

IF YOU ARE GOING
TO ORDER C-O-A-L
DO IT NOW!

Don't do as so many have done in the past—possibly you included—and wait until the last piece of coal is gone and a real cold spell is upon us and then expect the coal man to deliver your order in ten minutes. Remember there are probably hundreds of others in the same boat with you.

ORDER YOUR COAL SUPPLY NOW—HAVE IT IN YOUR BIN FOR THE COLD WINTER—WE CAN SERVE YOU BETTER NOW.

There is always a possibility that the supply will run low before new shipments arrive during the winter. A snow blockade, a car shortage, a strike of miners, etc., may cause serious difficulty. It costs no more to be prepared.

WE WILL SELL YOU COAL ANYTIME—

But we do earnestly ask you to think and be prepared.

WE'VE GOT COAL TO SELL—LOTS OF IT—ANY IND YOU WANT—BOTH NUT AND LUMP.

Lloyd's Column

One of our friends who is pretty well acquainted with political conditions in Alliance and the newspaper business, also, sends us the following for publication:

"What will the News, the little News Do when the state is rid of booze?
It must be awful hard to see Their main support way up a tree.
But then you know no one can tell, Perhaps they'll stay and juts raise h—l.
And drink that grand old drink we all will know—
A bottle of ice cold Bevo, Bevo."

Type for War Munitions

WANTED for munitions—Dross and old printing materials for the manufacture of shrapnel bullets.
Send stereos, type, furniture, etc., to Fry's metal foundry, 25-30 Holland street, Blackfriars, London, S. E., and have the satisfaction of knowing that it is being put to such useful purpose. Full market prices paid.
—This advertisement appeared in the British Trade Journal.

There're many million who to death have passed,
The pray to gas poison, sword and Krupp,
But at the latest tale we stand aghast—They're using type to shoot each other up.

Just picture as the vicious war dog barks, Those soldiers falling, shot with stugs and elads,
Or punctured full of punctuation marks,
Or maybe pica bold newspaper heads.

If shot with "Gott strafe England" set in Pabst
A British sentry sure would feel regret,
So Turks would feel hit with Italic caps,
Or Serbs shot with a Bulgar alphabet.

If potted with Old English lower case An Austrian would miserably die, So would a Russian shot with German face,
Or a Frenchman hit with Turkish ten-point pi.

A man might kill his dearest friend in fun Through "typographical error" in his aim,
He might in haste pick out a wrong-font gun
And by bad distribution spoil the game.

Then picture, when the cannons roar has ceased,

The needy printer, wrapped in grief and woe Out picking sorts from hides of the deceased—War's just what Sherman called it years ago.
—From the American Printer.

Obedy
"Arthur Smith," said the teacher, impatiently, "what is it you are fidgeting with?"
Although the lad colored up, he did not reply. The class "squealer" however, was ready, as usual, with full information.
"It's a pin he's got," he said triumphantly.
"Take it away from him and bring it here," said the instructor. The offending pin was taken to her, and there was no more trouble from Arthur. Presently it was the youngster's turn to read, but instead of standing up as the other students had done, he sat still and looked frightened.
"Well, why don't you proceed with the reading?" exclaimed the teacher.
"If you misbehave any more, I shall make an example of you."
"Please, teacher," stammered little Arthur, "I can't stand up, 'cause the pin you took keeps my pants up."

Betty and Her Daddy It's two in the morning and the house is cold. Out of the darkness comes a cry: "Daddie! Daddie! Oh, Daddie!"
And Daddie is up. He doesn't mind the cold if the little hand that pats him is warm.
That was ten years ago—happy, short years, working for the baby and her mother.
It is two in the morning again—and out of an awful darkness comes the cry: "Daddie! Daddie! Oh, Dad-die!"
But Daddie will never jump up again—and he doesn't know that Betty's hands are warm over his cold ones.
It's two years later and the little cash balance is gone. Mother is a forewoman in an overall factory.
Betty is a cash girl. She will be an uneducated woman. "Daddy" and mother had planned college and a happy life for her.
The cash balance would have paid for an income for life for wife and daughter.
Go, story from life, and save other fathers from making the same economic mistake.—Benj. Bradford.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney

CORN SHOW JAN. 15 TO 20 A corn show is to be one of the big features of Organized Agriculture Week at the University Farm, Lincoln, January 15 to 20, when twenty-eight agricultural societies meet simultaneously for annual sessions. The corn show is to be held in connection with the apple, flower and potato show, both occupying the city auditorium. The home economics association is arranging to have an exhibit at the university farm campus.
Special attention is to be paid to Nebraska youngsters who are growing corn. Separate classes will be provided for boys who have grown their corn without help from adults, and for boys who personally and independently select the ears they wish to enter from corn grown on land operated by a relative, entries being limited to boys from 10 to 18 years of age inclusive.

DO "RED BEDS" OF WYOMING
CONTAIN POTASH SALTS?
The Embar formation of Wyoming is known chiefly for its extensive phosphate beds, which are supposed to have been derived in some manner from animal remains. The rocks contain abundant fossils, many of which are phosphatic, and all of which prove that the Embar beds of western Wyoming were deposited in the sea. Recent study of the eastward extension of the Embar formation in Wyoming shows that along the east margin of this ancient sea, or throughout the Bighorn Mountain region, the climate was probably more arid than that of any part of Wyoming today. By long evaporation beds of gypsum were deposited at some places in arms of this sea to a thickness as great as 100 feet. It is a question of practical importance whether beds of salt, and perhaps of potash salt, may also have been deposited in this formation and whether they may now be found below the surface. The United States geological Survey, Department of the Interior, urges that oil men, in drilling through the Chugwater and Embar red beds in Wyoming collect samples of drillings and brines and submit them to the Survey for examination as to their possible potash content.
A paper by D. Dale Condit, describing the relations of the Embar and Chugwater formations in central Wyoming, and designated Professional Paper 98-O, may be obtained on application to the Director of the U. S. Geological Survey.

learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtain-

INTEREST IN FARM LOAN ACT Farmers everywhere in Nebraska and especially in the western half of the state are showing a keen interest in the new federal farm loan act.
The new law offers cheap money on long time, which will place the borrower in western Nebraska on a par with farmer friends farther east.
Up to the present, the farmer in the sand hills country has been compelled to pay high rates of interest tho the returns on money invested in land in western Nebraska yields about the same return as equal capital in eastern Nebraska lands. With the same security, therefore, the western farmer is quite as good a risk, and should not pay a higher rate of interest.
Tho no money can be borrowed until the system is in full operation, which will probably be in February, farmers are already working out preliminaries for formation of loan associations so that they will be ready to take advantage of the cheap money as soon as it is available. A farmer who desires a loan must make application in writing to the federal land bank of the district in which his prospective association is to be located. As soon as ten or more applicants desire loans totaling at least $20,000 a local farm loan association can then be formed.
Further information and application blanks for loans may be secured from the agricultural extension service of the University of Nebraska.
Whenever possible, the service will furnish speakers to explain the working of the new act.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR,
LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens
So Naturally that Nobody can tell.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly, that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite to impart color and a youthful appearance to the hair. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Already much interest is manifested by farmers of this section in the federal Farm Loan act. At Gordon an association has been formed and waiting the blanks from the Washington office. This is a good plan as the associations will receive recognition in order in which the applications are received. The county agent will meet with any group of men where an organization is desired.
If any desire to form an association, let the county agent know and he will be glad to assist in the organization.

DRINK MORE WATER
IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble—Neutralizes acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.
When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly.
At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.
Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Your Future Depends on Yourself

FEW YEARS HENCE, THEN WHAT? Will you still be an untrained, underpaid worker, or will you be a specialist in your chosen line where you can earn more in one day than the untrained man earns in many days? Your future depends on yourself. You must decide now. The way to avoid the hard road of disappointment and failure is to get the special training that will demand attention and a better salary from the man higher up. Are you interested enough in yourself to learn how the National Business Training School of Sioux City can fit you for a better job? No matter how little you earn or what your previous education has been, we will show you the way to better pay and more attractive work. Remember that every Monday is
