

LOCAL NEWS

From Friday's Daily:

Mrs. Johnson of near Hemingford is shopping in Alliance today.

C. A. Currie left today on 43 for Scottsbluff to be gone over Sunday.

Mrs. J. E. Wagner of Hemingford was in town today between trains on business.

Low Needland of Hemingford was in Alliance Thursday and today on business and pleasure.

Alex Muirhead and Chas. Wiltsey of Hemingford came down Thursday on business, returning today.

Frank R. Johnston and H. N. Gambill of Garden county transacted business in Alliance yesterday.

Mrs. Ed Strand and son Malone went out to the Watson ranch Thursday to visit, and will return Saturday.

Emma Doyle of Orlando, has been an Alliance visitor since Wednesday. She expects to return to her home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Elliott of Hemingford were in town today between trains. Mr. Elliott came to Alliance to have his eyes treated.

A petition for divorce was filed in district court on Thursday by Edna Olson, asking separation from Oscar Olson on the charge of desertion.

The Methodist Epworth League will give a party tonight at the church. Everyone is cordially invited, and requested to each bring a tin cup and spoon.

W. E. Lotspeich loaded the lumber at Alliance today for the house to be built soon on his ranch near Bingham. Bart Young, who has charge of the carpenter work, will go down to the Lotspeich ranch within a few weeks, accompanied by two or three other carpenters. It is expected that the foundation and other preliminary work will be completed by that time, when the construction of the house will be pushed right along until completed.

From Saturday's Daily:

E. C. Drake has purchased a Ford automobile.

Pete Long has purchased a Ford automobile.

Jesse Watson of near Berea came in today on business.

Mrs. C. H. Hughes has returned from her trip to Omaha.

Mrs. Roy Beckwith returned this morning from a two weeks' visit in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Joy and baby came in yesterday from Jesse county for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Mabel Perkins of Deadwood, South Dakota, came in Friday to visit her sister Mrs. Hazel Johnson for some time.

Mrs. G. W. Emery, who has been teaching school for six months near Redington, has finished this term and returned to her home in Alliance.

John Rodgers of Torrington, Wyoming, a nephew of E. E. Lawrence, returned to his home today. He has been visiting Mr. Lawrence for three months.

Nels Worley expects to leave on Monday for Thermopolis, Wyoming, to take treatment at the hot springs there for muscular rheumatism from which he has been suffering for some time.

Mrs. B. W. Bearden and daughter will leave tonight on 42 for Broken Bow to attend the funeral of J. G. Painter. The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Bearden will return on Monday.

Auctioneer Coursey informs The Herald that the Mrs. Albro's public sale this week was one of the best sales for its size that he ever cried. The bidding was lively and prices satisfactory. The sale, amounting to $1,812, was completed in about an hour and thirty-five minutes.

Among the people shopping in Alliance today are Mr. Sherlock and family, Mrs. Hill and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trenkle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Will Albright, Mr. and Mrs. Manion, Mrs. Stillie and daughter, and Mrs. O. D. Hobbs and son.

The girls' basket ball team of the High school went up to Chadron today to play the academy girls at that place tonight.

From Monday's Daily:

P. K. Christensen of Hemingford came down Saturday to visit N. C. Peterson.

William Robinson expects to go to Omaha Wednesday for a week's visit with friends.

Mrs. Hattie Johnson, of Hemingford, stopped off here Saturday on her way home from a few weeks' visit in Omaha.

Christ Abbott, the well known Crawford saloon man, is visiting in Alliance over St. Patrick's day. He was well decorated with shamrocks.

W. Saurbraun, Western Union wire chief, was called east this noon by a telegram from Fort Dodge, Iowa, stating that his father had died Sunday night.

Bert Ashley, wife and daughter, of Cheyenne, who have been guests of Geo. G. Gadsby for two weeks, returned to their home today. They formerly lived here.

Chas. C. Jameson, of Ellsworth, secretary of the Nebraska Stock Growers Association, was in Alliance

SQUEAK AND GRIND

That auto needs attention. Our work is done by an expert who can diagnose car trouble like a physician does the human being. No matter what is the trouble, we can fix it. We save you money by saving time in doing your repairing. Our prices are very reasonable.

OUR WORK IS GUARANTEED
Auto Livery in Connection
BRITT'S GARAGE

116 East Third St. Phone 118

General Contractors

We Construct
CEMENT SIDEWALKS or anything in the Cement Line

Brick Work, Tile and Plastering
Old Fashioned Fire Places and Mantels

LUND & GLARUM
Phone 249 Alliance, Nebr.

today for a short time on business. He returned to Ellsworth at noon.

From Tuesday's Daily:

James Feagins returned this noon from an extended business trip through Colorado points.

Mrs. K. J. Sterns and son Herbert went down to Mitchell Monday to visit her parents for a few days.

Vance and Ray Vanlon were in Alliance on business Monday and continued their trip on to Colorado, looking for land.

The ladies of the Baptist church will meet in the church parlors on Wednesday afternoon. Business meeting at 2:30. Refreshments will be served.

Joe Barnes and family of Beaver Crossing have recently purchased Frank Krenek's farm, four and a half miles east of town and will locate there in the near future.

Ray Vaulon has recently sold his three-fourths section of land to Geo. Cooper. Mr. Vaulon formerly conducted the Half-way ranch at Walters Lake, but has resigned, and Dan Wilcox has taken his place.

A. L. Conklin, manager of the S. A. Foster Lumber Company's yard at Alliance, has a neat quarter page ad in this issue of The Herald, through which he invites its readers who contemplate building to inspect their stock of lumber and give them an opportunity to quote prices.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Holsten gave a delicious six course six o'clock dinner Saturday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Bellwood and daughter Miss Ina, and General Superintendent Young and Mrs. Young.

Delegates to the Royal Neighbors convention at Sheridan stopped off in Alliance today between trains on their way to Sheridan. The ladies were Mrs. E. R. Storey of Cheyenne, Mrs. Brown of Cheyenne, Mrs. Mary Worth of Encampment, and Mrs. James Whatrman of Laramie.

Mrs. E. J. Hicks is having considerable improvement made in her residence at 407 Laramie avenue. This is the brick house formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smith. By the time the improvements which Mrs. Hicks is having made are completed they will incur an expense of a thousand dollars or more.

Colorado lump coal $8.50. All other kinds of coal at moderate prices. We have the coal on hand for immediate delivery. Phone 73. FOREST LUMBER CO.

factory for these two instruments.

From Thursday's Daily:

City Attorney Joe Westover is in Denver on business.

F. J. Elliott of Hemingford was an Alliance visitor today.

Miss Mae Jensen of Ellsworth was shopping in Alliance Wednesday.

Samuel Sheldon's baby, that has been quite ill, is now out of danger.

W. J. Johnson's daughter has been quite ill the past few days but is improving.

August Maulshe left for Greeley.

Dutch Rye Bread

When you get the pure Dutch Rye Bread you don't want any other.

Ask your Grocer, or at Manewal's Bakery

124 East First St. Phone 572

Kickapoo Worm Killer Expel Worms

The cause of your child's ill — the foul, fetid, offensive breath — the starting up with terror and grinding of teeth while asleep — the mallow complexion — the dark circles under the eyes — are all indications of worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer is what your child needs; it expels the worms, the cause of the child's unhealthy condition. For the removal of seat, stomach and pin worms, Kickapoo Worm Killer gives sure relief. Its laxative effect adds tone to the general system. Supplied as a candy confection — children like it. Safe and sure relief. Guaranteed. Buy a box today. Price 25c. All drugists or by mail. Kickapoo Indian Med. Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

HOUSES TO RENT

or lease. Land to rent or lease. Land or city property for sale. Phone 36.

C. W. JEFFERS

Colorado, Wednesday noon in his new Ford car.

D. R. Lawrence left for Springfield, Nebraska, on Wednesday, to sell a carload of potatoes there on Monday.

Martin Sweeney returned Wednesday from an extended business trip in eastern Nebraska and Iowa. He reports a very successful trip.

The School of Music is busy preparing a students' recital for Thursday, March 26, at the Methodist church. Violin and piano will be used.

Mrs. Frank Garrett and two children are visiting friends and relatives in the city. They expect to return to their home near Seneca the last of the week.

H. G. Beatty is the new bookkeeper at the Burlington stock yards, taking the place of A. D. Roberts, who has resigned to be in business for himself.

O. Anderson was arrested on the charge of drunkenness and disturbing the peace and fined this morning in police court, being relieved of one dollar and costs.

All Kinds of CEMENT CONSTRUCTION

Sidewalks, Foundations, Curb, Gutter, Retaining Walls, etc. It will pay you to see me before letting your work.

T. J. BEAL
PHONE 782

"JACK"

Will Be in Alliance

Friday and Saturday
March 20 and 21

He is a traveling representative of

The City Tailors

"Finest Clothes to Measure"

Will be at our store with the largest and best line of Woolens in the piece that it has ever been your privilege to examine.

Workmanship the Highest Grade

If Our Merchandise Don't [Make Good, We Will

PRICES THE LOWEST

E. G. LAING

"MODERN CLOTHES FOR MEN"

On Saturday, March 21st

We will have an exhibition at our showrooms at the ALLIANCE GARAGE

our first carload of 1914 Ford automobiles, ready for your inspection.

More than 350,000 Fords have been sold up to date. Every third car is a Ford. You owe it to yourself to inspect these cars before you buy.

Keeler-Coursey Co.

Bulls For Sale

25 HEAD DURHAM AND HEREFORDS
14 to 18 MONTHS OLD

These bulls can be seen at Ashby, Neb., 40 miles east of Alliance.

PRICES RIGHT

JAMES FEAGINS & SON