HIS FAMOUS RIGHT DISABLED, WALCOTT JOINS "HAS BEENS"

Once Great Welter Champion, Who Whipped Heavies, Has Gone the Route of Other Noted Title Holders.

"THE 'igher they are the 'arder they fall," Bob Fitzsimmons used to say.

This week has furnished an application of the saying that Bob never thought of in the fall of Joe Walcott. Joseph fought little Jimmy Gardner and couldn't "make good." His old-time fighting ability had gone. They say he "can't crack an egg" with his famous right fist.

Only a short time ago Gardner would have been a joke to Walcott. Where would Gardner have figured in the days when Walcott knocked out Joe Choynski, the great heavyweight, who fought Jeffries to a draw in twenty rounds? Or when he whipped Jimmy's big brother George in thirty rounds? Or when he used to trim Mysterious Billy Smith at regular intervals? Or when he knocked out the great Dan Creedon in a single round?

Walcott not so very long ago was the most picturesque figure in pugilism. He was a dumpty little bit of a coal black Barbadoes negro, only an inch and a half over five feet tall, and weighing within the welter limit of 142 pounds. Yet his fighting earned him the names, "Barbadoes Wonder," "Black Demon," "Giant-Killer," &c.

After whipping Joe Choynski Walcott was very anxious indeed to fight Tom Sharkey, who was a big man among the heavy-weights of that day. Joe challenged and challenged and challenged, without a response from the sailor. Thomas figured it out carefully and decided that if he beat Walcott he wouldn't get much credit for whipping a welter-weight, and if he chanced to get the same dose that the Giant-Killer handed to Choynski he would be pugilistically dead as a dodo.

Walcott wanted to fight Jim Corbett. I asked the little coon one day how he figured that he would have a chance with such a clever big fellow. Walcott grinned. "Well, he said, "I never has any trouble. If they's too high to reach on the jaw I just doubles 'em up with a punch in the body, and then they's easy to reach."

But Walcott seems to have gone the way of all the champions. He was a wonder in his time—but that time has passed. The main reason for his falling off isn't dissipation, as in the cases of many fighters, or in old age, for Joe is only thirty-two. The thing that troubles Walcott is that he can't hit a hard blow with his right hand. A couple of years ago he carelessly shot a bullet through the palm of it, blowing out a few sections of bone. The hand never grew strong again, and when he fights he has to bandage it heavily to use it at all. Even then he is unable to close his fist tight, and the fingers sticking out get in the way when he tries to deliver an oldtime right-hand smash.

"I SEE by the papers" that Samuel McVey, late of Los Angeles, is a hit in that dear Paree. Samuel is three shades blacker than coal dust. When he strolls along the Boulevard people think a thunder storm is coming and pull down the windows. His come of thought runs up to a point, and a perpendicular dropped from the apex would go to his heels without touching anything but the back of his neck. He has long arms like a gorilla, and a smile that runs so far around his head that it shows as well from behind as from in front. No wonder he's a hit.

MR. HALPIN'S statements in regard to Robert Leavitt, of the Boston A. A., winner of the hurdles at Athens, are hardly borne out by a letter written to a member of the Boston A. A. after the return of the American team by Mr. James E. Sullivan, President of the A. A. U. Mr. Sullivan was the real head of the American team on the Athens trip. He came back to Naples with the team after the games.

Mr. Sullivan's letter is reproduced in part as follows in the Boston Herald:

"It is true it was an honor to Leavitt to be a member of the team, but when one thinks of the glory he has brought to his club and to his city they must naturally feel proud of him. I know that as the American Commissioner to the Olympic games, I felt proud of Leavitt. He conducted himself at all times in a manner that we could feel proud of.

"During the entire voyage Leavitt impressed me very favorably, as he no doubt did others. He at all times behaved himself—was a gentleman always. I think the Boston Athletic Association and the Boston people can justly feel proud of him."

MR. BARTOW S. WEEKS is quoted as saying that Ray C. Ewry "stands suspended until reinstated by the Registration Committee."

The Registration Committee itself is the only body in the A. A. U. that can pass upon evidence and suspend an athlete. Chairman Nevin, at the meeting Tuesday night, announced: "It is not the feeling of this committee that this man should be suspended pending the investigation of charges, and Mr. Ewry is not suspended."

MR. HALPIN'S chief accusation against Mr. Ewry seems to be that the latter was unable to distinguish the sex of a watch, and accepted a lady watch instead of a gentleman watch as a prize. He based a protest upon the ground that "Ewry got a prize he couldn't wear."

There appears to be no State or national law, so far as our investigation goes, to prohibit any citizen of the United States from wearing a "lady's watch" if he desires to. And if Mr. Halpin's idea is that prizes must be "worn" by victorious athletes in person, where does he expect Mr. Ewry to wear his cups and mugs? Imagine John Flanagan, Matt McGrath, Martin Sheridan, Paul Pilgrim, Harry Hillman, or any of our famous athletes parading Broadway with their collection of silver-plated "mugs" dangling from various parts of their anatomy. They'd jangle like the "ancient knights" in a circus parade.

PAPKE AND KETCHELL TO FIGHT AT COLMA

Will Meet in 25 Round Contest on Washington's Birthday at Coffroth's Club.

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

IT has been definitely settled that Billy Papke, the crack Western fighter, and Stanley "Young" Ketchell, the Montana pugilist, who recently defeated Joe Thomas, the California boxer, will meet in a twenty-five round battle at Colma, Cal., on Washington's Birthday afternoon for the middleweight championship of the world. Jim Coffroth, the fight promoter of California, has decided on these two men to battle for the title, and has already secured Ketchell's signature to articles of agreement for the contest, and expects to hear from Papke's manager in a few days accepting his terms for the battle. The men, if they meet, will battle for 60 per cent. of the gross receipts, at 154 pounds weigh in three hours before the fight. Billy Roche will probably referee the battle.

Fitzgerald and Glover Matched.

Willie Fitzgerald, the "Fighting Harp," and Billy Glover, the clever pugilist of Boston, who is now boxing instructor of the Brown A. A., were matched last night to meet in a ten-round bout before the Standard A. C. of Lymansville, R. I., on the night of Jan. 16. Manager Doherty, of the club, who has been in town for a few days, clinched the match with Billy Fitzgerald's consent over the long-distance telephone at Philadelphia. The bout ought to be a great one, as both men are fast fighters. Fitz recently issued a deft to all the lightweights, and Glover was the only one who would meet him.

Goodman and O'Brien to Meet Again

Another good match clinched last night was between Jack Goodman, the clever local lightweight, and Rouse O'Brien, of Boston. They were secured by Jim Buckley to meet in a six-round bout before the Sharkey A. C. on next Wednesday night. These boys fought a great battle before the same club on New Year's afternoon. They will box at catch weights, O'Brien's manager refusing to make the match for O'Brien at even 133 pounds.

Wagner Fights Delmont To-Night.

Joe Wagner, the sturdy little Italian fighter of this city, and Al. Delmont, the New England featherweight, are in excellent shape for their fifteen-round bout, which will come off at the Rhode Island A. C., of Thornton, R. I., to-night. This will be their second battle. Wagner expects to beat Delmont this time. They will box at 116 pounds at the ring side.

Shreck to Tackle Tony Ross.

Mike Schreck, the Cincinnati heavy-weight, is going to fight again and try and win a few fights, so that he can get on a return match with Al. Kaufmann, the California pugilist. Mike has signed articles of agreement for a fifteen-round bout with Tony Ross, the Italian heavy-weight, of New Castle, Pa., at New Orleans on Jan. 20.

McFarland Already Down to Weight

Packey McFarland has begun training for his twelve-round bout with Tommy Murphy before the Armory A. A., of Boston, on Tuesday night at Highland Lake, just outside of Boston. Packey says he intends to bet $2,000 on his chances of winning. He has changed in forty-three fights so far and has won thirty-three of them by knockouts. He has never been defeated. McFarland is already down to the required weight, 133 pounds, for the contest.

Hyland and Brock Battle Sunday.

The private fight between Fighting Dick Hyland, of California, and Phil Brock, of Cleveland, will come off on Sunday twenty miles from Denver, the manager of each fighter having agreed on this date. They have decided to battle for a side bet of $500 and 50 per cent. of the receipts, of which the winner will get 75 per cent. The loser will be matched to fight Battling Nelson.

Ryan Calls Papke and Kelly Duds.

Tommy Ryan, the middle-weight champion, is so sour on both Bill Papke and Hugo Kelly for refusing to pay any attention to the challenge which he issued to both men before they began their battle in Milwaukee ten days ago, that he is now writing letters to all the Western papers. Milwaukee ten days ago that he is now likely to get a match at all now, as both Papke and Kelly say they will ignore him completely.

Little McGovern to Box Kellar.

Little Phil McGovern, brother of Terry, who is boxing so well at the local club stags, has been engaged by Johnny Oliver to meet Sammy Kellar, the English bantamweight, for six rounds in the main bout at the next stag of the New Polo A. A., which will be decided on Friday night. These youngsters should put up a hard battle, as they travel fast and can wallop some. Jack Smith meets George Jansen in the semi-wind-up.

OTTO LOST HEART AND YOUNG SHEA BEAT HIM

"Young Otto," the local lightweight, lost another battle last night, just because he lost heart. He fought "Young Shea," the clever and sturdy fighter of Boston, in the main bout of six rounds at the Sharkey A. C. stag and got a walloping in the fifth and sixth rounds that not only lost him the contest but also a host of admirers, who left the clubhouse claiming that he should have been beaten after allowing Shea to recover from the two stiff left hooks on the jaw which he floored him with in the second round. If Otto had the heart he would be one of the best lightweights in this country. He is clever, a terrific punches with either hand, and, besides, is a good ring general. Had he some grit with those, his record would be made up of scores of knockouts.

A collection was taken up for a monument for George Dixon which amounted to $6.50.

DARTMOUTH A FACTOR IN HOCKEY LEAGUE GAMES

That Dartmouth will be a strong factor in deciding the championship of the Intercollegiate Hockey League this season was evident last night when they defeated Princeton, the holders of the title, by a score of 3 goals to 2. The game was a revelation as to Dartmouth's ability. It was the first time that the New Hampshire boys had played in this city, and nothing was known of their strength. They were fast with their sticks, and they shot goals accurately. Only the brilliant work of Peacock, as goal for Princeton, prevented them from rolling up a bigger score.

The game started with a rush, and in a scrimmage in the first two minutes of play big Capt. Foote, of Dartmouth, shot the puck into the cage. A second goal was made by Foote about eight minutes later on a pretty run and skilful dodging of the Princeton line.

When the second half started Princeton made a typical Tiger rally and forced the fighting for some time. After various scrimmages Osborn, who was in front of the cage, received the puck from behind and scored the first goal for the Jersey boys.

Capt. Foote again chased down the length of the rink and scored another goal. A few minutes later Osborn again scored a goal on a pass from behind the net. Then both sides tried to score again, but neither was able to break through the other's defense.

NEW RULE WILL CHANGE FOOTBALL AT HARVARD

(Special to The Evening World.)

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 9.—What means a practical revolution in football affairs at Harvard was set in motion last night when the athletic committee approved a plan suggested by Capt. Francis H. Burr, of the 'varsity eleven, for the selection of a head coach. This is the appointment of a committee of prominent athletes who will choose the head coach and the assistant coaches, and also be a guiding power in the policy governing the squad.

This last part already goes so far that it is announced that the head coach must listen to the suggestions of the assistant coaches, and furthermore that he can be removed by the committee.

The committee chosen consists of William Gareden, George R. Fearing, Percy D. Haughton, Benjamin Dibles, Andrew Marshall, Morton L. Newhall and J. W. Farley.

SPORT NEWS IN SMALL PORTIONS — GOSSIP OF ALL SORTS — BOILED DOWN TO BRIEF NOTES

THE CITY COLLEGE FRESHMEN basketball team came out victorious in their game with the Stuyvesant High School team yesterday by a score of 21 to 15. The feature of the game was Long's foul shooting, he only missing one shot out of twelve. He also scored the only two field goals made by his team.

WILLIAM B. CRAGIN, JR., WON the singles lawn tennis championship of the Seventh Regiment on the indoor courts of the armory yesterday. He finished his match with his brother, a former holder of the title, and carried off the event by winning three sets to one.

THE FIRST OF A SERIES OF athletic contests to determine the all-around championship of the West Side Y. M. C. A. will be held to-morrow evening in the gymnasium. The events will be a 20-yard dash, 220-yard handicap, 880-yard handicap, 440-yard novice and 12-pound shot put handicap. These meets will be held every three weeks until the end of the indoor season, and the three men scoring the greatest number of points for the season will receive gold, silver and bronze medals.

MEMBERS OF THE XAVIER A. A. will present the farce "Caught by the Cop" in Lyric Hall, Sixth avenue, near Forty-second street, on Monday evening, Jan. 20. Dancing will follow the entertainment.

MEMBERS OF THE NEW WESTSIDE A. C. will have their annual masquerade ball in the Manhattan Casino, One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street and Eighth avenue, on Saturday evening.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club will be held in No. 31 Nassau street, room 331, on Tuesday, Jan. 14, at 4.30 P. M.

ON TUESDAY EVENING THE ATHletic League of the United States Volunteer Life Saving Corps presented medals and ribbons to participants in the first annual cross-country run of the corps.

HOLIDAY SPOILED RACING COUP.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 9.—What was intended as a coup of no mean proportions was spoiled at the Fair Grounds yesterday by the overstaid of the Texans. A commission of $3,000 had been forwarded to bet on Pedro, winner of the third race, but the fact that January 8 was a holiday commemorating the battle of New Orleans precluded cashing the check, and the good thing ran practically unbacked. However, A. F. Mathews, of New York, put a beauty over the plate in Javotte. He and his friends played the filly from a high quotation of 15 to 1 down to 7 to 1 at post time. The race proved only a pleasant outing for the Quick stable castoff.

The presentation was made by General Superintendent George A. Thormann.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF the American Committee for the Olympic Games, consisting of Caspar Whitney, Julian W. Curtiss, Bartow S. Weeks, Gustavus T. Kirby, Joseph B. Maccabe, Everett C. Brown, Luther H. Gulick and James E. Sullivan, yesterday decided that it is advisable to have an Olympic try-out on the Pacific coast open to the athletes in the territory of the Pacific Coast Association and the Pacific Northwest Association of the Amateur Athletic Union. This try-out will be held in May and will be held under the same conditions as the try-outs in Chicago and in the East on June 6.

BRUSH ORDERED TO PAY FINE OF $1,000

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 9.—John T. Brush, of the New York Giants, must make good the fine of $1,000 imposed on his club last winter for refusing to play at New Orleans, according to agreement.

The National Baseball Commission in session here so decided, and stipulated that the fine must be paid within a week.

It is reported that the world's championship games will start on Oct. 9, this being two days after the close of the regular season.

In the National Lague, Chicago will open at Cincinnati, Pittsburg at St. Louis, Boston at Brooklyn, and New York at Philadelphia.

The opening of the American League was not ascertained, although it is probable that the season will open in Chicago and Detroit in the West, and New York and Washington in the East. The official schedules of both leagues will be announced some time next month.

COULON WALLOPS KID MURPHY IN TEN-ROUND BOUT

(Special to The Evening World.)

PEORIA, Ill., Jan. 9.—Kid Murphy, the New York bantam-weight, was lucky to stay ten rounds with Johnny Coulon last night. The Chicago boy, after making a poor start, had all the better of Murphy after the third round, and made a chopping-block of the Italian during the remainder of the bout. Coulon's cleverness was too much for Murphy's boxing, although the latter blocked several of Coulon's blows. Murphy blocked several of the blows after fourteen rounds and took a hard beating until the bell ended the bout. The bell saved Murphy in the fifth round, when a hard blow sent him groggy. He rallied but suffered in the slugging from Coulon's superior hitting. His strength was gone in the last two rounds, however, and the fight was Coulon's by a long margin.

Fred Hague, of Philadelphia, lost to Buck Johnson, of Chicago, in the fifth round.

LONG ACRE STAG TO-NIGHT.

Three six-round bouts are on the card which is offered by the Long Acre A. C. for its regular weekly stag in its clubhouse, in West Twenty-ninth street, near Seventh avenue, to-night. The boxers who will figure in them are George Hoey and Young Guerrini, Billy McCoskey and Kid Griffo, and big Jim Stewart and Fred Bradley, of Boston. Some of the club members who most likely attend, as they appreciate what Mike Newman did in looking after the arrangements of George Dixon's funeral.

ORBY'S OWNER WRITES POWERS

P. T. Powers, who received from Mr. Croker for the Irish Fair one of the shoes worn by Orby when the latter won the Derby, received the following letter from Richard Croker last night:

Glencairn, Sandyford, Dublin, Ireland.

My Dear Mr. Powers:

This will be handed to you by Miss Gleeson, whom you know, and I trust you will look after her interests while she and her party are in New York. They are neighbors of mine.

I am sending (by her) Orby's shoe, one of the set he won the English Derby in. Wishing you every success in your adventure, and with my compliments of the season, I remain, yours,

(Signed) RICHARD CROKER.

P. S.—Kindly give the shoe to my son Richard when the exhibition is over.

Dec. 15, 1907.

Joe Sullivan Knocked Out.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 9.—Joe Sullivan, of Baltimore, was knocked out in the second round by Eddie Carney, of Camden, N. J., at the Delaware Athletic Club, Brandywine Springs, near here, last night. The finishing blow was a left on the jaw. It was the first knockout since the club opened, four weeks ago. Handsome Charley, of Philadelphia, in six rounds, Tony Fox, of Philadelphia, in ten rounds, Jim Murphy, of Philadelphia, in ten rounds, and Harry Beggs, of Philadelphia, beaten Harry Sims, also of Philadelphia, in the six-round windup.

New Knockout Record.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—Jim Trenwith and Johnny Dougherty figured in the windup at the Waynes A. A. last night, with the latter having a shade the advantage at the final bell.

The first preliminary was probably the shortest bout on record, the Brooklyn blow being delivered in the seventh second of the first round, a new knockout record, I believe. Producer. His opponent was Jack Lawyer. They had no sooner shaken hands and stepped back then Moody rushed and delivered his knockout blow. Lawyer went to the mat for the full count.

Hitch on Referee for Big Fight.

There was a hitch over the referee for the Murphy-McFarland bouts, with Billy Oliver, manager of Murphy, said last night that he would not have Jim Corbett, as he had a grudge against the former heavyweight champion. Oliver said: "Corbett has written to me that he would not referee the fight, as I refused to accept Harst; the match will probably fall through," said Oliver.
