

CUTS ARRIVE A DAY LATE

"Who's Who Among Nebraska Stockmen" department of The Herald Deferred a Week

A fine lot of cuts ordered for the "Who's Who Among Nebraska Stockmen" department of The Herald this week were expected to arrive from the engravers on Wednesday but did not reach this office until Thursday, which is publication day, and can not be inserted this week. They will appear next week with some interesting information regarding some more of western Nebraska's leading ranchmen.

While it is necessary to omit this department this week, we have no intention of dropping it, as it is proving to be one of the most interesting departments of the paper and will undoubtedly do much to promote the getting in touch movement.

Many Horses Named

Two hundred and nineteen horses have been named for the early closing races of the 1914 Nebraska State Fair as compared with 174 made last year. All the speed events were filled except the two year old pace. Forty-two horses were named for the two-year-old trot, twenty-five for the three year old trot, forty-eight for the 2:30 trot and thirty-three for the 2:20 trot, twelve for the three year old pace, twenty-eight for the 2:25 pace and thirty for the 2:14 pace.

WILL LOAN ON WESTERN LAND

Chief Treasurer of Royal Highlanders Visits Alliance and Box Butte County

A. E. Siekmann of Aurora, Neb., chief treasurer of the order of Royal Highlanders, arrived in Alliance yesterday morning and spent a large part of the day driving over Box Butte county with C. E. Marks. The object of his visit was to secure first-hand information regarding conditions in this country in order to determine whether to loan the surplus funds of the order on real estate in this country.

Mr. Siekmann seemed to be pleased with this city and the surrounding country, and enjoyed his trip very much, except for the unusual wind that happened to be blowing yesterday. The Herald cannot definitely announce yet his decision in regard to making loans on land in western Nebraska, but it is safe to say that a good bunch of Royal Highlander money will probably find its way into this part of the country.
