fine shape to start with me Monday. Though it takes a long time it is one of my greatest sources of enjoyment to sit down before a basketful of these letters and read what the little fellows of New York have to say about walking. Some of these letters from boys of fifteen would do credit to any grown men. As a rule the handwriting is perfectly legible and the spelling is almost perfect.

The most interesting part of these letters, however, is the many unique ways the boys have of expressing their views on walking. One little fellow thinks it would be an elegant idea for the boys all to wear tennis shoes or slippers. He thinks they would be much lively on their feet, but he is mistaken. I don't want any of the boys to wear slippers. You should wear plain broad-toed heavy street shoes. You may not know but you will get footsore very quickly while wearing slippers or rubber bottom shoes. They only help you for a few minutes and then they are worse than no shoes at all.

Soreness Always There at Start.

Several of the boys write that they have contracted a soreness in the calves of their legs and want to know how it can be cured. That made me laugh heartily. The calves of your legs always get a little numb—not sore—when you take your first outdoor exercise. Don't you know how sore your legs get the first day after you play baseball in the spring? You have simply got to walk that off. The muscles will soon get accustomed to your gait and the "soreness" will leave in a day or two. That "soreness" is a sure sign that you haven't been taking enough exercise heretofore.

I was delighted to know last night that Mayor McClellan, Superintendent Maxwell, of the Public Schools; Mr. T. P. Shonts, President of the Interborough Company, Dr. Halsey Gulick and others had approved of my plan for helping you boys to improve your health. It shows that the leading men of the city are interested in your welfare and will lend a helping hand to your movement. Police Commissioner Bingham is another who thinks walking a great exercise for boys.

In this connection I received a very interesting letter from my old friend, Maclyn Arbuckle, the actor, in which he says:

"I myself am a walker, and find much pleasure and benefit from my daily walk. I am sorry I shall not be here to join the club and 'hit the road' with you. The Evening World, through you, is doing the boys and young men a great good in utilizing your walking and writings on the subject. I weigh 225 pounds, but find no trouble in a brisk ten-mile walk. It keeps me young and healthy."

Boys Getting Too Ambitious.

I am afraid that some of the boys are getting a little too ambitious. One young fellow of sixteen wants to walk from New York to Boston, and wants to know if it will be harmful. Yes, it would be very harmful. No boy under twenty-one years of age should attempt such a distance. It is liable to retard your growth. It is too much of a tax upon the system.

There are any number of letters before me in which the boys recount the distances they have gone and the distances they have covered. They want to know if their time is good.

I haven't time to answer these questions, and besides I have no records at my command. I do not believe in racing against time while taking preliminary walks in the first stages. It is liable to do you more harm than good until after you have become a hardened and experienced walker. We are not after records now. We are after health. Get that first and then you can get records.

Some Final Suggestions.

Now, there is one more thing I want to impress upon your mind. When you meet me at One Hundred and Tenth street Monday afternoon be sure and bring your overcoat or some kind of a wrap. After walking the two miles you are liable to get warm and perhaps perspire, and you will need something to wrap up in to prevent catching cold. While taking the walk you can carry your overcoat on your arm.

Just one more reminder:

The place: One Hundred and Tenth street and Seventh avenue.

The time: Monday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.

The route: Seventh avenue to One Hundred and Sixteenth street, thence along St. Nicholas avenue to One Hundred and Fiftieth street.

The distance: Two miles.

Ready For The Walk.

Supt. Maxwell Favors Walks for the School Children.

I am heartily in favor of any outdoor exercise that will improve the physical condition of our school children, and the plan proposed by The Evening World and Mr. Weston for afternoon outdoor walks is a step in the right direction. I have always been an advocate of outdoor walking.

WILLIAM H. MAXWELL, Superintendent of New York Public Schools.

TREATMENT WESTON ADVISES TO PREVENT SORE FEET.

On account of the hundreds of inquiries coming to me in regar to the salt water treatment for the feet to prevent them from becoming sore when on long walks I repeat it for the benefit of those who have not seen my previous article in The Evening World:

Get a quantity of common rock salt, which can be bought at any grocery or feed store. Dissolve a cupful of this in a quart of boiling water. When it has dissolved thoroughly add five quarts of cold water. Bathe the feet in this for about five minutes at night before retiring. Dry them thoroughly and then rinse in a solution of pure alcohol and water in half and half quantities. Do not use wood alcohol under any circumstances as it is poisonous. Do not use the ordinary table salt for the solution, as it contains a certain amount of sodium, which is apt to give the feet a burning sensation.

Use the salt water solution cold, or at the same temperature as you have your bath.

STARS OF THE TURF IN EASTERN CLASSICS

THE Suburban has received forty-four entries, the Brooklyn thirty-six and the Brighton forty, with horse-owners located in the South and West yet to be heard from.

If the entries continue to pour in at the present rate the number of nominations for the Eastern turf classics will create a new record.

All the great race horses of this country are engaged. There is Colin, undisputed champion of the two-year olds of 1907; Nealon, hero of the last Suburban; Superman, winner of the Brooklyn; Salvidere, the great "cup" plodder, Ballot, winner of many stake features; Dr. Gardner, the Excelsior Handicap victor, and Charles Edward, the great miler.

The only great horse of last season that is missing is Peter Pan, the giant son of Commando. He won the Brighton Handicap in the most sensational race of last year. In a talk with James R. Keene printed in The World last Sunday, he stated that the colt had supped a trifle at the result of his great effort in that race, and was at Castleton Stud, in Kentucky.

The horses engaged in the trio of great handicaps are:

The Suburban.

Nealon, Ballot, Colin, Ellisdale, Westbury, Cottontown, Lawrence P., Daley, Salvidere, Jim Gaffney, Hessian, McCarter, Charles Edward, Superman, Celt, Fountainblue, Royal Tourist, Senator Clay, Beatlecrest, Dandelion, De Mund, Master Robert, Rifleman, Running Account, Gretna Green, Rostrouche, Gold Lady, Frank Gill, Electioneer, King James, W. H. Daniel, Dr. Gardner, Running Water, W. H. Carey, Elliott, Transvaal, Lane Allen, Timber, Tourmente, Redcoin, Bilsk, Bob Falcada, Chaseaway, Inferno, Don Enrique.

The Brooklyn.

Salvidere, King James, Kercheval, Nealon, Charles Edward, Running Account, Don Enrique, Notasulga, Osbert, Lane Allen, Dandelion, W. H. Daniel, Berkeley, Chaseaway, Falcada, Don Creole, Cottontown, Senator Clay, Lawrence P. Daley, Minnie Adams, De Mund, Jim Gaffney, Dr. Gardner, Mordant, Chesapeake, Dandelion, Water, Rifleman, Royal Tourist, Westbury, Ballot, Superman, Gretna Green, Colin, Celt, Transvaal, Rostrouche.

The Brighton.

Salvidere, Colin, Nealon, Celt, Charles Edward, Frank Gill, Ballot, Superman, Running Account, Rostrouche, Dandelion, Dr. Gardner, Royal Tourist, Timber, Transvaal, Gretna Green, Fountainblue, Ellisdale, Dr. Gardner, Tourenne, Running Water, King James, McCarter, Sam Bell, Running Water, Chaseaway, Beausoupe, Ben Fleet, Cohort, Lane Allen, Lawrence P. WITH THE BUSY PIN KNIGHTS

Recently elected officers of the Columbia Club, bowling at the Columbia alleys, No. 335 Bowery, are: President, George Praeckig; vice-president, C. J. Kane; secretary, W. Schroeder; treasurer, F. Rose; sergeant-at-arms, J. Hartman; captain, L. Duninger.

Match game bowling is becoming the leading feature in the twelfth game, and all the stars are finding plenty of engagements.

There is lots of opportunity for the New York Bowling Association to do some work for the Rochester tournament. It is to be hoped that this year President Clingen will receive more assistance than in the past.

The match game between Charley Starr and Dr. Olsson at the White Elephant following the tournament Monday night will draw a big crowd.

One can scarcely do it all, but President Clingen is too overburdened in permitting his associates in the N. Y. B. A. to run things contrary to his good judgment. A little more Clingen and a little less of alley owners' influence would be a great help to the local game.

Applications are being received for the Manhattan Bowling Association, to start at the Yorkville alleys Jan. 20. There will be twenty-one teams of five men each. This competition is one of the best known championship affairs in the city.

Final games in the Commercial League at the Colonial alleys will take place Saturday night by the Crown Suspender, American Lithograph and A. Lorillard & Co. teams.

William Plate is president of the Night Owls' Club, at the Old Homestead, in East Forty-eighth street, where members bowl Wednesday evenings.

PRIZES FOR CLEAN SCORES.

Billy Rothermel, of the Nonpareil, Brooklyn, himself a crack bowler, has evolved a new scheme in awarding monthly high score prizes among his patrons. Instead of a qualifying tournament between the ten bowlers making the highest total in five open games the prizes will go to the class A bowlers who roll the cleanest scores. This should be an encouragement to careful bowling and bowlers who can get the spares are as liable to get prizes as those who bunch their strikes, for the former, after all, are really the best bowlers. The system is one likely to be followed by many alley owners.

BOWLERS SHOOT HIGH SCORES IN TOURNEYS

SIX series of games were rolled last night in the Greater New York individual bowling tournament and crowds of spectators were present at all. The results gave victories for four of the home alley bowlers—Smith, Dunbar, Pump and Schaeder. Weingarth defeated Allen at the Grand Central, and what Schwebke did to Riddell at the Idle Hour was a sin.

There have been some poor game rolled in this tournament before, but the series at the Idle Hour more strongly illustrates the lack of class than any which have preceded. For a bowler with any claim to championship honors to roll six games with an average of 146 is pretty bad to say the least.

Champion Jimmy Smith put up the high average of the evening—211 for eight games, and his consistent form was shown in the low and high scores of 172 and 229. Lee Johns gave Schaeder a hard struggle, averaging 208 for ten games, against 210 for the winner. There were only seven pins difference in the total between Allen and Weingarth, and it is this form of bowling that makes the contest popular. The scores:

At the Morningside.

Dunbar—201, 181, 205, 227, 223, 202, 190, 226. Total, 1,660, average, 207 1-2.

Cohn—169, 192, 165, 180, 159, 203, 148, 195. Total, 1,411, average, 180 1-8.

At the Grand Central.

Allen—191, 205, 183, 184, 166, 208, 157, 238, 202, 202, 161. Total, 2,118; average 192 6-11.

Weingarth—191, 220, 218, 198, 160, 179, 172, 188, 199, 214, 205. Total, 2,125; average, 192 3-11.

At the Crotona.

Durand—221, 167, 170, 178, 194, 224, 236, 202, 185, 159, 189. Total, 2,121; average, 192 7-11.

Pump, jr.—190, 210, 172, 212, 191, 209, 231, 189, 204, 200, 214. Total, 2,231; average, 202 9-11.

At the Broadway, Brooklyn.

Johns—190, 197, 259, 249, 190, 206, 176, 193, 210, 216. Total, 2,086; average, 208 6-10.

Schaeder—215, 212, 186, 193, 205, 245, 234, 186, 189, 245. Total, 2,108; average, 210 8-10.

At the Amphion.

Schultz—181, 191, 171, 230, 236, 194, 183, 191. Total, 1,567; average, 195 7-8.

Smith—215, 227, 218, 192, 172, 211, 223, 229. Total, 1,688; average, 211.

At the Idle Hour.

Schwebke—209, 215, 193, 204, 181, 233. Total, 1,235; average, 205 5-6.

Riddell—78, 161, 176, 155, 151, 158. Total 880; average, 146 4-6.

TWO-MEN TEAM CHALLENGE.

Any two-men team of match game bowlers in the greater city with backing for $100 to $250 a side can hear of a quick acceptance by addressing Hulett & Erdmann at the Amphion, Brooklyn.

Jimmy Smith and Charley Schaeder are the Amphion bowlers who are seeking the match, and their challenge also goes for any two men in America. A proposition for a home-and-home series of games would also be considered, one series to be on the Brooklyn alleys.

Smith has requested The Evening World to renew his challenge for an individual series with any bowler in the greater city, and barring a handicap in pins the pin knight accepting the challenge will be allowed to make any reasonable conditions in the selection of alleys. Smith has also written to Frank Brill in Chicago asking for a match with any Western bowler before or during the A. B. C. tournament in Cincinnati.

MATCH GAME GOSSIP.

Champion Jimmy Smith and Big Chief Erdmann, from the Amphion, Brooklyn, roll a match contest to-morrow night with Morty Lindsey and Harry Herberg at Bergman's, One Hundred and Sixteenth street and Lenox avenue.

Bob Connaughton, a well-known baseball player, defeated Frank Harms in an interesting series at Kemp's alleys last night. The scores:

Connaughton—210, 194, 129, 116, 196, 180, 199. Average—174.

Harms—151, 156, 231, 119, 205, 161, 174. Average—187.

John Kracke and Walter Flower roll best three-out-of-five-game series 4th Fred Pump and son at Kuhlstedt's Harlem Palace alleys to-morrow evening.

Glenn Riddell will roll a best six-out-of-eleven series with Bracker, of the Park Row alleys, at Thum's White Elephant Sunday night. Charles Luhrs will probably meet the winner later in the evening.

Allen and Hartley, from the Grand Central, roll a best five out of nine game series against Whitey Horan and partner at the Albion in West Twenty-third street, Sunday night.

The champion Morgan House team, of Poughkeepsie, will take the first train after church for New York Sunday morning to contest against a picked five-men team at Wyman's Columbia Alleys, One Hundred and Fourth street and Columbus avenue, at 2.30 P. M., Sunday. The series will be best two in three games.

Harris and Walk, who were recently defeated by Frank and Romer, refuse to acknowledge the bowling supremacy of the latter team, and have arranged a return match series of four in seven games for $50. The games will be bowled on Wyman's Columbia Alleys Sunday at 3.30 o'clock.

ATHLETIC LEAGUE GAMES.

Montclair lost three straight games last night to Elizabeth on the latter's alleys in a series of the Athletic Club Bowling League. The scores:

EMPIRE CITY WILL HOLD TWO MEETINGS

AT a meeting of the representatives of all the racing associations, with the exception of the Coney Island Jockey Club and Empire City Racing Association, the subject of racing dates was discussed, but no formal action was taken, as only the stewards of the Jockey Club can assign dates.

It was reported that the Saratoga track would receive nineteen days, and that the Empire City track would get a similar number. This is a loss of three days for Saratoga from last year's schedule.

The plan agreed upon, which will be submitted to the Jockey Club stewards next Thursday for approval, was:

Empire City and Saratoga to hold meetings during August, the former of twelve days duration and the latter a meeting of nineteen days. This would make conflicting dates for two weeks. Last year both tracks ran in opposition for seventeen days.

At the conclusion of the two weeks of racing at the Empire City track in August there will be a respite until October, when it will reopen without opposition for seven days.

The Coney Island Jockey Club was the most reluctant member of the racing circuit in parting with any of its old dates to the Empire City track.

J. H. Bradford, the treasurer of the club, said that the Sheepshead Bay course was being remodelled at great expense and that it did not see its way clear under the circumstances to part with any dates. Eventually, after considerable pressure had been brought to bear, Mr. Bradford consented to the loss of one day from the old allotment. He agreed to this concession some time ago. Mr. Bradford was too ill to attend the meeting yesterday.

The Brighton Beach track will, as of old, have a summer meeting and a supplementary one in the fall.
