TRAIN ROBBERS GOT $500,000 IT IS DECLARED NOW

Hundreds Join in Hunt for Loot Believed to Be Hidden in Woods.

PITTSBURG, May 4.—The loss occasioned by the robbing of the Adams Express Company car on the Panhandle Railroad last Thursday night, instead of being $600, as has been stoutly maintained by officials of the company until to-day, is now rumored to be close to $500,000. The robbery is said by Pittsburg detectives to be one of the biggest ever committed in the United States.

Yesterday men and boys searching in the vicinity of the scene of the hold-up, at Walker's Mills, found a number of $5 gold pieces and a quantity of gold leaf. Hundreds of men and boys searched the neighborhood in the afternoon for the plunder, which many people believe has been "cached" by the robbers. No big find was reported.

More Pinkerton detectives arrived here to-day from the New York and Chicago offices, and the county is overrun with them. No arrest of importance has been made. Four men taken into custody on suspicion were released. The Pinkerton agency announces it is working on important clues, and expects to make arrests shortly.
