District Chancery Court of the State of Mississippi at Holly Springs April Rules 1846

John Hubbard et al
vs.
Robert G. Ellis et al

UPON opening the matters of the Bill, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the heirs of David Boyd dec'd., defendants thereto, are unknown to the complainants, it is therefore ordered that unless, they appear before the Vice Chancellor, at the Court Room in the Town of Holly Springs, on the first Monday in July next, and plead answer or Demur to said Bill, the several allegations thereof, as to them will be taken for confessed, and such order and decree made therein, as shall seem reasonable and just.

And it is further ordered, that a copy of this order be inserted in the "Panola Lynx" News paper, published in the town of Panola, once a week for two months successively.

HANNIBAL HARRIS, Clerk.

ABSTRACT OF THE BILL.

The Bill charges: that said Boyd purchased lots, Nos. 10 11 & 12, in Block No. 2, in the town of Panola, Panola County, with money in his hands belonging to complainants, Hubbard and one William Morgan, since dec'd and took title in his own name; that since Boyd's death, said lots have been sold at Sheriff sale, as his property, to satisfy a judgment recovered against him, in his life time, (but which was not revived by scire facias) and purchased by Defendant Ellis, who thereupon took immediate possession, and has enjoyed the rents and proffits ever since; that Complainants, James & William Morgan, are the only heirs at law, of said William Morgan dec'd.

PRAYER. That the deed from the Sheriff to Ellis, be cancelled and held for naught; that he Ellis, account for rents and profits, that the legal title be conveyed to complainants and for general relief.

PENMANSHIP.

MR. DODGE would respectfully inform the inhabitants of Panola and vicinity that he will give a course of Lessons in this place on the Dolbear System as taught by them in New Orleans.

Now that penmanship is taught as a Science instead of being learned by imitation, there is a positive certainty that all persons may learn to write with ease, elegance and rapidity, any hand their fancy may select or business may demand.

Ladies are taught a neat, free, and graceful hand

Mr Dodge will be pleased to explain the subject, and exhibit specimens of improvement to all who may feel an interest in this subject.

For certificates and recommendations in favor of this method of teaching Mr. D. would refer to his printed circulars.

N. B. Mr Dodge guaranteis entire satisfaction to all who attend his course of lessons, and any person who may not write elegantly at the close of the Lessons are invited to continue on until they are perfectly satisfied.

THE ROVER.

Fourth volume commencing on the 21st of Sept. 1844.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE of Tales, Poetry, Legends,

WIT, RO ANCE AND ART,

Edited by SEBA SMITH, and published by S. B. DERN & Co. No 123 Fulton St., New York,

Without intending or wishing to disparage other works, the publishers plead guilty to the charge of attempting to make the Rover the best, the cheapest for the price, among the various periodicals of the country. Each weekly number contains sixteen large pages of beautifully printed choice matter, with a beautiful steel engraving, and is done up in a highly embellished illuminated cover, making two volumes a year, comprising 832 pages and 52 steel plates.

The work has now lived to an age to give it in some degree a character to speak for itself, and to warrant confidence in its stability. We prefer not to sound our own praises, but let our works, if they will praise us. We have labored hard to make a magazine for the great mass of the community, that should be the best that could possibly be offered for the price, combining amusement with instruction, disseminating a taste for the arts and encouraging a wholesome and elevated literature.

How far we have been successful in the attainment of these objects does not become us to say. That the Rover has been sustained by the public, through its infancy and up to the present time, although left to make its own way in the world without any extraneous aid or influence, is a recommendation of its character and an evidence of public sentiment in its favor, which makes us both gratified and grateful. Without any material change in the plan of the work we shall enter upon the fourth volume of the work with a steady purpose to sustain its interest and usefulness, and to embrace every opportunity to increase the value of the work.

TERMS.—Single copies three dollars a year; two copies for five dollars, and five copies for ten dollars. Post Masters are authorized by law to forward hscription money free of charge.
