

The WEEK'S DOINGS

Try the new a la carte service at the Drake hotel.

Chase Feagins was in the city Monday on business.

Prof. G. M. Burns made a business trip to Marsland Monday.

Table de hote dinner served at the Drake. New Management.

E. T. Kibble returned Wednesday noon from a business trip west.

Mrs. H. G. Castle of Bingham has been visiting her sister in the city.

Fred Mollring and son made a trip to Lakeside the first of the week.

Mildred Pate went to Angora Monday for a visit with her grandmother.

Special Sunday dinner at the Drake. Fifty cents. Worth the money.

Fay Cross of Mitchell came over Saturday to spend a short time with friends.

Dr. Coppernoll of Coppernoll & Peterson was called to Edgemont Monday.

D. W. Butler, attorney, of Hemingford, spent Sunday with his family in Alliance.

C. O. Rosenberger of Hemingford was in the city on business Tuesday, coming down via auto.

Miss Alice Carlson returned Monday noon from Ellsworth, where she accompanied Mrs. Jack Berry.

W. R. Harper is down at his store again after being confined to his home by a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Real Estate, Loans and Insurance. F. E. REDDISH, Reddish Block. 15-1f-6727

Mrs. Parsons of Bridgeport, with her sister and daughters, arrived Saturday for a visit with Mrs. C. R. Wills.

Tom Poole of Crawford, well known western Nebraska traveling man, was in the city on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Was have moved into their home just recently purchased of Mr. Wilcox, on Laramie avenue.

Mrs. J. N. Andrews and daughter, Mrs. W. T. Schlupp, came in Friday noon from their vacation spent at Mystic, S. D.

John McCoy, M. D. Offices and Hospital Reddish Block Telephone 81

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Norton and Mr. and Mrs. James Hunter and son James left Sunday morning via auto for Yellowstone National Park.

Mrs. J. W. Bicknell left today noon for Seward, Nebr., where she will visit relatives and friends. Seward is Mrs. Bicknell's old home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dubuque left Sunday for a trip by auto thru the Black Hills. Mr. and Mrs. DuBuque expect to be gone about two weeks.

W. D. Rumer made a business trip to Oshkosh last week, via auto.

Eat at the Drake dining room. Meals that satisfy.

The two-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tiller is seriously ill this week.

Mrs. George Read is back from Ida Grove, Iowa, after a stay there of three months.

Rev. H. J. Young made a business trip to Chadron Friday, returning Saturday noon.

Prof. and Mrs. G. M. Burns made a trip to Fort Laramie, Wyo., the last of the week.

Misses Barbara Tomsik and Agnes Schrader of Atkinson, Nebr., visited with Mrs. Oscar O'Bannon last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Dickinson, of Gering, at Alliance, a baby girl, Wretha Erdine, weighing eight pounds. Mother and baby are doing fine.

Mrs. R. G. Hickson of Montana, a sister of Mrs. Covert, left Monday for Mason, Nebr., to visit with relatives. She spent a week with Mrs. Covert at Alliance.

Miss Eugenia Gilmore, sister of Mrs. F. M. Seidell, returned to her home at Grand Island Monday after a visit with her relatives in this end of the state.

The little daughters of Mrs. Nellie Wilson left Sunday for Bridgeport, where they will visit a short time with their aunt, Mrs. Jack Mann, on their ranch.

Mrs. W. W. Wood and daughter left Monday for Los Angeles, where they expect to spend the winter. They have visited Alliance several times this summer.

Mrs. Ivan Rodgers and son Forrest arrived Tuesday morning from Sheridan to spend some time visiting Mrs. Rodgers, parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kibble.

One of the prettiest flower gardens in Alliance is that grown by Mrs. Oscar O'Bannon. Mrs. O'Bannon has raised a large variety of beautiful flowers this year.

Miss Mary Regan left Sunday noon for Chicago, where she will purchase her fall stock of millinery and merchandise. Miss Regan was accompanied by Miss Mae Newberry.

Mrs. W. J. Crawford and daughter of Bostwick, Nebr., visited on Friday with Mrs. Cal Cox. They went from Alliance to Hemingford for a visit with Mrs. Dr. Moravek.

The Rebekah lodge will hold an ice cream social Saturday evening on the lawn of the Methodist parsonage at the corner of Fourth and Box Butte avenues. Everyone invited.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Smith returned from Denver Sunday night. Mrs. Smith had been over spending the week with relatives, and Mr. Smith went over Saturday to return with her.

Capt. Stephen Olop, government supervising engineer, in charge of the supervision of construction of the new federal building, has been provided an office in the opera house

Lock.

Clifford Lester, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lester, is suffering from a broken shoulder blade. Clifford was riding his little pony Tuesday morning when he fell from the horse.

Mr. and Mrs. William Niemann moved into their new home on Box Butte avenue, Monday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Niemann have a very fine new six-room modern home, just finished.

Mrs. W. W. Wood and daughter Wilma came up from Lincoln Friday to visit friends in Alliance, leaving Monday morning for Rushville, where Mrs. Wood will attend to business matters.

Miss Eva Sherdeman, teacher of German and Latin in the high school, has resigned her position here to accept a similar position in the high school at Salt Lake City, where her parents live.

G. L. Horr arrived from Denver the first of the week to accept a position with the George D. Darling store in charge of the Edison department. Mr. Horr is an experienced Edison man.

Attorney R. E. Grinstead of Lincoln was in the city the first of the week on professional business. Mr. Grinstead was one of the attorneys representing heirs in the settlement of the Wilson estate.

F. E. Stearns and son of Scottsbluff stopped over in the city Wednesday. Mr. Stearns was formerly in business in Alliance. He is a member of the state legislature and is a candidate for re-election from his district this fall.

J. G. Allen of Aurora, former newspaper man, was in the city Wednesday in the interests of Hon. Samuel H. Sedgwick, of York, candidate for re-election as a judge of the state supreme court. Mr. Allen went from here to Scottsbluff.

M. W. Pauling, who ran a threshing outfit in Box Butte county last fall and who spent the winter and spring in Lexington, Mo., returned last week with his brother, John Pauling. They will run a threshing outfit again here this fall.

Society Col.

A chicken pie social will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. I. Lorance, August 25, the proceeds to go to the cemetery fund. Everybody welcome.

Mrs. W. E. Spencer delightfully entertained at a 7 o'clock dinner Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Edward Shane, of Junction City, Kans. The table and home were beautifully decorated with sweet peas. Mrs. Shane has been a guest at the Spencer home for the past week.

The Christian Endeavor of the First Presbyterian church entertained for all the young people of their church that expect to go away to school this fall, on the lawn of W. E. Spencer. There were about twenty young people who enjoyed the evening. A picnic supper was served on the lawn.

Mrs. Carl Thomas entertained a number of young ladies Monday night in honor of Miss Ada Hawkins of St. Joseph, Mo. The guests were all taken to the Imperial theatre, and after the theatre were taken to the home of Mrs. Thomas, where a delicious two-course luncheon was served. The guests were Misses Laura Mounts, Hattie Renswold, Mabel Worley, Ruth Rice, Mae Graham and Alta Young.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church very pleasantly sur-

The Fashion Shop THE STYLE CENTER

WAISTS. at 65 Cents on the DOLLAR

In accordance with the telegram published in The Herald last week from Mr. A. G. Isaacson, proprietor of The Fashion Shop, we are pleased to announce the purchase of

63 Dozen Ladies Waists from Sherr Brothers, New York

These waists were purchased by Mr. Isaacson at 65c on the dollar. We are going to give the ladies of Alliance and vicinity the benefit of this tremendous saving by selling these waists at 65 per cent of what they would cost at ordinary prices.

The materials in this line consists of Georgette crepe, crepe de chene, tub silks, Chinese silks, lingerie, voiles, etc.

Styles are up to the minute in this line. It will pay you to take advantage of this immense saving. We invite you to call at once and see the goods, which are now on display at this store.

Our fall goods are arriving daily and stock will be ready in from a week to ten days. Inasmuch as we have no left-overs from last year we are not now making a fall display but will show all new goods.

The Fashion Shop

The Style Center

prised Mr. and Mrs. J. Carl Thomas, last Friday evening. About thirty-five of the League members met together and went in a body to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, and completely surprised the young couple. They were entertained with music and games for a short time and then had light refreshments. The young people presented Mr. and Mrs. Thomas with a beautiful painted picture in appreciation of their faithful work in the League for the past several years. Carl Thomas has been treasurer for several years, and has been acting as president for the past year. Mrs. Thomas has been holding the office of fourth vice president.

Erickson-Reddish Marriage
Miss Gail Irene Erickson of Lead,

South Dakota, was married Wednesday evening, August 9, to Mr. Howard E. Reddish of Alliance, at Christ church in Lead. The ceremony was solemnized at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening by Rev. Wm. Carson Shaw of Alliance, assisted by Rev. Roland O. Mackintosh, rector of Christ's church.

The church was beautifully decorated, the chancel and altar being decorated with roses and sweet peas. The bride carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was attired in a gown of old lace, over accordin pleated Georgette crepe, with an overdress of white chiffon.

Miss Edith Reddish, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. Robert E. Reddish of Alliance, a brother of the groom, was best man. Fred Carlson and Herbert Butler of Alliance were ushers. A reception was tendered the friends and relatives at the home of the bride following the ceremony. The couple returned to Alliance yesterday after a brief honeymoon spent in Colorado.

Mrs. Reddish was one of the most popular young ladies in Lead society. Mr. Reddish is an Alliance boy and has a host of friends in this city, who welcome them.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Reynolds have rented a cabin at Mystic, So. Dak., and will leave with Mr. Reynolds' mother, Mrs. H. C. Reynolds, and Mrs. C. H. Hinkhouse, Sunday morning to spend a week or ten days camping.

Suits for Early Fall Wear have Arrived and they are very stylish $20 and $25 SPECIALS

Gage Felts--Early Fall Hats for Ladies, 100 different colors, hundreds of hats to select from. Get yours early. $2.50, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00

W. R. Harper Dep't Store

War Horses Wanted!

We will Hold an Italian Inspection at Alliance Stock Yards

TUESDAY, AUG. 22

Will Pay $135 for Accepted Horses

Will Take 4-year Olds

All horses must be well halter broke and stand 15 hands high

If you have any horses bring them in while the selling is good

For any information phone 104 or wire.

C. L. LESTER & CO.