FINED $50 AND COSTS

Appeals Case to District Court, Furnishing Bond in the Sum of $130

Francis L. Smith, proprietor of the Atlas hotel, who was arrested last week on complaint made by Marshal A. B. Wheeler and charging him with knowingly allowing his place of business to be used for prostitution, was fined $50 and costs Friday afternoon by County Judge L. A. Berry.

The defendant, who was represented by Boyd and Metz, immediately notified the court of his intention to appeal the case to the district court, and furnished bond in the sum of $130 signed by S. A. Miller.

Among the witnesses examined in the trial were Marshal Wheeler, Sheriff Cox, Mayor Romig and Police Magistrate Roberts. County Attorney Baeye prosecuted.

Cattle 10-15c Higher, Receipts Light. Market Active

HOG PRICES HIGHEST OF YEAR

Lambs 10c Higher Than Last Week's Record. Ewes About Steady. Very Small Supply.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, Neb., May 16, 1916.—The week opened up with a light run of cattle, only 154 loads, or about 3,800 head. The demand for both local and shipping account seemed to be strong, and the market was very active right from the start, prices being 10 to 15c higher than the close of last week. All classes of buyers seemed to be looking for the heavy cattle, while the desirable light and handy-weight steers were also ready sellers. Good to choice heaves sold at $9.30 to $9.60, $9.60 being the high price of the year so far for beef cattle. Bulk of the fair to good 1,000 to 1,300-lb. heaves brought around $9.00 to $9.25. Good to choice heifer stock selling at $7.50 to $8.50. Competition seemed strong for corn-fed steers, and anything desirable in the way of fat stock found a ready sale.

Quotations on cattle: Good to choice heaves, $9.30 to $9.60; fair to good heaves, $9.00 to $9.25; common to fair heaves, $8.00 to $9.00; good to choice heifers, $7.50 to $8.75; good to choice cows, $7.50 to $8.25; fair to good cows, $6.75 to $7.50; canners and cutters, $4.50 to $6.50; veal calves, $9.00 to $11.50; bulls, stags, etc., $6.00 to $8.00.

The 10c advance in hogs today brought the market up to the high mark for the season, also since 1910. Shipping orders seemed larger than at the close of last week, and bringing 10c higher prices. Packing requirements were rather large, and on account of competition being so strong from the shippers, they paid prices 10c higher. Most of the sales brought $9.65 to $9.80, the top reaching $9.90.

The sheep receipts were very light for Monday, there being 11 cars, or $,100 head. These receipts were mostly California spring lambs, and as fed lambs were scarce, and all buyers having orders for them, caused the trade to open early. Woolled lambs brought 10c more than last week's record, price being $12.20. Shorn lambs weighing around 80 lbs. brought $10.25, the highest price paid this season, and a bunch of well finished stuff brought $10.00. Ewes were very scarce, and about steady. One bunch of woolled westerns bringing about $9.10, which was the price paid for a cut of the same stuff at the close of last week.

Quotations on Sheep:

Lambs, good to choice handy, $11.85 to $12.10; lambs, fair to good handy, $11.50 to $11.85; lambs, fair to choice heavy, $10.75 to $11.50; lambs, clipped, heavy, $9.50 to $10.25; lambs, clipped, heavy, $8.75 to $9.25; yearlings, fair to choice light, $9.50 to $10.75; yearlings, fair to choice, heavy, $8.75 to $9.75; weas, fair to choice, $8.25 to $9.65; swes, good to choice, $8.75 to $9.40; swes, fair to good, $8.00 to $8.75; ewes, clipped, $6.50 to $8.10.

ELECTRIC BOOKKEEPER

Voluntary Sentence for Life Given New Bookkeeper Burroughs at First State Bank

The volume of business transacted by the First State Bank had grown to a point where more clerical assistance was absolutely necessary. Cashier W. J. Root called the directors together and explained the situation.

"We need more help on our books," he stated. "Business demands we speed up the handling of our accounts if for no other reason than to give the best service to depositors."

sent out, one application received in response compelled attention because of its originality and evident merit. It reads as follows:

"To the Officers and Directors of the First State Bank, Gentlemen: I desire to present herewith my application for employment as bookkeeper in your institution. I am of mature age and of steady habits. I do not drink, smoke, chew or use profane language and I am not given to running around nights. My associates are always of the highest character and I have the best education that money can buy. I am steady, unencumbered and want only permanent position. I was never known to make an error and if anything goes wrong with me you need not pay me a cent. Here is my proposition: Buy me outright for less money than it takes to pay an ordinary bookkeeper's yearly salary and I'll get to work at once in your accounting department and remain there a lifetime without further remuneration. Clerks may come and clerks may go but I'll keep on forever. Yours for better service. A. BURROUGHS.

The reading of that application resulted in bringing Mr. A. Burroughs before the directorate.

Burroughs came in arm in arm with several close friends.

"Gentlemen," said the agent representing Burroughs, "allow me to make you acquainted with the most remarkable accountant in the business world today. It's a machine whose life blood is an electric current, but whose brains warrant it to be assumed to have human intelligence and to be even more correct than the human brain."

The operation of the Burroughs kept interest.

Bank Bookkeeping Machine was then explained in detail. The attachment of a connection sent an electric current whirring through the "veins" of the machine and it became alive. It demonstrated its ability to post ledgers and make out depositors' statements with equal facility. It showed how it lists and subtracts checks, lists and adds deposits, and computes the new balance automatically and in practically one operation.

The machine is known as the Burroughs Adding-Subtracting Ledger Posting and Statement Machine and it is certainly a wonderful bookkeeper. It prints dates, adds deposits, subtracts checks and does all the work ordinarily done by hand in much less time, with a great deal more accuracy and neatness. It is impossible for the machine to make a mistake if the operator gives it the correct figures.

In addition to posting the ledgers, making out depositors' statements, in short, keeping the bank's books, the machine can be set simply for use as an adding or subtracting machine. The bank management invites the public to call and see the new Burroughs in operation.

Father Dies after Lingering Illness of Three Months, at Rope Old Age of 78 Years

Redmond Hand of Hay Springs departed this life early Tuesday morning after being afflicted for the past few months with a gripe, which finally affected the heart, and in spite of the kind care of the friends and near ones, he succumbed to the disease. Dr. G. J. Hand left for Hay Springs Tuesday morning to be present at the old home and attend the funeral services. The many friends join in extending sincere sympathy to the afflicted ones in this their time of bereavement, especially to the wife, who is of the same age, and will feel keenly the loss of a kind husband and companion.

EIGHTH GRADE COMMENCEMENT

Exercises Will Be Held Thursday, the 25th, in the Afternoon at Phelan Opera House

100 EIGHTH GRADE STUDENTS TO BE TENDERED DIPLOMAS

Fifty from Alliance, Nineteen from Academy, Ten from Hemingford and Twenty from County

About one hundred eighth grade students of Box Butte county will receive certificates of graduation entitling them to enter high school when the annual eighth grade commencement exercises are held next Thursday afternoon at the Phelan opera house. This number includes the students from the Alliance grade schools, the students of St. Agnes academy, students of the Hemingford grade school and students from various school districts over the county. William Ritchie, a prominent young attorney of Bridgeport, has been secured to deliver the commencement address.

Fifty-six of the students of this class took the eighth grade examinations conducted about ten days ago by County Superintendent Miss Opal Russell. Included in these were seven students from the Alliance schools who contemplate living in the country in the near future and who could, by taking the examination under the county superintendent, be entitled to high school privileges after going to the country, free of tuition.

In the Central school there are about thirty eighth grade students, and in the Emerson school about twenty. These pupils will take the final examination next Monday and Tuesday and it is quite probable that all of them will graduate.

The names of those who took the examination under Miss Russell and passed are as follows: Hemingford: John Walker, Glea Wiltsey, Ruth Wildy, Lucile Huss, John Sanford Salling, D. W. Pierce, Margaret Uhrig, John Robert Addy, Adrian Clark and Leo Walker.

St. Agnes Academy: Clinton Brennan, Florence Brennan, Anastasia Glenn, Lorette Hodgkinson, Mary Herman, May Hayes, Gertrude Hanley, Pearl Trabert, Mary McNulty, Esther Miller, Hazel Minor, D. J. Nelson, Agnes Newberry, Frances Pfisterer, Thos. Prichard, Marie Reeves, Florence Vine, Frances O'Connor and Anna Fremuth.

Alliance: Gordon, Curtis, Robert Macy, Ralph U. Smith, Abraham Barger, Madeline Zediker, Roda Rowley and George Vandervoort.

School districts over the county: 124, Sybil Hutchinson; 14, John Huske; 28, Minnie Nicot; 81, Olga Berkner and Ada Lock; 30, Olga Johnson; 13, Vivian Westlake, Vincan Westlake, Ed Nabb, Alice Harris, and Lizzie Mabin; 78, Rose Bauers; 123, Lessie Reeves; 117, Idol Peterson; 11, Bessie Riley; 2, Elton Harris and Sterling Harris; 45, Clarence Gahagan; 3, Vera Nason; 15, Grace Carr.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and uphold your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.
