HOW HIGHLANDERS WON.

Three hits in a row tallied one for the Highlanders. An error by Cree put Boston even, but Caldwell struck the side out before more damage was done.

Wolter's triple and Daniel's single accumulated a run in the sixth.

Caldwell pitched a heady game, with fair support.

(Special to The Evening World.)

AMERICAN LEAGUE GROUNDS, BOSTON, April 28.—The task that confronted Hal Chase to-day was to win the last game of the series and even up the result here. About 10,000 fans watched him go about it.

M'MANIGAL TAKES BACK CONFESSION IN DYNAMITE PLOT

Then He Makes Another One to the Prosecutor in Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, April 28, 1911.—Former Judge O. M. Hilton, chief counsel here in the defense of the McNamaras in the alleged dynamite plot, declared today that Ortie McManigal had vitiated his confession to Detective William J. Burns of complicity in the blowing up of the Los Angeles Times office and the killing of a score of persons. The lawyer says McManigal denied the confession in the presence of competent witnesses.

Mr. Hilton and his associate, Job Harriman, admit that McManigal did make a so-called confession, but they assert that it will be useless in a trial of the McNamaras.

It was made clear to-day that from this time forth Hilton and Harriman will not regard McManigal as one of the defendants, but will attack him as bitterly as any other State witness. Hilton declares that he hopes to prove that McManigal's statement was inspired solely by the hope of immunity and that the prisoner is prepared to swear away the lives of his two comrades to guarantee his own safety.

$21,000 FOR BOOK FROM HOE LIBRARY PAID BY CHICAGOAN

Walter M. Hill Gives Second Highest Price of Sale for Ancient Tome.

The second highest price for a book in the Hoe library sale was reached this afternoon when a book sold for $21,000. It was "Helyas Knight of the Swanne," the first printed English version of the legend of Lohengrin. It was printed in London in 1512 by Wynkyn de Worde.

Walter M. Hill of Chicago was the purchaser of the book, securing it after spirited bidding.

The Gutenberg Bible, which was sold last week for $50,000 to E. R. Huntington, holds first place for the highest price paid.

BROOK'N 5 PHILA. 0

HOW BROOKLYN WON.

In the first, with two out and two on bases, Wheat knocked the ball over the fence. A triple and two singles scored two runners for Brooklyn in the third. Bell held the Quakers well in hand, allowing only four hits.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, April 28.—Ideal weather for baseball greeted the Trolley Dodgers and Phillies when they began the fourth and final game of their series to-day. The sun rays were just hot enough to infuse new life into the Dodgers, and as a result they displayed plenty of ginger in their warming up stunt. Manager Dahlen was determined to win the game and put in Bell to do the twirling for his team.

Doolin trotted out one of his star hurling artists, big Rowan, to shoot them up to the Dodgers. About 3,000 fans were on hand when the tussle began.

First Inning.

Titus led off by smashing a liner over Zimmerman's head for a bag. Knabe sacrificed, Bergen throwing the ball to Daubert for the out. Lobert was retired by Tooley and Daubert, Titus sprinting to third. Magee raised a foul fly, which Zimmerman captured. NO RUNS.

Meyers fanned out weakly. Tooley also took three healthy swings at Rowan's benders. Daubert took a stroll to first on balls and stole second. Hummel walked. Wheat then set the fans wild by smashing one of Rowan's straight ones over the right-field fence for a home run, scoring Daubert and Hummel ahead of him. Coulson was thrown out at first by Doolan. THREE RUNS.

Second Inning.

Paskert was a victim on strikes. Luderus drove a grounder to Tooley, who threw him out in a hurry. Doolan line flied to Coulson. NO RUNS.

Zimmerman hoisted one to right centre, which Paskert grabbed after a run. Bergen hit a bounder straight into Rowan's hands and perished at first. Bell fanned. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Doolin sent a slow bumper to Tooley and died at first. Rowan let three curves cut the plate and then went to the bench. Titus's bounder was handled by Bell and Daubert. NO RUNS.

Meyers's terrific liner took a tad bound over Doolan's head and was good for a base. Tooley sacrificed, Luderus to Knabe. Daubert followed with a drive to the centre field bleachers for three bases, scoring Meyers. Hummel singled to right, scoring Daubert. Hummel stole second. Wheat flied to Titus, Hummel touching third on the out. Coulson went out, Rowan to Lobert to Luderus. TWO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Knabe was thrown out by Tooley. Hummel made a fine stop of Lobert's puzzling bounder and got his man by a fast throw to Daubert. Magee was disposed of by Tooley and Daubert. NO RUNS.

Zimmerman's foul fly was nailed by Doolin after a hard sprint. Bergen was easy for Doolan and Luderus. Bell struck out. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning

Paskert was put out of the way by Hummel to Daubert. Luderus singled to left. Doolan flied out to Meyers. Doolin singled to right, sending Luderus to second. Welchonce batted for Rowan and fanned out. NO RUNS.

Humphrey replaced Rowan in the box for Palladelphia. Meyers went out, Doolin to Luderus. Lobert and Luderus took care of Tooley's slow roller down the third base line. Daubert walked. Hummel was tossed out by Humphrey. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Titus bounced one to Bell, who got the ball to Daubert in time to retire the batter. Knabe pasted a grounder to Tooley. Lobert's pop-up was taken by Hummel. NO RUNS.

Wheat flied out to Luderus. Coulson walked. Zimmerman's fly near the plate was captured by Lobert. Bergen fouled out to Doolin. NO RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Magee went out, Tooley to Daubert. So did Paskert. Luderus's foul fly back of third was captured by Tooley. NO RUN.

Bell was hit with a pitched ball and went to third on Meyers's safe drive to right centre. Tooley fouled out to Lobert. Meyers was caught stealing second, Humphrey to Knabe, Daubert out. Lobert to Luderus. NO RUNS.

Eighth Inning.

Doolin put Tooley to Daubert. Doolin sent a sharpshooter to Wheat. Humphrey singled to centre. Titus fouled out to Bergen. NO RUNS.

Hummel's fly was smothered by Titus. Wheat singled to left. Coulson singled, sending Wheat to second. Zimmerman out, Knabe to Luderus. Bergen flied to Paskert. NO RUNS.

Ninth Inning.

Knabe out, Tooley to Daubert. Lobert out, Daubert unassisted. Magee out, Zimmerman to Daubert. NO RUNS.

FRANK WORK'S WILL FILED; NO OBJECTION MADE

Contains Conflicting Codicils Regarding Inheritance of Mrs. Burke-Roche.

The will of Frank Work, the eccentric millionaire horseman and high liver, who died at an advanced age a few weeks ago at his home, No. 13 East Twenty-sixth street, after a partial reconciliation with his daughter, Frances Burke-Roche, through a codicil—one of fifteen added to the strange document—disinherits her altogether because of her marriage in 1906 to Aurel Batonyi, from whom she has since been divorced.

The will was offered this afternoon for probate by Jk Henry Work, a nephew of the deceased, who is the attorney for the four executors and trustees under the will—Peter Cooper Hewitt, a son-in-law; Frank Sturgis and the other partners with Mr. Work in Strong, Sturgis & Co., Charles D. Chapman and C. C. Clark. W. M. K. Olcott, attorney for Mrs. Burke-Roche, was in court and waived all objections to the probate of the will.

Powers of Trustees.

From the will and codicils it appeared that the trustees have very large discretion in disposing of the funds committed to their care, and will be entitled to adjust all matters concerning the children and grandchildren in a manner satisfactory to all. The lack of objections was taken to mean that a full compromise had been agreed upon between the heirs and Mrs. Burke-Roche and her children.

The amount of the estate is not stated in the papers, but is assumed to be about $15,000,000.

The original will, executed June 5, 1901, provided an income of $70,000 a year for life for Mr. Work's daughters, but declared that no part of this money should be used for the benefit of James Burke-Roche. The residuary estate was left to the grandchildren on condition that Mrs. Burke-Roche's children change their name to Work.

Another codicil provides that Cynthia Roche, the beautiful young daughter of Mrs. Burke-Roche, shall not, under penalty of forfeiting her share in the estate, marry a foreigner, or any one other than a citizen of the United States. She, too, as in the case of the Roche boys, must change her name to Work and become a citizen of this country.

There were provisions for many servants with lump sums and annuities. There was a provision that a horse named Edward should be cared for by the trustees in consultation with David Bonner as long as Edward should live.

On July 24, 1906, the thirteenth codicil was added. It disinherited Mrs. Burke-Roche Batonyi on account of her second marriage. It was followed by a provision that should she separate from Batonyi and be in need the trustees should provide for her support. A fifteenth codicil forbade the grandchildren to give Batonyi any money or associate with him.

It was understood that Mrs. Burke-Roche and her children on the compromise agreement with the trustees and her relatives, has been assured that she is restored to the original intention of her father that she and her children should share proportionately with the other heirs. There was no hint of an agreement of the Burke-Roche young men to change their names as a part of the basis of the compromise.

GIANTS 3 BOSTON 9

HOW THE GIANTS LOST.

Boston bumped four runs out of a double, a triple, a double and three singles in the third. The long hits were lucky.

Becker batted for Ames in the third and scored on two bases on balls and Doyle's single.

Drucke replaced Ames in the fourth.

Clean hitting gave Boston two in the fifth.

Boston pounded Rudolph for two in the ninth.

BY BOZEMAN BULGER.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GROUNDS, April 28.—The warm summer weather and the chance of seeing Boston licked for the fourth time were responsible for 8,000 fans on the Hilltop this afternoon. The Giants are nursing the Highland mascot, and they were careful not to arouse any kind of sphinx that might be sleeping around the grounds. A win to-day meant eight straight victories on the borrowed grounds.

McGraw felt so lively that he sent Leon Ames, President of the Hoodoo Association, in to pitch. Tenney introduced two new players in the persons of Ingerton at third and Spratt in right. Tyler was then assigned the job of pitching.

It was the farewell game for the Giants until May 2, when they begin taking on the entire Western contingent.

First Inning.

Clarke struck out. Tenney was thrown out by Devlin and Herzog grounded out to Doyle. NO RUNS.

Devore was called out on strikes. Doyle also struck out. Snodgrass flied to Clarke. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Ingerton was safe on Bridwell's fumble. Goode struck out. Sweeney flied to Devore. Ingerton stole second, and on Doyle's muff of the throw went to third. Spratt struck out and retired the side. NO RUNS.

Murray lined out to Goode. Spratt made a one-handed catch of Merkle's line drive to right. Bridwell smashed a two-bagger into centre. Devlin lifted a high fly to Spratt. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Rariden singled to centre and Snodgrass kicked it into a two-bagger. Tyler sacrificed, Ames to Merkle, advancing Rariden to third. Devlin speared Clarke's grounder and apparently touched Rariden, but Umpire Doyle failed to see the play and called both runners safe. RAIN AT LEXINGTON.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 28.—Since early this morning drizzling rain has been falling here and the track as a result is in sloppy condition. This will make racing on the opening day of the Kentucky Association spring meeting slow even if the weather is clear by morning. Unless the track is in much better condition than it is now, it is stated that the three-year-old filly, Round the World, favorite in the Phoenix Hotel Handicap, will not start.
