FIRE OFFICIAL HELD IN $2,000 FOR EXTORTION

MacCarthaigh, Assistant Marshal, Accused by Candy Men After Blaze.

TOOK MARKED MONEY.

Manufacturers Complain to District-Attorney and Detectives Arrange Trap.

Assistant Fire Marshal Charles O. MacCarthaigh, who for a year has been in charge of Fire Department Investigations in the Bronx, was arraigned before Magistrate Droege in the Centre Street Court to-day and held in $2,000 bail on a charge of extortion. Bail was furnished and the case adjourned for a hearing on Monday.

MacCarthaigh was arrested yesterday by Detectives Flood and Rayens after a trap had been prepared for him, which, the detectives claim, he readily fell into. The complainants against him are K. Glankakos and D. Mackris, who manufacture candy at No. 2705 Third avenue.

A fire in the basement of the house damaged the candy factory two weeks ago, and there was another fire last Monday. The loss was about $1,000. According to the story the candy men told Assistant District-Attorney Krotel, MacCarthaigh demanded $50 from them, saying that without his certified report they could not get their insurance.

Consulted District-Attorney.

They allege they paid him $25 on Tuesday, saying it was all they had, and that they would pay him the other $25 yesterday. The Assistant District-Attorney was notified in the mean time and sent the detectives around with two marked $10 bills, which Glanakakos was told to give the Assistant Fire Marshal. MacCarthaigh came at 5 P. M. for the second $25, and the candy man told the Assistant District-Attorney this conversation took place:

"We have only $20 in the drawer," said Glanakakos, and he produced the two bills which the detectives had marked.

"Very well," replied the Assistant Marshal, "if that is all you are going to give me I am going to have you arrested to-night and you will be locked up. Besides you've got to answer this subpoena and come to Fire Headquarters in the morning."

Glanakakos then ransacked his cash drawer and produced a $2 bill and $3 in small change and handed the $25 to the Assistant Fire Marshal.

"That's all right now," said the Assistant Fire Marshal; "now I will mark you off of my books."

He took the subpoena back from the candy manufacturer, tore it up and put the pieces in his coat pocket. Then he produced a memorandum book and marked "O. K." opposite the entry "Fire at No. 2705 Third avenue."

He was about to leave the store when he suddenly turned around and said:

Got a Box of Candy, Too.

"Here, let me have a box of the best candy in your shop. I want that, too."

The candy was handed to him. He left the store, and as he did Rayens and Flood hurried across the street and arrested him. Rayens searched him and found the two marked $10 bills, also the torn subpoena.

The detectives took their prisoner to the District-Attorney's office and arraigned him before Mr. Krotel.

"All I have to say is that I am innocent of this charge," he said when asked if he wished to say anything.

Rayens and Flood then took their prisoner to Police Headquarters, where he was locked up.

DEAD MAN IN EAST RIVER.

One Eye Badly Blackened and the Police Will Investigate.

The body of an unidentified man, with one eye badly blackened, was picked up in the East River at the foot of Ninety-ninth street early to-day by Frederick Bouchert, the captain of the tug Charles A. Lawrence.

Bouchert had a line made fast to the body and towed it to the foot of East One Hundred and Second street, where there is a dock.

The man was apparently about twenty years old, weighed 155 pounds, was five feet eight inches tall, and his complexion and hair were fair. He wore black trousers, a black soft shirt, a white tie and black patent-leather shoes. The police are investigating.

ASKS ABOUT FRANCHISES.

Charter Revision Commission Puts It Up to Estimate Board.

The Charter Revision Commission to-day submitted these two questions to the Board of Estimate to-day:

"Should the provision with regard to tunnel roads providing for the grant of perpetual franchise be repealed?"

"Should the term of other grants be for a longer period than now provided for by the charter and the rapid transit law be changed, and, if so, for what period?"

These questions the Comptroller said were for the purpose of sounding public sentiment. He added that certain companies operating railroads would accept none but perpetual franchises.

The questions were referred to the chief engineer of the board for report.

BOYS CHARGED WITH THEFT.

School Teacher Who Lost Watch Has Two Pupils Arrested.

Charged with stealing their teacher's watch, Julius Klauber, twelve, of No. 161 South First Street, Williamsburg, and Vance Roach, eleven, of No. 315 Bedford avenue, are under arrest. The complainant is Miss Bertha Quinn, of No. 139 Hall street, a teacher in School No. 57, at South Fourth and Berry streets.

Miss Quinn lost her watch from her desk on Sept. 25 last while temporarily absent from her classroom. Unable to find any trace of it she reported the theft to Capt. Dooley of the Bedford avenue station.

Detectives put on the case were told to watch the Klauber and Roach boys, and yesterday learned enough to warrant their arrest. Both protested their innocence, but will be closely questioned to-day. The parents are indignant at their arrest.
