HEATING IS PLANT NEEDED

The recent cold snap in Alliance has served to emphasize the need of a city steam heating plant. The city council will give serious consideration to ways and means of securing a plant of this kind at the January meeting. Enough steam goes to waste at the electric light plant to heat the downtown portion of the city on ordinary winter days. Much interest is being manifested in the proposition by property owners and tenants of buildings who would be served by the plant. According to the figures presented to the council by the expert who was here in the fall, a plant at reasonable charges for heat, would pay the city big dividends. It is to be hoped that our city dads can find a way to get the work started so that next winter the plant will be in full operation.

Events in the Social Realm

Mrs. William Mitchell entertained at bridge last Thursday afternoon, and preceded the pleasant hours with a well appointed luncheon.

Mrs. J. N. Andrews will be hostess at her home for the P. E. O. next Monday, and the afternoon promises to be one of great social enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Marvin entertained at a delightful Christmas dinner, and had for their guests Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Highland.

The Sixteen Club, a new club recently organized, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hicks last evening. The ladies and gentlemen spent several social hours together, and delicious refreshments added to the pleasant occasion.

Vern Canwell and Mrs. Mary Hansen were married at the office of County Judge L. A. Berry last Thursday evening at about 5 o'clock. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. George Duncan of this place. The happy couple will reside at 703 West Third street, and their many friends wish them much joy and happiness.

Mrs. P. F. Schott entertained a company of friends Monday evening of this week, in honor of her son, Walter, and also to help celebrate his birthday anniversary. The decorations were in green and red, and 6 o'clock dinner which was served was a credit to the hostess. The guest list included Dewey Donovan, Kenneth Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. DuBuque, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Barnes and Earl and Homer Barnes.

Twenty-five couples enjoyed a dancing party given at the opera house Monday evening. The hostesses were the Misses Irene Rice, Hazel Bennett and Charlotte Mollring, and they entertained in compliment to Miss Theresa O'Donnell, who expects to leave today for Helena, Mont. The evening was one of pleasure and the old friends certainly joined in giving Miss O'Donnell a happy occasion which she will often recall while absent.

A company of about twenty persons enjoyed Christmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brown Griffith, six miles east of this city. The dinner served in true holiday fashion was appreciated, and the afternoon was spent with music and dancing, with a general merry time, a supper being served later in the evening. The list of guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Davis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nason and family, John and Newt Hayes, Misses May Nation and Winona Blair, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keegan and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Robinson and Frank Shaw.

The ladies of the Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church entertained the members of the different societies of the other churches yesterday afternoon at the church. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Ponath, after which Mrs. Morrow rendered a pleasing vocal selection. Mrs. Ponath and Mrs. Root entertained with a well chosen instrumental duet. A delicious lunch was served the company, and the proceeds were given to the City Mission. A delightful afternoon is reported, and the ladies enjoyed the opportunity of getting together for a few hours.

Owes Her Good Health to Chamberlain's Tablets

"I owe my good health to Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. R. G. Neff, Crookston, Ohio. "Two years ago I was an invalid due to stomach trouble. I took three bottles of these Tablets and have since been in the best of health." Obtainable everywhere. Adv—Dec

Next Sunday will be observed as the first quarterly communion of the year at the morning service. There has been special music arranged for this service, and there will also be a reception of members. All members are urged to be present.

The Rev. I. R. Hicks 1916 Almanac
The Rev. I. R. Hicks 1916 Almanac is by far the finest, largest and best ever printed. The Hicks storm and weather forecasts for 1916 again have proven their truth and value, and this splendid Almanac for 1916 should find its way straight into every home and office in America. The Rev. I. R. Hicks Magazine, "Word and Works," and his unique Almanac should always go together, both for only one dollar a year. The Almanac alone is $50 prepaid. Send to Word and Works Publishing Company, 8401 Franklin Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Exchange Gossip

Mrs. Joseph Hogan of this city is visiting over Christmas with friends at Alliance.—Crawford Courier.

Miss Della Abbott, of Alliance, spent Saturday with relatives in this city, being on her way to Wayne.—Crawford Tribune.

A. D. Riddle, our genial electric light man, accompanied by his wife, went to Alliance last Saturday to visit relatives, returning Tuesday. During his absence the light plant was left in the efficient hands of Thos. F. Black.—News, Oshkosh.

Editor J. W. Thomas of the Alliance Herald was a Bridgeport visitor Tuesday enroute to Scottsbluff. * * * Mrs. Bruce Wilcox and son Rex came down from Alliance Wednesday, and the Wilcox family have moved into the home recently vacated by Lloyd Wiggins and wife.—Bridgeport Herald.

W. D. Fisher was here from Alliance Friday visiting friends for a few hours. He is enthusiastic about the county seat removal fight. He says the court house at Alliance cost $89,000, was built a year ago, is of stone and modern in every way, fire-proof and one of the finest buildings in the state. The price named includes the furniture, which is of the highest class.—Norfolk Press.

A somewhat "loaded" man, waiting for a car at Fifteenth and Farnam streets, was attracted by a super-stylishly dressed young woman, whose face was as pretty as her costume was handsome, stepped up to her and said: "Say, girlie, I'll give you a nickel for a kiss." "What do you take me for—a jitney bus?" That was her answer, to which he replied: "No, I mistook you for a picture show."—Omaha Examiner.

Miss Rose Graham has purchased the lot on corner of Fourth and Pawnee streets, Scottsbluff, and expects to erect a modern three story hospital building thereon, 50x80 feet in size. A strictly up-to-date structure, one that will cost not less than $15,000. Miss Graham is an experienced nurse and will conduct a general hospital open to all doctors. We understand the building will be equipped in the latest fixtures, including an electric elevator.—Star-Herald.

Rev. C. K. Shackelford was a Kimball visitor, Monday. He took over Sheriff O'Grady and his prisoner, and brought back a load of folding bath tubs. Mr. Shackelford has received the agency for these tubs for Kimball and Banner counties and expects to do quite a little business in this line, as the tubs are an article that should be in every home. They are guaranteed for ten years. Can you afford to go without a bath tub in your home when the cost is only one dollar a year.—News, Harrisburg.

$5,000 from Sweet Clover
Roy Wood, who lives in the northeast part of this county, is the champion sweet clover grower in this section. He has one hundred acres in sweet clover on his kindred homestead and has a fine stand. He threshed the clover on half of the acreage and received $5,000 for the seed. Now he is taking a trip to the exposition and still has a good part of the money left. Not so bad, when so many people generally think that growing of sweet clover is profitless in every way.—Oshkosh Herald.

A. V. Melvor, assistant cashier in the Bank of Hyannis, will go to Alliance Saturday morning where Mrs. Melvor, who has been visiting several weeks in Colorado, will join him and together they will enjoy the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Everett on Christmas day, returning to Hyannis the following Monday. * * * Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woodruff went to Alliance and attended to some business matters, Tuesday. He says considerable is doing there these days in the way of Christmas shopping.—Tribune, Hyannis.

Request a Grand Jury
An effort is being made on the part of the citizens of Bedford and Seneca to secure a grand jury for the spring term of court. District Judge Hanna has given assurances that on proper representations a call will be made for such a jury. The movement is meeting with some opposition on the grounds of expense. It would probably cost in the neighborhood of $3,000, but that would not be a bad investment if it saved one boy from profligacy, degeneracy, or criminality.—Thomas County Herald, Bedford.

A prominent merchant went into the railroad freight depot the other day and discovered a shipment of mail order goods for a private family in the city. He ranted and raved away for half an hour giving his opinion of people who ordered goods from mail order concerns when the same things were carried in stock here in town, etc., etc. He paused, momentarily, for breath, and the clerk said: "Your wife's new cloak from the National Cloak and Suit Company arrived by express this morning. Did you want to take it up to the house with you?" That merchant had no more to say, but got away from there at once. Is there any moral in this true tale?—Edgemont Enterprise.

A recommendation for those who find themselves suddenly deprived of the saloon, the following substitute: Start a saloon in your own home. Be the only customer. You will have no liquor license to pay. Go to your wife and give her $2 to buy a gallon of whiskey, and remember there are 69 drinks in one gallon. Buy your drinks from your wife, and by the time the first two gallons are gone she will have $18.70 to put in the bank and $2 to start business again. Should you live ten years and continue to buy your booze from her and then die with snakes in your boots, she will have enough to bury you decently, educate your children, buy a lot, build a house, and buy the local paper for a life time.—Exchange.

Among those from Alliance who attended the funeral of Mrs. Johnson here last Friday were: W. C. Mounts and wife and J. C. McCorkle and wife. * * * A. M. Miller, who has been in the hospital at Alliance for the past couple of weeks, suffering from the effects of the grip and a bad cold on his lungs, is reported as much better, and will be able to return home within a short time. * * * Fred Hucke is still suffering from painful injuries received when his car upset last Wednesday on the grade seven miles south of town. Mr. Hucke had started to Alliance, and as he was driving against the storm he could not see the road very well, being also handicapped by a very sore eye which he received in an accident a couple of weeks ago. When he came to the turn, he did not see it as soon as he should have done, but shut off the power and attempted to make the turn anyway. The car upset, catching him and breaking a rib. He managed to crawl out from beneath the auto, and was picked up by a passing auto and taken to the Best home, and later was removed to his own home. The broken rib and minor injuries will probably keep him confined for some time.—Hemlingford Ledger.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

YOUR EYE-SIGHT IS VALUABLE

Of the five senses—seeing, feeling, hearing, smelling and tasting—the power of seeing is prized the most and is least cared for.

Eighty-five per cent of all education, business and pleasure comes through the eyes.

Ninety-five per cent of all abnormal condition of the eyes—granulated lids, styes, inflamed lids, cross-eyes and many other things are caused by eye-strain and can be corrected by glasses.

Eye-strain not only endangers the loss of sight, but is also one of the greatest enemies of health and happiness.

IF YOU VALUE YOUR EYES

nothing should keep you from giving them every necessary attention.

We are prepared to give them careful, beneficial service and permanently relieve their trouble.
