WEST SIDE BALL PARK, CHICAGO, May 17.—Chance and his fellow Teddy Bears, chastened in spirit by the whacking Brooklyn gave them yesterday, came out to the park this afternoon intent on business only. They worked on the moist field like tomcats dancing on a roof, showing bunches of speed and great accuracy in their hurling. When they received the Brooklyns yesterday they seemed to regard them as soft marks, good things to play tag with. To-day it was far different. The Cubs have received a valuable lesson, the second of the week McGuillen having administered the other spanking.

Donovan's people looked much more at peace with themselves and the whole world than before yesterday's battle. They think they have discovered how to whale the Cubs. Speed, fast work on the bases and loads of nerve will win, so Donovan figures.

A big crowd was out, half of it cheering for Brooklyn.

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, May 16.—Hughey Jennings was in fine voice this afternoon, and a record-breaking crowd of 14,000 gave him a great cheer as he got loose the first instalment of "Eyaulsi" at the New York players.

The Detroit Club has just struck a winning streak, and the oldtime confidence flashed in their eyes as they flashed in their eyes as they Ton. It was an ideal baseball day, and long after the game started lines of spectators extended from the ticket offices, still seeking admission. The stands overflowed early, but fortunately provision had been made for adding several thousands in a roped-off section of the field.

Before the end of the first inning the crowd had spread all around the field and a ground rule had to be established limiting all hits into the crowd to two bases.

First Inning.

Ball's throw to Chase made short work of McIntyre. Schaefer popped out to Niles. Crawford bounced out to Chase unassisted. NO RUNS.

Niles singled and got to second on Keeler's scrimpe to Rossman. Hemphill was hit by a pitched ball. Chase flied to Crawford, both runners advancing on the play. Donovan made a wild pitch, scoring both Niles and Hemphill. Stahl struck out. TWO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Cobb walk. Niles made a great running catch of Rossman's Texas leaguer. Cobb stole second. Coughlin was safe on Ball's throw to first, but Chase whipped the ball to Kleinow in time to catch Cobb at the plate. Thomas forced out Coughlin at second, Niles to Ball. NO RUNS.

O'Leary threw out Conroy. Ball struck out. Kleinow flied to O'Leary. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

O'Leary hit into the left field crowd for two bases. Donovan walked. Both runners advanced on McIntyre's sacrifice, Conroy to Chase. Schaefer was safe on Ball's fumble, but Ball redeemed himself by throwing to Conroy in time to catch Donovan, though O'Leary scored. Crawford got a pass. Schaefer stole third. Conroy thinking him out rolled the ball to Newton, and Schaefer scored while Crawford took second. Newton made a wild pitch and Crawford scored. Cobb lined out to Keeler. THREE RUNS.

Sweeney batted for Newton, and he was thrown out by Donovan. Niles drew a passed ball, Keeler flied to O'Leary. Niles stole second. Hemphill flied to McIntyre. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Doyle pitching for New York. Rossman smashed a two-bagger into the left field crowd, and he took third on Coughlin's sacrifice, Conroy to Chase. Rossman scored on Thomas's single to centre. O'Leary fouled to Conroy. Donovan truck out. ONE RUN.

Chase flied to McIntyre. Stahl singled to centre field. Conroy flied to O'Leary. Ball singled, sending Stahl to third. And he stole second. Kleinow walked, filling the bases. Moriarty batted for Doyle. Moriarty was safe on O'Leary's error and Stahl scored. Niles flied to McIntyre. ONE RUN.

Fifth Inning.

Lake pitching for New York. McIntyre flied to Hemphill. Conroy threw out Schaefer. Ball tossed out Crawford. NO RUNS.

Keeler walked, but he was forced out on Hemphill's grounder. O'Leary to Schaefer. Coughlin threw out Chase as Hemphill took second. Stahl walked. Hemphill and Stahl worked a double steal, and on Thomas's and throw to third Hemphill scored. Schaefer threw out Conroy. ONE RUN.

Sixth Inning.

Cobb flied to Stahl. Rossman died likewise. Niles threw out Crawford. NO RUNS.

O'Leary threw out Ball. Kleinow lined out to O'Leary. Pitcher Donovan was put out of the game for kicking over balls and strikes and after a vigorous protest by Detroit, Mullen took his place. Schmidt took Thomas's place as Catcher. Mullen threw out Lake. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Conroy threw out Schmidt. O'Leary singled. Mullen flied to Hemphill. O'Leary was out stealing. Kleinow to Ball. NO RUNS.

Niles singled over second. And he stole second. Schaefer threw out Keeler, Niles taking third. In his anger over the decision at third, Mullen threw his glove at Umpire Hurst and was ordered out of the game, Slever taking his place. Hempihll walked, Chase singled, scoring Niles, but Hemphill was out, Schaefer to Coughlin, Chase taking second. O'Lear threw out Stahl. ONE RUN.

Eight Inning.

Ball threw out McIntyre. Schaefer struck out. Crawford flied to Hemphill. NO RUNS.

Conroy singled. Ball beat out a bunt. Both advanced on Kleinow's sacrifice. Slever to Rossman. Lake hit for two bases, scoring Conroy and Ball. But for the ground rule it would have been a home run. Niles struck out. Keeler walked. Lake was caught off second. Schmidt to O'Leary. TWO RUNS.

Ninth Inning.

Cobb struck out. Rossman singled, but he was forced out on Coughlin's rap to Niles, unassisted. Schmidt was safe on Ball's bad throw. O'Leary singled, scoring Coughlin and Schmidt. Payne batted for Slever, and he forced O'Leary at second on a grounder to Ball, unassisted. TWO RUNS.

FIELD MOUSE, 100 TO 1 WINS FASHION STAKES AT BELMONT TRACK

August Belmont's Filly Threw Jockey McCahey at the Post and Won, After Notter Had Been Substituted.

BY VINCENT TREANOR.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK, May 16.—A 100 to 1 shot, Field Mouse, owned by August Belmont, Chairman of the Jockey Club, won the Fashion Stakes, the two-year-old feature of the racing card here to-day, in a common gallop. Field Mouse led all the way.

The winning of Field Mouse was the result of odd circumstances connected with the racing game. McCahey was the regular jockey on Feld Mouse, but the filly going to the post acted like a wild horse and threw McCahey off and into the fence, nearly killing him. He lay unconscious on the grass in the field while the horse was led back to the paddock and Jockey Notter substituted for McCahey.

All the while the rest of the field was prancing at the post with their 119 pounds on their backs. After a twenty-five minute delay Notter and Field Mouse arrived at the post. There was little delay after that, and as soon as the barrier went up Field Mouse went into the lead and stayed there. Half way down the chute Notter had to whip her, but she responded gamely and came on to win by herself. Melissa strove gamely to catch her, but couldn't, and had to be content with second place, in front of Lady Hubbard.

Zienap Wins First Race.

Zienap repeated in the opening event, with the crowd playing all around her. Gowan was selected as the "good thing" in this race and was heavily played. She led all the way only to tire in the last sixteenth, where Zienap caught her and was going away. Fancy was third. The Whitney filly ran a good race for her first outing. She began slowly, as usual, and finished strong. Pantoufle ran second to the head of the stretch and then stopped.

Melissa and Pleasing were scratched from the selling race for two-year-olds, second on the card. Royal Captive was made an odds-on favorite and was well played. She showed her class by leading all the way after a bumping match with Taboo. Miss Highland ran third to the last sixteenth and tired. Nasturtia closed with a great rush and was second in a driving finish in front of Taboo. All the wise money went to the favorite, who was regarded as the best thing of the day.

To add to the sensation produced by the winning of a 100 to 1 shot, Berry Maid, backed down from 15 to 1 to 10 to 1 for another Forsythe killing with the Toboggan Handicap in a furious drive from Baby Wolf, with James R. Keene's Resigouche, a head away, third. The public bet thousands on the Keene entry, King James, Baby Wolf and King Cobalt, and barring the money taken out of the ring by the Forsythe crowd, the books were the winners to the race. Berry Maid had to fight every inch of the way to win. She was challenged in turn by King James, King Cobalt, Baby Wolf and Resigouche and stoutly stood them all off under a whipping ride by Shreve.

The Junior Trial Steeplechase furnished another upset, the third in the three events. Sandy Creeker and Jim McGill, coupled as the Hampton Stable, were 7 to 10 choices. They were beaten easily by Economy, the second choice. Sandy Creeker just managed to last long enough to beat out King Castle for place. Colt scratched Penorris and relied on Economy and many took this for a profitable hunch.

BELMONT PARK RESULTS.

FIRST RACE—Zienap (4 to 1 and 7 to 5) 1, Gowan (8 to 5 for place) 2, Fancy 3.

SECOND RACE—Royal Captive (9 to 10 and 2 to 5) 1, Nasturtia (5 to 1 for place) 2, Taboo 3.

THIRD RACE—Field Mouse (60 to 1 and 15 to 1) 1, Melissa (2 to 1 for place) 2, Lady Hubbard 3.

FOURTH RACE—Berry Maid (12 to 1 and 5 to 1) 1, Baby Wolf (2 to 1 for place) 2, Restigouche 3.

FIFTH RACE—Economy (11 to 5 and 1 to 2) 1, Sandy Creeker (1 to 4 for place) 2, King Castle.

SIXTH RACE—Zal (2 to 1 and even) 1, Rockstone (3 to 1 for place) 2, Tommy Waddell.

(Special to The Evening World.)

MEYERROSE PARK, BROOKLYN, May 16.—With the hopes of taking both games of the double-header from the Philadelphias to-day, Manager Hussey shifted the batting order of the Brooklyn Unions. The listless play of the Brooklyns in the last few engagements caused Hussey to get busy, and he has signed two pitchers, two outfielders and a first baseman.

He also hopes to secure Charlie Malay, formerly of the Brooklyn Nationals. Lave Cross has not joined the Philadelphias as yet, but Walter Schlister, manager of the Quakers, expects him to do so next week as he has sent him a very liberal offer.

In the eighth inning of the game with the score 2 to 1 in favor of Philadelphia and Brooklyn at bat with three on bases and one out, Second Baseman McDonald, of the Phillies, called Cuddy, of Brooklyn, an improper name, and the two clinched. After a struggle they were separated by the other players. Umpire Cullum will report the matter to President Lawson, of the Union League, who will probably suspend McDonald.

RULES FIX'D FOR BIG YACHT RACE

BOSTON, May 16.—Conditions under which the ocean yacht race from Marblehead to Bermuda will be held were issued to-day, although the start will not take place until June 3. The yachts will be sent off in four classes, with a time allowance for the full distance, 675 nautical miles. The start will be off Marblehead Rock and the finish off St. David's Head, Bermuda.

There are no restrictions as to the number or character of the crew, or as to sails, but the yachts must carry stores and water sufficient for thirty days in addition to a complete equipment of compasses, sextant, chronometer and barometer. Logs must be kept and copies handed to the committee at Bermuda within eighteen hours after the finish.

The race is held under the joint auspices of the Corinthian Yacht Club, of Marblehead, and the Royal Bermuda Yacht Club, of Bermuda.

CHILDREN'S CRIES PREVENT SUICIDE.

Father Stabs Himself With Ice Pick and Little One's Screams Bring Timely Relief.

In the presence of his two little boys, three and five years old respectively, Emil Chapin attempted to stab himself to the heart with an ice-pick to-day at his home, No. 336 West Twenty-sixth street. The weapon was dull and the surgeons at New York Hospital, where he was taken, say he will recover.

Chapin, up to two days ago, was a waiter in Rector's restaurant. He became despondent upon losing his position, and his wife watched him closely because she feared he would attempt suicide.

She was in the kitchen of her flat and the husband and the children were in the bedroom this afternoon. His wife, hearing the cries of the children, rushed into the room, grabbed the ice-pick and stood over the would-be suicide until help arrived.

SPENCER EDDY HOME.

Spencer Eddy, Secretary of the American Embassy at Berlin, arrived from Europe to-day on the steamship Kaiserin Auguste Victoria.

SCHOOLBOYS IN ATHLETIC MEET AT CELTIC PARK

Youngstes of Queens Borough Have Exciting Competitions.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CELTIC PARK, Long Island City, May 16.—The annual meet of the Queens Borough High Schools Athletic Association here this afternoon was entirely successful. The stand and bleachers were filled with pretty girls, who evidently by previous arrangement came to root for the young athletes. The girls carried small canes on which the school colors were tied, while others wore tied their loyalty to their sleeve or hat adornments.

In the sprint preliminaries the contestants after finishing were not allowed to remain on the field and this innovation tended to a delightful improvement on the usual condition of the field during sprint handicaps. The semi-finals in the junior and midget classes were eliminated. Bryant colors were borne into first four places in the senior sprint. The summaries:

100-YARD DASH—Senior, semi-finals—Won by E. Cole, Bryant; F. Marks, Bryant, second; W. P. Davis, Jamaica, third; time, 11 seconds. Second Heat—Won by H. Koch, Bryant; L. Licht, Bryant, second; E. Lewis, Flushing, third; time, 11 2-5s.

CRUISER DAKOTA BREAKS RECORDS ON HER TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The armored South Dakota made a speed of 22.36 knots an hour on her four hours' full power final acceptance trial off Santa Barbara, according to a despatch received at the Navy Department today. This is .36 knots in excess of the contract requirements.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 16.—A wireless message from the armored cruiser South Dakota, which is returning to this port from her final trip, reports that she has broken all records for vessels of her class. Her average speed during her four hours' trial was 22.56 knots under forced draught and 20.07 knots under natural draught.

AUTO AND CARS IN COLLISION

Machine Hits One and Is Wrecked by Another.

In attempting to avoid a car bound downtown at Nostrand avenue and Kosciusko street, Brooklyn, this afternoon, Frederick Nicholson, of No. 18 Maple street, Richmond Hill, L. I., steered his automobile against the front platform of an uptown car. The car he was trying to avoid caught his machine on the other side of it was crushed to pieces.

Nicholson and Charles Ritt, who was riding with him, were thrown out. Ritt escaped with a few cuts and bruises, but Nicholson sustained a compound fracture of the right arm. The injuries of the men were attended to by Dr. Shields, of No. 575 Lafayette avenue.

DRAGGING CARNEGIE LAKE FOR MISSING GIRL.

PRINCETON, N. J., May 16.—No definite clue as to the disappearance of Miss Bertha Vanderbilt, an assistant in the Princeton University Library, developed up to a late hour to-day. It is generally believed however, that the missing girl was drowned in Carnegie Lake, and acting on this belief searchers are to-day dragging the lake at the aqueduct about three miles from Princeton.

Inquiry in the district surrounding the place where Miss Vanderbilt was last seen walking has led to the information that the girl questioned a colored woman servant on a nearby farm as to the shortest way back to Princeton. This is mystifying to her friends, as Miss Vanderbilt has lived here several years, was very familiar with the neighborhood and had traversed waters in the vicinity of Princeton very frequently in a canoe. Dr. W. G. Chase, an uncle of the missing woman, is conducting the search for the body.
