CIRCULAR.

INDIANAPOLIS April 15th 1853.

Sir:—By reference to sec. 102, chap. 6, Revised Statutes of 1852, vol. 1, page 130, you will perceive that it is made your duty to call upon every delinquent tax payer, either in person or by deputy, in your county, and collect the taxes that may be returned delinquent for the year 1852, or any previous years, and if necessary to distrain property for the collection of such delinquent taxes, with penalty, interests and costs.

To enable you to do so, your County Auditor will be instructed to make out for you, forthwith, a certified copy of your delinquent lists.

In making levies for taxes, no property is exempt. Should the property fail to sell at the residence of the owner, you have the right to remove and offer it at any other point within the county.

Recollect that a failure upon your part to comply with the law, in this respect, will make you personally responsible for the Taxes.

In due time I will give you instructions where and when to deposite the money thus collected.

I am, very respectfully,
Your ob't. servant,
E. NEWLAND,
Treas. of State.

To the Treasurer of Marshall county.

Notice To Delinquents.

IN obedience to the law recited in the foregoing Circular, it becomes my duty to enforce the collection of all delinquent taxes.—Therefore all concerned will take notice, that said law will be strictly enforced.
