MILLIONAIRES IN A TRAIN WRECK HAVE A NARROW ESCAPE

"Bankers' Express," From Bernardsville to New York, Thrown From Track by Faulty Switch Near Lyons, N. J.

Dozens of well-known business and professional men of New York had the scare of their lives to-day when the "Bankers' Express," on which they were speeding cityward over the Lackawanna road, jumped the rails in a cut near Lyons, N. J., on the Passaic and Delaware branch, and went skidding along on its side for nearly three hundred feet.

Had the accident happened at almost any other point along the division there might have been a heavy tally of casualites among the bankers, brokers and lawyers who rode in the exclusive club car at the tail end of the smashed-up train. At it was, but a few persons were injured, including two track walkers, who got hit by flying debris.

One of the victims was fatally hurt. This was Charles Emmins, thirty years old, a flagman, who tumbled from an open door of the baggage car as a faulty switch flung the train from the tracks. He was taken to the Summit Hospital dying from internal injuries and a splintered hip. His home was in Gladstone, N. J., where he lived with a wife and two children.

F. P. Olcott a Sufferer.

Frederick P. Olcott, former president of the Central Trust Company, of New York, and now chairman of the board of trustees of that institution, was the only occupant of the club car who suffered seriously. One of the bones of his right wrist was fractured. He went back to his summer place in Bernardsville in an automobile.

Frederick Schwerkardt, a butcher, of Bernardsville, sustained slight internal injuries. He was a commuter on one of the day coaches. Frederick Balandne, a millionaire horseman, of Peaback, N. J., had a scalp wound.

Two Italian track laborers were carried to Lyons on a handcar. They had legs broken by bits of wreckage where they had stopped alongside the cut to watch the express whiz by. Probably a dozen men and women aboard the train were bruised and shaken up, but not enough to need assistance.

One of those who escaped with bruises was R. V. Lindabury, of Newark, counsel for the Sugar Trust and for the Prudential Life Insurance Company, and generally regarded as the leading corporation lawyer of New Jersey.

The Bankers' Express, due at New York at 9.15, took aboard most of its 200 passengers at Gladstone, Peapack, Far Hills and Bernardsville. From Bernardsville to Newark this train makes no stops, and for the greater part of the distance it travels at the rate of fifty miles an hour.

Rich Men Passengers.

It was made up of one of the biggest locomotives in the service of the Lackawanna, tender, combination smoker and baggage car, two steel coaches and two Pullman chair cars. The rear Pullman is a club car, largely used by the rich New Yorkers who have country homes along the line of the division. Former U. S. Senator John F. Dryden is a daily traveller in the club car, but this morning he did not happen to be aboard.

Some of the passengers on the club car, or the "millionaires' wagon," as people who are not millionaires commonly call it, were Judge John F. Dillon, the corporation lawyer; John H. Bensel, chairman of the New York Board of Water Supply; Thomas F. Ormiston, of Ormiston & McCormick, lawyers, at No. 27 William street; Percy R. Pine, the banker; Grant B. Schley, jr., of Moore & Schley, Wall street bankers; ex-State Senator Samuel S. Childs, of New Jersey, and his brother, William Childs, founder of the string of Childs restaurants; Adrian H. Joline, counsel of Andrew Carnegie and one of the New York City Railway receivers; C. Blair Mitchell, the lawyer; John H. Hulshizer, formerly president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company of New Jersey; George Gaston, of the Metropolitan Life; C. Ledyard Blair, the banker; Haley F. Fisk, insurance official; George Balentine, a Newark manufacturer, who had a small scalp wound; William Prout, the Newark lawyer; William H. Page, the lawyer; Col. George B. Post, the architect; Henry J. Hardenberg, president of the New Jersey Zinc Company; Charles W. Chapin, Charles W. Squibb, the chemical manufacturer; William R. Kearns, of Newark; Fred and D. W. Cromwell, the lawyers.

Switch Faulty.

The train had just passed Lyons, a small station, and entered the long cut, eight feet high. It was moving at about thirty-five miles an hour. At this point workmen have been reconstructing the switch which operates a spur track that runs to the plant of the Morris County Rock Crushing Company nearby.

A fault in this switch is believed to have been responsible for the derailment. The engine and tender passed it safely, but the rear wheels of the combination car jumped. The train broke in two. The engine and tender bounced along for a good distance before the tender trucks broke. The big mogul then slid peacefully over on its side and rested against the bank.

Freed from the heavy locomotive the other cars leaped the rails, and, tumbling over at an angle of fifty degrees against the walls of the bank, they slid along for nearly three hundred feet, while the astonished travellers piled in heaps against the lower sides, yelled or fought or prayed or fainted according to their several natures.

Women Cooler Than Men.

In the forward Pullman and in both of the steel cars there were a lot of women, but, generally speaking, they kept their wits and their nerve better than some of the men did.

The injured were carried into a toolhouse alongside the track. There Dr. Knight, a Bernardsville physician who had been aboard the train, cared for them. Dr. Miegh soon arrived from Millington, the first station this side of Lyons. In a little while a relief train had come from Bernardsville with more physicians, and a wrecking crew from Newark. Automobiles and carriages poured in from the surrounding country, and every person who could show a wound or a bruise had at least one vehicle placed at his disposal.

A special brought most of the marooned passengers on to New York. Some of them were only an hour late getting to their offices.

ROOSEVELT FIXES PLANS FOR BIG HUNT IN AFRICA

Starts in April of Next Year, and Son Kermit Will Be in the Party.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Important significance in connection with President Roosevelt's determination against a third term is contained in the admission made to-day for the first time that the President is making definite plans to leave the United States in April next year for Africa, where he will spend a year hunting big game. Rumors that Mr. Roosevelt was to leave the country at the conclusion of his term of office have been printed heretofore, but when confirmation was sought at the White House the answer has been that no definite conclusion had been reached as to the President's plans.

But to-day it was stated positively that Mr. Roosevelt, with his son Kermit, would sail from New York for Cairo in April, 1909—just as soon as the necessary arrangements for the departure could be made after March 4. It is the desire of the President to bring back at the end of the year in the wilds of Africa specimens of every species of big game to be had on the dark continent. He will visit no other country, it is stated.

The outfit for the expedition will be obtained on reaching Africa but an active correspondence in this connection already is under way. The exact size of the hunting party, number of guides and retainers, animals, &c., has not been determined on. The President, however, will take with him an assortment of arms which he will require in the variety of hunting contemplated. This outfit will include, of course, guns of the highest power.

During the absence of Mr. Roosevelt in Africa, Mrs. Roosevelt and other members of the family will remain at the family home at Sagamore Hill, Oyster Bay.

FIRE IN BROADWAY DRAWS BIG CROWD.

A fire in the office of the Commercial Trust Company, at Broadway and Thirty-seventh street, shortly before 5 o'clock this afternoon did very little damage, but caused a great deal of excitement. The firemen were hampered by a crowd of several thousand people which gathered and gave a handful of police all that they could do.

The blaze started from a lighted cigar on the desk of Vice-President G. J. Baumann. As it was after banking hours all except a few of the employees had gone home. The firemen succeeded in confining the fire to the desk and surrounding furniture. Mr. Baumann stated afterward that some valuable papers had ben destroyed.

SUPPORTERS OF COOPER THEORY MULTIPLYING

Belief That Stomach Causes Extensive Illness Grows in New York.

L. T. Cooper's theory that the American stomach has grown weak and is responsible for most sickness is receiving the strongest sort of indorsement from a surprising number of New Yorkers.

Among many people who have recently become convinced that Cooper is correct and his medicine all he claims is Mrs. Eleanor Harris, of 226 Rodney street, Brooklyn.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Harris called at the Riker store, Broadway and Ninth street, where Cooper is meeting the public, and said: "I am only too willing to tell what a remarkable experience I have had with Cooper's New Discovery, and what a wonderful medicine I know it to be.

"I have had rheumatism for sixteen years and took so much medicine in trying to get rid of it that for the past eight years my stomach has been in a fearful condition, as my digestion was almost ruined. For ten years I consulted one physician after another, but my rheumatism got steadily worse. Finally my stomach got in such a state that I had to stop taking medicine altogether.

"When I first heard of Mr. Cooper's medicine and what it was doing in New York I was afraid to try it; but I finally decided to take it, and if it did me no good I would never take any medicine again. I started the treatment six weeks ago. The first effect it had was to give me a better appetite than I have had for ten years. Then my food began to digest and no longer distressed me for hours after eating. At the end of the third week I noticed that I was not suffering as much pain from rheumatism, and each day the pain and stiffness grew less until I no longer had any rheumatism. For the past week I feel as though I had been made over entirely, as I have no pains or aches and eat three hearty meals a day, with no indigestion whatever.

"My two nieces and my sister have had stomach trouble. When they saw what the medicine was doing for me they all tried it. It has helped them just as it did me, and they are delighted with their improvement. One of them told me yesterday that it was worth more than its weight in gold to her. This sounds almost impossible, but every word of it is true."

Cooper said Thursday that the sale of his medicine in New York had doubled since he put it on sale at all the Riker stores and at all druggists throughout New York. Just as many people are calling to talk with me at this store as ever," he said, "but from what I hear from druggists everywhere the sale has more than doubled in the past few days. I shall continue to meet people at this store from 10 until 6 each day for some time. Saturday night I will stay here until 9 o'clock.

NEGRO JAILED AS ASSAILANT OF JERSEY GIRL

Suspect Taken After Two Days' Hunt by Posses Hurried to Cell for His Safety.

WOODBURY, N. J., June 5.—Following a two-day hunt by the police and posses of residents for the assailant of Miss Nellie Higginbogan, a negro, whose name is withheld by the authorities, is under arrest here.

Detectives Drummer and James, of Prosecutor Rogers's office, picked up the suspect about noon to-day in the woods near Pitman Grove. He answered the description of the negro who attacked Miss Higginbogan on Wednesday night, and the fact that he told several conflicting stories resulted in his being held.

The negro was spirited to jail and few knew of the arrest, secrecy being observed because of threads made against the man guilty of the crime.

Miss Higginbogan's condition is worse to-day, and now there are grave fears that she will not recover. She is in an extremely weak condition as a result of the shock she received at the hands of the negro assailant. A doctor is in constant attendance upon her.

The young woman was on her way home after a visit to friends when attacked.

Roseben is now back to his best form. He broke running, and, taking a big lead, forced a fast pace all the way and won galloping. Pantoufle had plenty of speed and always held the place safe. Gold Lady closed strong after being outrun in the early part of the race. The race was first class for first effort. Timber ran as if short.

388 SECOND RACE—Three-year-olds; selling; $1,000 added; one mile and a sixteenth. Post time, 2.57; off, 3.01. Start fair. Won driving. Winner, b. c., by Nasturtium—Cornelia. Owner—E. L. Morton. Time—1.48.

*Added starter.

Field Mouse ran back to her previous good race. She had a world of speed, and, racing into a big lead, held the race safe all the way. Suffragette ran a good race. Melissa made a poor break, ran a good race, closing with a rush. Hammerless ran a race worth remembering in her next start.

390 FOURTH RACE—The Parkway Handicap; three-year-olds and upward; $4,000 added; one mile and a sixteenth. Post time, 3.57; off, 3.59. Start good. Won easily. Winner, b. c., by Sain—El Salado. Owner—B. Schreiber. Time—1.45 2-5.

Jack Atkin cut out a heartbreaking pace and had no field driving to keep up at the far turn. He was only galloping through the stretch. Master Robert ran a good race, closed ground steadily, but never threatened the winner. Gretna Green raced impressively, but outrun. Tourenne could not raise a gallop. Montgomery is apparently being worked into condition.

391 FIFTH RACE—Three-year-olds and upward; selling; $1,000 added; one mile. Post time, 4.24; off, 4.26. Start fair. Won driving. Winner, ch. c., by Planudes—Soubrette II. Owner—J. L. McGinnis. Time—2.06.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK MUST SPEND SUNDAY LOCKED UP IN TOMBS.

over until the summer vacation, because the remaining time of the court is taken up with trials already set, among them the trials of Aldermen Clifford and Peters.

John B. Stanchfield, chief counsel for Hitchcock in the last trial, will be unable to take part in this proceeding because of engagements in the Federal courts. He has been succeeded by Max Steuer, who answered for Hitchcock when the case was called.

Mr. Steuer asked that the case be adjourned for at least a week. He said he was retained on June 3 and had been unable to prepare his defense. He submitted an affidavit from Mr. Stanchfield in which the latter declared, in effect, that the District Attorney had agreed to set the trial over to the fall term and that this agreement had been indorsed by John D. Lindsay, president of the Children's Society.

Statements Diverge Widely.

Mr. Stanchfield declared in his affidavit that he had been informed of the agreement by Thomas M. Osborne, of Auburn, N. Y., a member of the up-State Public Service Commission and a close friend of Hitchcock. Mr. Osborne, it is understood, is furnishing considerable of the money necessary for Hitchcock's defense.

Mr. Steuer submitted an affidavit signed by himself in which he averred that he had been unable to examine the records and witnesses and get a proper defense ready.

Assistant District-Attorney Garvan arose to argue that the case be proceeded with at once and Justice Goff ordered Mr. Garvan to be sworn, inasmuch as he was replying to affidavits.

Mr. Garvan denied the statements made by Mr. Stanchfield concerning an agreement to put the case over until after the summer vacation. He said it was a simple indictment calling for no elaborate defense. Hitchcock had admitted that he had the Von Hagen girl in a room in a house in the Tenderloin in December, 1906, and to establish a defense all he will have to do, according to Mr. Garvan, is show that she was not there for an immoral purpose.

"This case," said Justice Goff, at the conclusion of the arguments, "has been on the calendar seven times. There has been no sufficient reason advanced to warrant an adjournment and I order the case to trial. I do not regard it as any different from hundreds of other cases that are tried daily here."

Hitchcock and his bondsman, Martin Engel, were in court. He appeared to be deeply disappointed over the failure of his lawyers efforts to secure delay.

Herman Fromme, who was attorney of record for Hitchcock, announced this afternoon that he had withdrawn from the case. He declares he retired from the Hitchcock legal battery because Hitchcock failed to keep appointments with him.

ROOT TO TAKE ANOTHER COURSE OF TRAINING.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Secretary Root, when asked to-day if he was to "sit on the lid" in Washington during the summer, replied that his plans were so arranged that he should leave Washington June 20 and spend two or three weeks at a training establishment in New York, and then go to his farm near Utica for the remainder of the warm season.

JACK ATKIN MAKES NEW TRACK RECORD IN THE PARKWAY.

the barrier Corncob was away flying with Arasee next. The others, who happened to have outside positions, had no chance. Rara Avis was carried far to the outside and before they had gone half a mile was twenty lengths out of it.

He made up a lot of ground and at the end was fifth. Corncob, free of any interference, sailed along in front and was never caught, although right at the end Black Oak closed strong on the rail and seemed to have him. McDaniel on Corncob shut him off and Leach didn't persevere after that. He finished a bang up second in front of Arasee. There was a lot of money bet on Nick Stoner, who finished fourth. It was said John W. Gates had a bet of $100 against $2,000 on Corncob.

Field Mouse Wins Criterion.

August Belmont didn't win the English Derby at Epsom, but Field Mouse brought his colors home in front in the Criterion Stakes here. There was no 100 to 1 against Field Mouse to-day. Instead, she was favorite by a slight margin over Suffragette. Field Mouse won like a real high-class filly running in front all the way. Suffragette got within two lengths of her at the far turn, but in the run to the stretch Field Mouse drew away furher and rounded the turn for home with a safe lead.

When well into the stretch Notter threatened to get up on the rail with Suffragette, but McDaniel, looking behind, saw him and hit the Belmont filly twice with the whip. She bounded away again and Suffragette struggled behind in vain. Melissa closed fast through the stretch and just nosed out the heavily backed Hammerless for third money.

Troublesome Upsets Wise Ones.

The wise crowd tried to get Missouri Lad over in the fifth, a mile and a quarter race. "Lucky Jack" McGinnis's 40 to 1 shot, Troublesome, with an apprentice boy named Lang up, however, upset all calculations by winning handily from Missouri Lad with Lord Stanhope third. Missouri Lad broke in front and stayed there until the far turn was reached, when Troublesome went to the front and stayed there to the end. Sam H. Harris ran a good race after being cut off several times. Tommy Waddell and Bolando ran prominently for a while.

Fitz Herbert Breezes Home.

Fitz Herbert breezed home in the final event after following the pace of Uncle Jim to the stretch. Uncle Jim and Voodoo got off flying, but Voodoo was through in the first eighth. Fitz Herbert then moved up and at the turn for home caught Uncle Jim. After that he breezed away and finished an easy winner by two lengths. Uncle Jim was five lengths in front of Voodoo.

BELMONT RALLIES AND SURPRISES BY HIS VITALITY

But His Doctors Still Are Apprehensive of a Fatal Result.

The condition of Oliver H. P. Belmont, upon whom an operation for appendicitis was performed yesterday, is improved this afternoon, according to his physicians. There was no appreciable change until about noon, when the patient, who had been merely holding his own for twenty-four hours, rallied. Mr. Belmont is still in grave danger, but an unsuspected store of vitality he displays may pull him through.

Dr. Bull, who performed the operation and remained with the patient until last night, returned to Brookholt Villa, Hempstead, L. I., the Belmont country place, to-day.

Dr. McCosh, the family physician, and Dr. Lancheart, chief surgeon of Nassau County Hospital, spent the night in the sick room.

The appendicitis operation disclosed that general peritonitis had already set in. Mr. Belmont was in poor physical condition when the appendicitis symptoms became alarming last Monday, and the physicians do not attempt to conceal that they are apprehensive over the result of his illness.

When Mr. Belmont's condition became grave yesterday word was sent for W. K. Vanderbilt, jr., his wife's son, and Mrs. Vanderbilt, to hurry to Hempstead. A message was also sent for Harold Vanderbilt. Mrs. Belmont's youngest son, to come from Yale. They arrived at the Belmont home last night.

Mr. Belmont suffered a great shock when Mrs. Natalie Rives Burden, his daughter by his first marriage, was suffocated by gas on February 21 last, only a few weeks after her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Belmont with some guests had planned to go to Plain View on Saturday for the beginning of the work on the Long Island motor Parkway, which is to extend from Garden City to Lake Ronkonkoma. Harold Vanderbilt was to take up the first spade of earth for the parkway.

The Belmonts had planned to go to Europe this month.

Oliver Hazard Perry Belmont is the youngest son of the late August Belmont, the banker. He was born in 1858. His first wife, who was Sarah Swan Whitney, divorced him and then married George L. Rives. On Jan. 11, 1896, Mr. Belmont married Mrs. Alva Smith Vanderbilt, who, in 1895, had obtained a divorce from William K. Vanderbilt, sr. Mr. Belmont was in Congress 1901-3 and was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in 1904.

PRINCETON WILL MEET YALE ON DIAMOND JUNE 13.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 5.—Announcement was made by the Yale athletic authorities to-day that the postponed Yale-Princeton baseball game of May 30 will be played at New Haven Saturday, June 13.

This arrangement was possible because Cornell voluntarily cancelled her game with Yale scheduled for that date.

DRAGGED OUT OF WINDOW BY SKIRT WIND INFLATED

Fourteen-Year-Old Girl Instantly Killed by Fall of Two Stories.

Mary Murphy, the fourteen-year-old daughter of the recently widowed Mrs. Anna Murphy, of No. 107 Charlton street, was killed to-day by being practically blown out of the window of her home.

The girl was endeavoring to pull in a skirt of her mother's from the clothes-line when a gust of wind filled the garment and dragged her out of the window. Although the fall was only two stories she landed on her head and was instantly killed.

Mary was the eldest of three girls. Her father, John Murphy, a policeman, died five weeks ago. Two of her mother's brothers named McDonald died last November. The widow was standing only a few feet from her daughter when she was drawn out of the window. A cousin was in the yard a few feet from where the girl fell. An ambulance surgeon from St. Vincent's Hospital said that she died the instant her head struck the pavement of the courtyard.

The girl had stayed home to help in the washing so that her mother might go out and look for work. Her mother was just putting on her hat when the girl lost her life. The death of their father had sadly reduced their income and it was a hard struggle for the widow to keep the three girls in school.

Mary attended the St. Veronica School, a few blocks from her home, and was to have been graduated in a few weeks. She was exceptionally bright and very pretty.

ARRANGE SPECIAL TRAINS FOR THE OLYMPIC TRYOUTS
