520 ACRES TO LEASE.

75 cleared—18 miles south of Rayville, good cabin on the place. Not occupied at present. Will be lease on easy terms.

Address WILEY P. MANGHAM, Rayville, La.

To those who will pay all in advance for 12 months for the BEACON, we will discount 25 per cent, or $1 50 instead of $2. Some seem to forget the difference between paying in advance and at the end of the year. Remember that this means that you are to pay for one year ahead. tf.

The New Orleans Picayune is one of the newest and most reliable papers published. Its Editorials are judicious and timely; it gives all the news without fear or favor; its Associated Press and Special Southern Telegrams cover all important Foreign and Domestic News; its Commercial and Market Reports are complete and are accepted standards; its Letters from New York and Paris, and the Special Contributions of Pearl River, Catharine Cole, Mollie Moore Davis, Jennie June, Marie Points and others are unfailing sources of interest and information and are of a high order of literary merit. The Picayune is printed in clear new type, of size sufficient to be read without straining the eye.

To keep abreast of the times and know all worth knowing that a newspaper should tell, send Three Dollars for three months' subscription to the Daily Picayune, or subscribe for its splendid Weekly Edition at One Dollar a year. The Weekly is sixteen pages, and is issued every Thursday morning to reach all subscribers before Sunday.

HOME AND FARM,

LOUISVILLE, KY.

The Leading Agricultural Journal of the South and West.

Made by Farmers for Farmers.

As a record of successful agriculture, HOME AND FARM has no equal. Every topic relating to agriculture is openly discussed in its columns by the farmers themselves. No expense is spared in securing a full account of every notable success on the farm. It is distinctively the

FARMERS' OWN PAPER,

A record of their daily life, presented in a form and language which make it plain to all.

ITS LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Contains the names of the most progressive farmers of the South and West. They do not treat of theoretical farming, but of the actual conditions which confront us to-day: B. F. Johnson; Waldo F. Brown; Henry Stewart; John M. Stahl; A. P. Ford; Jeff. Welborn; Hugh T. Brooks; John C. Elgar; Steele's Bayou; T. B. Baldwin and a host of others make this journal indispensable. Moreover, it is equally

A HOME MAGAZINE.

Every subject of interest to the home-maker is fully treated. Mary Marsden, Lois Catesby, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Daviess, Miss Cabell, Miss Mosby, Alice Winston and a score of others will contribute regularly.

FAITH LATIMER

Is in charge of our Children's Department, and she has the peculiar faculty of being both interesting and instructive.

THE MYSTERY OF THE NATION

Is a thrilling story appearing in HOME AND FARM, by John R. Musick, and is exciting wide attention. Short stories by distinguished writers appear from time to time.

BILL ARP'S LETTERS

Appear in each issue, and this humorous philosopher was never more interesting than at this

HOME AND FARM WILL DEPARTMENT

behalf of "Farmers' Rights." Editorially in vision of the tariff in behalf of the farmer; Free Mail Delivery to the roads for the farmer; Co-operation among the farmers, and its aim is to "Bust Trusts." Its motto is

"Fair Trade and Farmers' Rights."
