No. 206] AN ACT.

For the Assessment and Taxation of all Property in this State, and for levying Taxes thereon according to its true value in money.

WHOM, WHERE, AND IN WHAT MANNER PROPERTY SHALL BE LISTED.

Sec. 4. Every person of full age and sound mind, not a married woman, shall list the real property of which he is the owner, situated in the county in which he resides, the personal property of which he is the owner, and all moneys in his possession; and he shall enlist all moneys invested, loaned or otherwise controlled by him, as agent or attorney, or on account of any other person or persons, company or corporation whatsoever; and all moneys deposited subject to his order, check or draft, and credits due from, or owing by any person or persons, body corporate or politic, whether in or out of such county. The property of every ward shall be listed by his guardian; of every minor child, idiot or lunatic having no other guardian, by his father, if living, if not, by his mother, if living, and if either father nor mother be living, by the person having such property in charge; of every wife by her husband, if of sound mind, not, by herself; of every person for whose benefit property is held in trust, by the trustee; of every estate of a deceased person, by the executor administrator or corporations whose assets are in the hands of receivers, by such receivers, of every company, firm, body politic or corporate, by the president or principal accounting officer, partner or agent thereof. Every person required to list property on behalf of others, by the provisions of this act shall list in the same township in which he would be required to list it, if such property were his own; but he shall list it separately from his own, specifying in each case the name of the person, estate, company or corporation, to whom it belongs; and all real property and merchants' and manufacturers' stock, and all the articles enumerated in the seventh section of this act, and all personal property upon farms and real property, not in use, shall be returned for taxation, and taxed in the township and town in which it is situated; and all other personal property, except such as is taxable for state purposes only, shall be entered for taxation in the township or town in which the person charged with the tax thereon resided, at the time a list thereof was taken by the assessor, if such person reside in the county where such property was listed; and if not, then such property shall be entered for taxation and taxed in the township where situated when listed, notwithstanding the foregoing instructions to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 5. Property held under a lease for a term exceeding fourteen years, belonging to the state, or to any religious, scientific or benevolent society, or institution, whether incorporated or unincorporated, and school and ministerial lands, shall be considered, for all purposes of taxation, as the property of the person holding the same, and shall be listed as such by such person or his agent as in other cases.

Sec. 6. Each person required by this act to list property, shall make out and deliver to the assessor, when required, or within ten days thereafter, a statement, verified by his oath or affirmation, of all the personal property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, in his possession, or under the control of such person, at the time notice was given him by the assessor, to make out such statement, and which, by the provisions of this act, he is required to list for taxation, either as owner or under thereof, or as guardian, parent, husband, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, accounting officer, partner, agent or factor.

Sec. 7. Such statement shall truly and distinctly set forth, first, the number of horses, and the value thereof; second, the number of neat cattle, and the value thereof; third, the number of mules and asses, and the value thereof; fourth, the number of sheep, and the value thereof; fifth, the number of hogs, and the value thereof; sixth, every species of carriage of whatsoever kind; and the value thereof; seventh, the total value of all other articles of personal property which such person is by this act required to list; provided, that if such person shall exhibit to the assessor the animals or other articles of personal property above enumerated, the value of such property so exhibited may be omitted in such statement, and the assessor shall in such cases determine their value without requiring the oath of the person making such statement as to the value thereof, and such person shall in that case be required only to make the oath or affirmation to the value of the remainder of the personal property which he is required to list; eighth, every gold and silver watch, and the value thereof; ninth, every piano forte, and the value thereof; tenth, the value of the goods and merchandize which such person is required to list as a merchant; eleventh, the value of the property which such person is required to list as a banker, broker, or stock jobber; twelfth, the value of the materials and manufactured articles which such person is required to list as a manufacturer; thirteenth, the value of money, and credits required to be listed, including all balances of book accounts; fourteenth, the value of the moneys invested in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, which such person is by this act required to list.

Sec. 8. If there be no articles of personal property, moneys or credits, investment in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, which such person is required to list, on his own account, or account of others, he may set forth such fact to the assessor, who shall require the oath or affirmation of such person to the truth of the same.

RULES FOR VALUING PROPERTY.

Sec. 9. Each separate parcel of real property shall be valued at its true value in money, excluding the value of the crops growing thereon; but the price for which such real property would sell at auction, or at forced sale, shall not be taken as the criterion of such true value. Each tract or lot of real property belonging to this state, or to any county, city, or charitable institution, whether incorporated or unincorporated, and school or ministerial lands, held under a lease for a term exceeding five years, shall be valued at such a price as the assessor believes could be obtained at private sale for such leasehold estate. Personal property of every description, shall be valued at the usual selling price of similar property at the time of listing and at the place where the same may then be; and if there be no usual selling price known to the person whose duty it is to fix a value thereon, then at such price as it is believed could be obtained therefor, in money at such time and place. Investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies, or otherwise, shall be valued at the true value thereof in money.—Money, whether in possession, or on deposit, shall be entered in the statement at the full amount thereof; provided, that deposits of related bank notes shall be entered at their current value. Every credit for a sum certain, payable either in money, property of any kind, labor or services, shall be valued at the full price of the sum so payable; if for a specific article, or for a specified number or quantity of any article or articles of property, or for a certain amount of labor, or for the services of any kind, it shall be valued at the current price of such property, or of such labor or service, at the place where payable. Annuities or moneys receivable at stated periods shall be valued at the price which the person listing the same, believes them to be worth in money. Where the fee of the soil of any tract, parcel or lot of land is in any person or persons, natural or artificial—and the right to any minerals therein, in another or others, the same shall be valued and listed agreeably to such ownership in separate entries, and taxed to the parties owning the same, respectively.

Sec. 10. No person, company, or corporation, shall be entitled to any deduction, on account of any bond, note or obligation of any kind, given to any mutual insurance company; nor on account of any unpaid subscription to any religious, literary, scientific or charitable institution or society; nor on account of any subscription to, or installment payable on the capital stock of any company, whether incorporated or unincorporated

HOME TESTIMONY.

HARTFORD, Trumbell Co., O., March 7th, 1857.

I hereby certify that I have been dealing in the Graffenberg Medicines for the past year, and can truly say that I have never offered any medicines to the public that have met with the decided approbation of the people like these, particularly the Pills and Catholicon.—They will readily perform all and more than is promised for them. I have sold a great deal of the Catholicon, during the past season, and I hear the best results in every case.

J. H. C. JOHNSON, Medical Agent.

Read what Dr. Bushnell says of the Graffenberg Medicines. Dr. B. is a physician of extensive practice, and one of the most successful in the county (Trumbell) where he resides.

"This certifies that I have used the Graffenberg Pills and Marshall's Catholicon, sold here by J. H. C. Johnson, in my practice to my entire satisfaction. They are good medicines. DR. G. W. BUSHNELL."

Hartford, Trumbell Co., O., March 7, 1857.

I am a physician of thirty years' practice. My principal study has been diseases of females. They have generally baffled my best efforts. Obtaining the no-which composing Marshall's Uterine Catholicon, I was pleased with the effect it produced in their relief, and found myself abundantly successful. In my former practice I could only mitigate the symptoms of about half the cases and could not cure one in ten. Now I can radically cure at least seventeen in twenty and mitigate the rest. I consider Marshall's Uterine Catholicon the greatest blessing to females I have met with.

J. H. WILLIAMS, M. D., Charleston.

WEST BROOKFIELD, Coshocton Co., May 14, 1857.

Mr. H. B. Kingsley, Sir—I have been selling the medicines of the Graffenberg Company for the last ten years, and have invariably found them to give good satisfaction; and the pills I have sold to a great many families are regularly as their tea and coffee, and with my trade they have become a staple article. Marshall's Uterine Catholicon is a medicine that has done a great amount of good in female diseases. One lady I sold it to told me she had received more benefit from one bottle than she did from a long course of medical treatment by the most skillful physicians. Yours truly,

Jan. 1, 1858. JAMES WILSON.
