H. CLEWS, JR., AND WIFE NOT ESTRANGED

Banker Adds Denial of Rumor to That of Mrs. Morris, Bride's Mother.

PAIR ARE FAR APART.

Young Man in Europe, While Famous Bathing Girl Ducking at Dinner Amused Baltimoe.

Mr. Henry Clews added to-day his denial to that of Mrs. John B. Morris, of Baltimore, that Henry Clews, Jr., and his wife have separated. Mrs. Morris is the mother of Mrs. Henry Clews, Jr., who was formerly Mrs. Fred Gebhard.

Henry Clews, Jr., is in Paris. His wife is in Baltimore, where at a costume dinner party given in her honor a few days ago Mrs. Ral Parr was doused in a tub of water because she was dressed in a silk bathing suit.

The report of differences between young Mr. Clews and his wife has been current, it appears, for a year or more. Mrs. Morris said, in Baltimore last night, that it was without foundation. She added that her daughter would leave for Paris March 16 to join her husband, unless he should return to New Yor kin the mean time.

Henry Clews was seen at his home, No. 630 Fifth avenue, to-day. He was shown the printed reports from Baltimore and said:

"Mrs. Morris is the highest authority upon that subject. I can only say that she is telling the absolute truth.

"My son is in Paris, on business, and his wife is in Baltimore, visiting her mother. There is no foundation for the rumor that Mrs. Clews contemplates securing a divorce. If my son can arrange his affairs, he will return to New York within a few weeks, Mrs. Clews will join him here and both will go abroad again, later in the spring."

HER BURGLARS ONLY A CAT, POLICE SAY

But Mrs. Exstrand Avers They Were Three of the Real Article.

There is an entry in the blotter of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, ascribing an attempt to rob the home of Charles Exstrand, at No. 508 West One Hundred and Fortieth street, to a tramp cat.

Lieut. McDermott, who made the entry, put down that in response to a summons from Mrs. Exstrand to repell burglars he sent on the double quick six uniformed policemen, five plain clothes men, one lieutenant and two sergeants, and that they, on their way up the Amsterdam avenue hill, organized a posse of idle motormen at the car barns. But when they reached the residence of the Exstrands, puffing and blowing from their climb, they found that a disreputable gray cat was the only invader of the premises.

Mrs. Exstrand, however, tells an entirely different story, one of the sort that does not shed glory on a blotter. She and her daughter, Mabel, fifteen, and her son, Edwin, thirteen, were aroused at 3.30 o'clock by footsteps on the tin roof of the extension.

"Mabel ran to the window," said Mrs. Exstrand, "screamed and flung out a china vase that smashed on the pavement. An automobile was standing by a vacant lot adjoining our house. Three men had climbed on the extension and were trying to break into the house. We managed to arouse Mr. Frank Wood, who lives in No. 509, and he telephoned to the police.

"A little while after he had telephoned I saw those three burglars come out of the vacant lot, after climbing down from the extension. Then they got in the automobile and drove away.

"All the while Mabel and I were screaming, and so were the servants and the neighbors, but no policeman came, nor did we seem to awake any of the firemen in Hook and Ladder Company No. 23, a few doors away. Forty minutes after the burglars had gone away in the motor car two policemen called. That was all the policemen I saw and they were not even running when they got to the house. In fact, they must have got off an Amsterdam avenue car which I heard stop at the corner just before they arrived. No sergeant or lieutenant came near the house, nor did there seem to be any one on post in the vicinity. The burglars had raised the window above the extension, but our screams frightened them away. There was no cat in the house."

WALDO CHIEF OF WATERSHED POLICE

Bingham's Former Deputy to Head New Force of Two Thousand Men.

Former Deputy Police Commissioner Rhinelander Waldo is now a full-fledged police chief. To-day the Board of Water Supply which is shaping the $162,000,000 water system for New York, appointed him chief of the water supply patrol at a salary of $3,600 and named Capt. Daniel I. McKay, U. S. A., deputy chief at a salary of $3,000.

It is designed to establish police surveillance throughout the length of the aqueduct from the Catskills to the northern section of the city, and also to guard workmen engaged in the construction of the great dams and waterways.

Next week will see the appointment of 75 or 100 men and officers. The force will be 2,000 strong when equipped. The patrol will be uniformed and thoroughly organized for discipline and efficiency. Capt. McKay was graduated from West Point in 1906 and served in the coast artillery at Fort Adams, Newport, R. I., and later at the army posts along the Atlantic Coast and Gulf. He also served as commander of a guard at the Jamestown Exposition. He resigned from the service to enter upon civilian work. Chief Waldo was First Deputy Police Commissioner, serving under Commissioner Bingham.

BRITISH SHIP TAKES OUR GUNS TO MANILA

Twelve Six-Inch Weapons Leave Brooklyn After Rumors of Jap Spies.

The British ship Inveresk sailed today from the Bush docks, South Brooklyn, with twelve 6-inch guns which the U. S. Government is sending to the Philippine Islands. The vessel will proceed without stop to Manila, and the guns will be placed in position as part of the coast defenses of the islands.

Each gun weighs twelve tons, and a large amount of ammunition accompanied the coisignment. The guns were made at Portsmouth, sent to Mott Haven, and there transferred by lighters to the Inveresk.

For several days they have been watched by Secret Service men, and there has been considerable talk among the men about the pier of mysterious Japanese who were curious about the guns.

THEATRE TO BE TORN DOWN.

The Madison Square Theatre, in which Katherine Grey is presenting "The Worth of a Woman," will close Saturday night for all time. The playhouse is to be torn down to make room for an office building.

Death or Rengo, Which Is It For You?

Always Danger of Fatal End by Allowing Fat to Accumulate. How to Prevent the "Terrible End."

As a rule the victim of fat grows fatter. There is no stopping the growing of fat save by death. This is true, and sad because it is true. There are hundreds of fat people who positively do not believe it. And they die refusing to believe it. At first there is flabby fat and then it grows solid. This solid fat accumulates especially around the heart; and although the heart beats it beats with difficulty, until finally it will skip a beat now and then, then skip two beats, and when it skips more than that—well, you will be already stone dead. These are facts. Stricken relatives before whom fat victims have smiled one minute and died the next can testify to it. It is not a laughing matter.

If you are a victim of this terrifying ever-growing disease you can save yourself from the day you begin to use Rengo.

How long, for instance, will it take you to lose 60 pounds? As a rule only 60 days. In most cases there is a safe loss of a pound a day. Some of those 60 pounds will come off from your fat coating over your heart and save your life. Your health will at once grow better, the tingle of new fresh blood will make your muscle grow, clear your mind, regulate your whole body and make you happy.

This is exactly what has happened to hundreds of fat people who have taken Rengo. It can do the same for you—save you before it is too late.

There is nothing "just as good" as Rengo. For sale by all druggists at $1.00 per full sized box or by mail prepaid, by The Rengo Co., 3254 Rengo Bldg., Detroit, Mich. The company will gladly send you a trial package free by mail, if you write them direct to Detroit; no free packages at drug stores.

For sale and recommended in New York by W. S. Rooker, 8th av. and 30th st., also 42d st. and 4th av., also 50th st. and Madison av.; Hegeman & Co., 200 Broadway, and all branches; Siegel Cooper Co., 6th av., 18th and 19th sts.; Ehrich Bros., 6th av., 22d to 23d st.
