NEW LICENSES ARE REFUSED TO THIRTEEN DIVES

Excise Commissioner Takes Action Under Amendment to Raines Law.

"PROBLEM IS SOLVED."

Ban Applies Equally to Proprietor and the Premises.

Thirteen dive-keepers of New York City were to-day turned down by Deputy State Excise Commissioner Moses M. McKee, under the recent amendments to the Raines law. They were all refused renewals of licenses because of their having been convicted of conducting disorderly houses upon their excise premises.

Three of the rejected Raines law hotel proprietors were henchmen of "Big Tim" Sullivan and conduct premises upon the Bowery. A fourth has a place in Chatham square. Two are located on Second avenue and two on Third avenue; one is in East Thirteenth street and another is in West Twenty-ninth street, just off Broadway. The remaining licenses refused are for places in East Ninth street, Jerome avenue and Sylvan place.

Ban on Premises, Too.

"I had no alternative under the law but to shut these dives up," declared Mr. McKee to an Evening World reporter at his office, No. 1 Madison avenue, "and I cannot but admit that it was somewhat of a pleasant duty. No proprietor of a Raines law hotel convicted of running a disorderly house can now get a license—and, even if he sells out to another man, the ban of the law remains against the premises.

"The Legislature has at last solved the Raines law problem. It behooves all holders of licenses from the State to protect them by running a clean place. Mark what I say, the enforcement of the amended law will greatly improve the tone of the so-called Raines law hotel. No liquor dealer is going to jeopardize his license by turning his premises into a disorderly house.

"Is Weeding Them Out."

"In all probability a great many more of the dive-keepers will be shocked when they get down here. I am weeding them out as they come. There has been a substantial falling off in the demand for licenses, and we are about 250 behind in applications so far. The lists will not be closed until the 5th of the month."

Included in the dives closed by the State is one on the lower east side, formerly operated by Scotty Lavelle. Another was the old premises of "Peg-Leg" Flynn, while a third was conducted by a former manager for "Suicide Hall" McGurk. Another closed dive was the premises of Jack Vigorette, a leader of the Italian quarter, who has a long police experience. "Suicide Hall," No. 293 Bowery, has for a number of years been operated as a Gospel mission.

WRIT FOR THAW FROM PITTSBURG REFUSED BY LANE

Westchester Sheriff Declines to Give Up Prisoner on Federal Court Order.

A new turn in the proceedings to get Harry K. Thaw to Pittsburg in the bankruptcy proceedings and out of the jurisdiction of the Westchester County authorities occurred to-day when Sheriff Charles M. Lane was served with a writ, signed by Judge R. W. Archbald, of Pittsburg, for the production of Thaw in Pittsburg immediately. Thaw is now locked up in the White Plains jail awaiting his hearing before Justice Mills at White Plains on Oct. 12, when it will be determined whether he is insane or not.

The writ which was served on Sheriff Lane by Attorney eMyers and Trustee Roger O'Mara in the bankruptcy proceedings was temporarily disobeyed under advice of Lawyer Harry R. Barrett, who represents the Sheriff. The writ was refused and the trustee announced that he would appear before Judge Archbald at Scranton and secure an attachment which will result in a warrant being issued for the arrest of Sheriff Lane.

"Then the Sheriff," said Lawyer Barrett, "will put in an answer to the attachment, and if the answer is overruled he will have to appear in Pittsburg."

It is said that a bitter fight will be made against taking Thaw out of the jurisdiction of the New York State authorities. The different proceedings in Thaw's fight for liberty are becoming complicated, and the prisoner is in a quandary as to where he will be taken next.
