L. E. Ballinger, well known Bingham stockman, was in the city on Friday of last week on business.

Martin King on Tuesday finished the deal for the sale of his 2,300 acre tract of land near Angola. The sale price was $12.50 per acre. Martin will no devote all of his time to the auto firm of King & Smith, local Hudson agents.

Born on Monday, October 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Thomas, a seven-pound boy, named Philip Edward.

R. M. Hampton, the Alliance banker, just "plays in luck" all the time. Mr. Hampton bought 206 head of cattle in April from Gene Hall for $65 per head. He gave $5.00 per head to Mr. Hall to keep and pasture them during the summer. On Saturday Mr. Hampton sold the cattle for $86 per head, a clear profit of $16 per head. He never had seen the cattle from the time he purchased them until they were sold and didn't lose a head.

Fred Johnson, who was employed by W. O. Barnes in the jewelry business at Alliance fifteen years ago, was in the city Sunday visiting old friends. Johnson is still an "alarm clock jeweler."

Seven hundred and sixty-three carloads of cattle passed through the Alliance yards during the twenty-four hour period between 12 o'clock Friday night and 12 o'clock Saturday night. During the first twenty-seven days in September of 1916 a total of 2,740 carloads passed through Ravenna. During the same period in 1917 a total of 3,180 cars passed through the same yards.

B. F. Lockwood of Sidney, formerly of Alliance, was in the city Saturday visiting old friends. Mr. Lockwood is proprietor of the Sidney hotel. His son, Guy, and family were his hosts while here.

Simon Spry says that Omaha isn't the same old town any more and that a fellow who goes down there has the dickens of a time finding any of the boys, because he don't know where to look for them. In the old days, before May 1st, they were easy to find because each one had his particular haunts and a place before the mahogany. But now things are changed and you have to know what particular brand of soft drink each fellow likes before you will know where to locate him.

Tom Miskimmon of Egin, Neb., an old friend of F. F. Stephens, the baker, bought 320 acres of Box Butte county land near Berea last week. Mr. Miskimmon will move onto the land in time to farm it next year and will make a valuable addition to the farming community of the county.

Jack True, representative of the Lexington Six automobile, sold a new car this week to Joe Caba of Hemingford. Jack is expecting a carload of the newest autos the latter part of this week. He is receiving a fine business for this popular car, which is daily making many friends.

The baby daughter of Rodney Eldred, aged one week, died on Sunday. The body was shipped to Kearney for burial.

J. B. Ross of Denver, prominent operator in the Salt Creek oil fields of Wyoming, who is becoming interested in the western Nebraska potash fields, was in the city on Tuesday. He left for Pittsburg and New York City Tuesday noon, expecting to return to Alliance the end of the week.

Sam Graham was down from Hemingford on business Thursday.

Burr Taft, representing the Norfolk Canning factory, was in the city the first of the week for the purpose of contracting for the entire bean crop of Box Butte county for the year. The Norfolk factory has a large output. Mr. Taft also visited Hemingford and other sections of the county.

C. U. Carpenter has on exhibition in his carpenter shop a monster horned owl which was captured by the son of George Clark on the latter's ranch. The owl is a big fellow and something very unusual in this section of the state. It is for sale.

Joe Smith, the new proprietor of the billiard parlor in the Reddish block, left Sunday night for Denver to purchase new equipment. Joe expects to serve lunches, ice cream, candy and cigars. The billiard parlor was re-papered and re-painted this week, placing it in fine condition.

J. O. Walker is now in charge of the Antioch State Bank and the new bank is already under way. It is closely associated with the First State Bank of Alliance.

Miss Grace Luther, a former Alliance girl, is now a graduate nurse, according to advices received here by friends of Miss Luther. She received her diploma from Wise Memorial hospital at Omaha.

Lowry & Henry last week secured title to three lots on West Third street, purchased from Mrs. Christina Fox, the consideration being in the neighborhood of $3,000. Lowry & Henry will erect a new garage on the lots that will, it is said, be one of the most complete garages in western Nebraska. Work will start on the new garage as soon as the material can be secured and the ground broke.

John Moravak and son, Charles, of the Canton neighborhood were in Alliance the last of the week attending to business matters.

Dr. J. J. Jeffrey went to Lexington, Nebraska, the last of the week to get his car, which he was compelled to leave there on his return trip from Davenport, Iowa, a short time ago on account of the condition of the roads.

Lincoln Lowry attended the fair at Crawford last week and visited a number of western Nebraska towns on business connected with his firm.

D. J. Pollock, a popular stockman of Scottsbluff, was in Alliance Friday on business.

Tom Lynch, an Omaha attorney, was in the city the last of the week attending to legal business.

Mrs. J. V. Anderson and son, of Guernsey, Wyoming, have been visiting at the W. O. Marcy home the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Albright of Long Pine are the parents of a baby girl born on Thursday.

Mrs. J. E. Rice visited her husband at Omaha the past week. Mr. Rice is in a hospital there, but is very much improved and expects to return home this week.

E. J. Malone, a Burlington brakeman, has resigned and has joined the regular army.

County Clerk W. C. Mounts and Mrs. Mounts, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Laing, the past week have been enjoying an automobile trip through Rocky Mountain National Park in Colorado. The county clerk welcomes the opportunity of taking a short vacation from his duties. He has been some busy this spring and summer as much of the work in connection with the registration and examination and certification of men under the draft has fallen upon his shoulders in addition to his regular official duties.

Mrs. C. O. Davenport and daughter, Miss Cynthia, left last week for California for an extended visit with relatives.

J. H. Show of Omaha was in the city Thursday on business connected with the Potash Reduction Company of Hoffland and also on business in connection with the roads east of Alliance.

Jess Miller, proprietor of the Alliance Hotel, has purchased a new Jackson "Eight" touring car from the western distributors, The Rumer Motor Co.

The Rumer Motor Company the past week sold a new Crow-Elk-Hart car to M. J. Comas of Antioch. Mr. Comas drove the car home.

Ray Stansberry is wearing the smile that will not come off. The cause is the arrival of a baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stansberry. The young lady has been named Mary Ellen.

James E. Walker is now located at Great Falls, Montana, as clean agent for the Great Northern. Mrs. Walker expects to move the household goods to Great Falls in about two weeks. She is at the present time enjoying a visit at the home of her mother.

Walter Vogel, a rancher living west of Alliance, is recovering from a fracture of the leg sustained on Thursday when the horse he was riding stepped into a gopher hole, fell

THE FLAG

By Arthur Macy

Here comes the flag.
Hail it!
Who dares to drag
Or trail it?
Give it hurrahs—
Three for the stars,
Three for the bars.
Uncover your head to it!
The soldiers who tread to it
Shout at the sight of it,
The justice and right of it,
The unsullied white of it,
The blue and the red of it
And tyranny's dread of it!
Here comes the flag!
Cheer it!
Valley and crag
Shall hear it.
Fathers shall bless it,
Children care it,
All shall maintain it.
No one shall stain it.
Cheers for the sailors that fought on the wave for it,
Cheers for the soldiers that always were brave for it,
Tears for the men that went down to the grave for it.
Here comes the flag!
—Youth's Companion.

and rolled over on Vogel. His companion, Jacobs, summoned help and Vogel was taken to the home of his mother.

Miss Frazier of Chadron Normal school, was in Alliance Saturday in the interest of the extension work of Chadron Normal. She met a number of the teachers at the county superintendent's office in the court house on Saturday afternoon.

There was a large crowd in attendance at the C. L. Powell sale Friday afternoon. Mr. Powell, who has been engaged in the dairy business, determined when he found he could not get satisfactory labor for the operation of his dairy business, and as one son is attending the State University and the other was called to the National army, to sell off his dairy herd. Mr. Powell was reluctant to sell his business, but felt that he had no other choice. He stated to a Herald reporter that he would be willing to take the milk from some of his cows from now until next spring and at the end of that time he would be pleased to give the cow to the person caring for her. Col. H. P. Coursey did the selling at Friday's sale and, as usual, made things interesting in that vicinity for a while.

Miss Mary Regan and her mother left the last of the week for Lincoln where they will make their home. Their address is 1508 Garfield Ave. Miss Regan's sister, Mrs. Robert Harding, has been a resident of Lincoln for some time.

Dr. George J. Hand is acting city physician during the absence of the city physician, Dr. H. H. Bellwood, who left last week for Chicago, Ill., and Rochester, Minn., to attend a series of clinics.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, who were guests at the L. H. Mosher home here, have returned to their home at Farmington, Ill. They spent a week in Alliance and while this was their first trip to the west they enjoyed it all and expect to return for another visit at some future time. Before coming to Alliance they visited at Denver and Billings, besides making a number of side trips from those places.

All taxes now unpaid are delinquent and have been so since the first of the month. They will be advertised for sale the first of November. The office of the county treasurer has been a busy place so far this month and it is some job, so the treasurer says. The list of property to be advertised has been prepared and now whenever owners pay their taxes the treasurer scratches off the notation on the list of properties to be advertised.

Mrs. P. Van Graven and little daughter, Patricia, left last week for an indefinite stay at the home of Mrs. Van Graven's parents in the state of Washington. Her sister, Miss Eunice Overton, who arrived about a month ago, intending to spend the winter here, returned with her.

BUNS FOR DANCES, SALES, ETC. LUNCHES FOR SALES AND OTHER SPECIAL OCCASIONS PUT UP COMPLETE TO ORDER. FIGURE WITH US. STEPHEN'S BAKERY, 319 BOX BUTTE AVENUE. PHONE NO. 649.

The Charles Lods family was quarantined Monday noon at the home of Mrs. Belle Brown on unpaved Box Butte avenue on account of the illness of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lods with scarlet fever. Mr. Lods was allowed his liberty. He is a ranchman living some 20 miles northeast of Alliance.

L. F. Hulan was arrested recently for the violation of the traffic ordinance of the city, the specific charge being speeding. He was assessed a fine of $5 and costs, a total of $10.

The Police Magistrate suspended the fine during Hulan's observance of the speed law in Alliance. The Judge said he would keep up with the city council in this instance at least. Hulan is said to have made the statement that his car was too fast for Alliance's speed ordinance and that he didn't own slow-going cars.

The new paneled cards are the latest thing in engraved stationery. Your Alliance Herald offers you a wide assortment of designs and styles from which to select. Your old plate, if in good condition, can be used on the new paneled designs. Engraved Christmas cards may also be ordered here.

E. T. Kibble has purchased six quarter sections of land from William King. The land is located about nine miles west of town.

H. M. Bullock returned early in the week from a six weeks' stay at Pocatello, Idaho, where he had been looking after business affairs.

W. J. Bogard has resigned as chief clerk at the Burlington stock yards.

Mrs. Gus Larson is at Ravenna visiting friends.

F. E. Slussen and D. H. Fishborn of Grand Island and F. A. Bald of Central City have purchased the Andrew Olson place of 2,340 acres, located south and west of Hemingford.

Fred Johnson, who in 1903 was employed at the Barnes Jewelry Co., was in the city visiting with friends on Sunday. He now lives in Omaha.

Bert Duncan and Charles Howe made an auto trip to Gordon on Sunday.

On Monday a member of the United States Secret Service was in Alliance investigating the case of George Rothenberger who was fined $100 and costs by Judge Tash in the county court for desecrating the flag. Rothenberger's case was heard before the county court on the advice of the United States District Attorney. It seems that the case was called to the attention of the federal government with the result that a secret service agent visited Alliance. The agent left Alliance for the eastern part of the state, the home of Rothenberger.

E. I. Gregg, who has been ill, threatened with pneumonia, is reported to be somewhat better.

Calling cards for the ladies are printed promptly and neatly at The Herald office. The prices are reasonable. Phone 340 for samples and prices, or call at the office.

Dave and Tom Briggs and their families from near Antioch were in town on Monday on business concerning the leasing of certain lakes in that territory.

A. B. Wheeler is now back on the job firing for the Burlington. He had been off the job for some months due to illness with smallpox and complications. He made several trips to his old home at Lincoln during the time he was off.

Miss Grace Coleman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Coleman, who for some time past has been employed as a stenographer at the Government Experimental Farm at Ardmore, South Dakota, has returned and has resumed her studies at the York Business College.

Mrs. W. A. Coleman returned from York where she accompanied her daughter, Miss Grace Coleman, who is now attending business college there.

On Friday of this week Bayard will have a "Patriotic Flag Raising Day" and a general invitation has been extended to the people of Alliance and western Nebraska to attend. It is stated $1,000 has been expended for the entertainment, including an address by Hon. W. E. Andrews of Hastings. The Boys'

Band from Scottsbluff will supply the music. Joe Stecher, former world's champion, and Carl Schults of Sioux City will put on a wrestling match. A good time is assured to all who attend the celebration.

William Mitchell, acting as referee in the case involving the Gradner-Grant county line dispute, was at Hyannie and Oshkosh a part of last week taking testimony in the case. The testimony as taken down by Jerry Scott, district court reporter. The trouble dates back to the time of the division of the county and involves a strip of land about three miles wide.

Harry aGutz of this city has turned down an offer to act as one of the attorneys for the Federal Land Bank at Omaha, it is said. His business connections here are such that he was compelled to decline the offer extended to him.

Libby Grove of Crawford, was a week-end visitor here with her friend, Cyril Havlik. She returned to Crawford on Tuesday.

Cyril Havlik, who has been employed at The Right clothing store, left Tuesday noon for Crawford to spend the time from then until Friday with friends. He leaves on Friday with the Box Butte quota of drafted men for Camp Funston, Kansas.

The Wiker Music House has been doing a big business in Victor Victrolas the past week. They were almost sold out the first of the week and were compelled to wire Omaha head quarters for six new machines.

Mrs. B. U. Shepherd and Mrs. Mabel McClung of Hemingford were Alliance visitors on Sunday.

Mrs. William Buckman visited with relatives at Hemingford on Sunday.

William Clark and M. E. Hutton of Hemingford were in the city on business Saturday.

John Kinsella of Hemingford was a business caller in Alliance on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hollamakes of Hemingford were here the first of the week on a shopping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Diles Howell returned to their home at Bing on Saturday following their stay in this city.

The Bingham Red Cross auxiliary is busy making $100 worth of muslin into sheets and pillow cases. They are doing this while waiting for the receipt of supplies so they can start knitting operations.

Dr. L. W. Bowman was at Hay Springs Sunday night, having been called there on professional business. He returned to Alliance on Monday.

Joe Smith, who recently sold his cafe at 213 unpaved Box Butte avenue to Mr. Kidd, has purchased the Byers' billiard hall at the corner of unpaved Box Butte avenue and Second street and is now in possession of same. He is contemplating converting the place into a cafe and lunch room within a short time.

H. V. Deutcheiler, formerly employed on a ranch in the sand hills, but now living in Wyoming, was awarded the automobile by M. F. Nolan. Mr. Deutcheiler was the possessor of ticket No. K-71, which was the winning ticket at the Antioch celebration almost two weeks ago.

A number of Alliance people report having seen an aeroplane flying over the city early Friday evening. The belief is expressed that the machine was probably on a trial flight out of Denver.

The C. L. Lester Company is holding an inspection of war horses at the Burlington stock yards here today. The inspection started yesterday and continued over today. The horses are being purchased for the United States government. All grey horses must be fifteen hands and one inch high. Riders are bringing $130 and light gunners $160.
