Smith-Slavin Fight.

It Occurs Near Burges, England.

A VERY DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR.

The Ring Broken Into and the Fight Stopped While the Referee Declares it a Draw—Some Very Severe Criticisms on the Event—Other Dispatches From Abroad.

BRUGES, Dec. 24.—Jem Smith and Frank Slavin fought on private grounds three miles from here yesterday morning. The friends of both parties squabbled from the outset. The Smith party seemed inclined to prevent a meeting, and placed every obstacle they could in the way of bringing the men together.

At the ring side the proceedings were disgraceful, and the ring was broken into. The referee said it was impossible to obtain fair play, and declared the fight a draw. Slavin showed the effects of his punishment but little at the end of the contest, and was as full of fight as he was at the start.

Emperor William All Right.

BERLIN, Dec. 24.—It is announced that Emperor William has completely recovered from his illness of last week. He has created the Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar general oberst of cavalry, in recognition of that general's military jubilee.

Dom Pedro Leaves Lisbon.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Dom Pedro and the ex-Empress of Brazil Sunday bade farewell to Lisbon and the queen and dowager queen and started for Coimbra. The Duke of Operto and a number of Brazilians witnessed their departure. The ex-empress was deeply moved.

Cutting Off His Allowance.

The news of the provisional government's action in issuing a decree suppressing the allowance to the ex-emperor, and forbidding the return of the imperial family to Brazil has been withheld from Dom Pedro by the advice of his physicians. The decree, besides suppressing his allowances, orders the confiscation of his property, and forbids the return of the imperial family to Brazil for two years.

The Brazilian legation here announces that the illness of President Da Fonseca is not serious.

Bankers and Merchants Uneasy.

Uneasiness prevails among bankers and merchants of Lisbon, because of the evident untrustworthiness of advices from Brazil. Private cablegrams received in cipher via the west coast and London quote a different figure for exchange from that allowed to pass the censorship at Rio for direct cabling to Lisbon. It is thus difficult to calculate a basis for commercial transactions, and the actual situation in Brazil is left in uncertainty.

THE MOZAMBIQUE TROUBLE.

Serpa Pinto's Fight With the Makololos Confirmed.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—Dispatches from Quillimane, under date of Nov. 12, confirm the report made by Engineer Castellos to the colonial minister of the encounter with the Makololos. The dispatches say, also, that the natives made an unprovoked attack upon the camp at Munassa, and that Castellos, after a stubborn resistence, defeated them and occupied the country. It was reported that the British missionaries at Blantic instigated the Makololos.

Maj. Serpa Pinto conferred with the governor of Mozambique, and afterwards proceeded with the gunboat Quanza to Quillimane, going thence to Mopa. A fortnight later news was received that the natives were massed on the Zambesi, and were advancing in the direction of the Shire river. Serpa Pinto sent his scientific instruments to the coast for safety, and placed Costellos, Engineer Themudi and Lieut. Contino in command of the Portuguese and native troops, Contino also directing the movements of the three steamers armed with guns and manned by Portuguese sailors.

The latest news to Oct. 29 was that Pinto had sufficient stores to last three months, and that there was great activity in the camp. Pinto was suffering from Malaria. He expected to be able to subdue the Makololos by December, and to return to Lisbon.

The Spanish press, commenting upon the Serpa Pinto incident, criticise Portugal for not having sought commercial and social union with Spain, instead of courting British favor. She is now in danger of being left without friends or allies.

Emperor William Better.

BERLIN, Dec. 24.—It was announced Sunday that Emperor William had completely recovered from his illness of last week. He has created the Grand Duke of Saxe Weimar general oberst of cavalry in recognition of that general's military jubilee.

Moussa Bey's Case.

LONDON, Dec. 24.—The British government has asked the Turkish government for copies of the court records of the trial of Moussa Bey, presumably with the intention of instituting an inquiry into the case.

Not Safe to Move Emin.

ZANZIBAR, Dec. 24.—The physicians attending Emin Pasha say it will not be safe to move him from Bagamoyo for three weeks. He is slowly recovering from the effects of his fall.

Tragedy Between School Boys.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 24.—Two boys, Hugh Lawson and Lewis Keenbler, aged respectively 13 and 14 years, while at play during school recess, at a point in Livingston county, Ky., just opposite Golconda, Ill., had a scuffle over a ball, and the former plunged a pocket knife into the neck of the latter, severing the jugular vein and killing him almost instantly. Young Lawson was taken to Smithland, Ky., and lodged in jail. Both boys belong to the best families in Livingston county

Taylor A. Luman, who is attending college at Millersburg, returned home Friday to spend the holidays.

W. L. King surprised his acquaintances and relatives here by returning home Saturday, after an absence of eighteen months.

Miss Houston, of this place, and Mr. Thomas, of Texas, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock Monday at 2 p. m., at the Christian Church, by Rev. Morrison, in the presence of a large audience.

The school entertainment given by Prof. Lowe Friday night at the M. E. Church was in every sense of the word a big success. The house was well filled by an orderly, well-behaved audience, who were highly entertained by the splendid programme. The singing of Miss Ada Humphrey and a recitation by Mrs. Lowe were especially noticeable. The "Backwoods School," the "Elopement to Aberdeen" and the "Jimtown Lyceum" also came in for their share of the applause, and the tableau, "Sweet Hour of Prayer," and the "Allegory of States" were just grand. "The Seasons," by Misses Linna Turner, Maude Muse, Minnie Luman and Nannie Foxworthy was well rendered, as was also "Our Holidays," by Messrs. Charles Cook and Johnnie Morrison, Misses Ella Wallingford and Linna Turner. We desire to congratulate Prof. Lowe on his success, and hope at the next entertainment he may have a larger audience.

Wisconsin is credited with 1,031 creameries and cheese factories.
