LAWS OF OHIO.

For the Assessment and Taxation of all Property in this State, and for levying Taxes thereon according to its true value in money.

Sec. 26. Each county auditor shall correct the valuation of any parcel of real property, on which any new structure of over one hundred dollars in value may have been created, or on which any structure of the like value shall have been destroyed, agreeably to the return thereof made in accordance with the provisions of this act by the assessor, and cause the taxes upon such corrected valuation.

Sec. 27. Each county auditor shall make out and transmit to the auditor of state, before the first day of September annually, a statement of the aggregate value of the taxable property in his county, and of the total amount of taxes for all purposes assessed thereon for that year, and he shall make out and transmit by mail to the auditor of state, on or before the 1st day of October in every year, a complete abstract of the duplicate of his county; he shall also, at the same time, make out and transmit to the auditor of state an abstract of the number and value of each of the enumerated articles, the value of merchants' and manufacturers' stock, and the value of other personal property, moneys, credits, investments in bonds, stocks, joint stock companies or otherwise, and the value of all other articles of personal property as returned by the township assessors, or as fixed by the county board of equalization; said abstracts shall be made out in such form as the auditor of state shall prescribe, and shall also make out and transmit to the auditor of state, before the fourth Monday of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and every sixth year thereafter, a complete copy of the grand list of real property of each county as it shall stand upon the duplicate of that year.

Sec. 28. If the county treasurer shall be unable to collect, by distress, or otherwise, the taxes which have been, or hereafter shall be assessed upon any person or corporation, or any executor or administrator, guardian, receiver, accounting officer, agent or factor, such treasurer shall apply to the clerk of the court of common pleas in his county, at any time after his annual settlement with the county auditor, and said clerk shall cause a notice to be served upon such person, corporation, executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, accounting officer, agent or factor, requiring him forthwith to show cause why he should not pay such taxes; and if he shall fail to show a sufficient cause, said court, at the term to which said notice is returnable, shall enter a rule against him for the payment of such taxes, and the cost of such proceeding, which rule shall have the same force and effect by judgment at law, and be enforced by attachment or execution, or such process as may be directed by the court.

COUNTY BOARDS FOR THE EQUALIZATION OF REAL PROPERTY.

Sec. 29. The county auditor, the county surveyor, the county commissioners, or a majority of them, shall form a county board for the equalization of the real property in the city of Cincinnati, which shall be equalized by a special board, as hereinafter provided. They shall meet on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and every sixth year thereafter, at the auditor's office, in the several counties, when the county auditor shall lay before them the returns of the real property, made by the several district assessors of such county, with the additions he shall have made thereto, and having each taken an oath fairly and impartially to equalize the value of the real estate of such county, agreeably to the provisions of this act, they shall immediately proceed to equalize such valuation, so that each tract or lot shall be entered on the tax list as its true value; and for this purpose they shall observe the following rules: 1st.—They shall raise the valuation of such tracts and lots of real property as, in their opinion, have been returned below their true value, to such price or sum as they may believe to be the true value thereof, agreeably to the rules prescribed by this act for the valuation thereof. 2d. They shall reduce the valuation of such tracts and lots as, in their opinion, have been returned above their true value, as compared with the average valuation of the real property of such county, having due regard to the relative situation, quality of soil, improvements, natural and artificial advantages possessed by each tract and lot. 3d. They shall not reduce the aggregate value of the real property of the county, below the aggregate value thereof, as returned by the assessors, with the additions made thereto by the auditor, as hereinbefore required; the county auditor shall keep an accurate journal or record of the proceedings and orders of said board.

Sec. 40. It is not too much to say

SINCE ALL,

OLD AND YOUNG,

AFFIRM ITS TRUTH,

VIZ: That Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will preserve BEAUTIFUL the growth and color of the hair, if used two or three times a week, to any imaginable age. Perfectly restore the gray, cover the head with nature's own resource, the hair; make it more soft and beautiful than any oil, and preserve the scalp free from all disease to the greatest age. Statesmen, Judges, Attorneys, Doctors, Clergymen, Professional men, and Gentlemen of all classes, all over the world, bear testimony that we do not say too much in its favor. Read the following, and judge.

HICKORY GROVE, St. Charles Co. Mo. Nov. 19, '57.

PROF. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Since your agent was here induced to use some of your Hair Restorative and the effects were so wonderful we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted to report it. Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair had almost come off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his suffering, advised us to use your Restorative; we did so with little hope of success, but to our surprise, and that of all who saw the child, it very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out; and we can now say that our boy has as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can, therefore, and do heartily, recommend your Restorative as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are yours respectfully,

GEO. W. & SARAH A. HOUGHTON.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: My hair had, for several years, been becoming prematurely gray, accompanied by a dandruff which rendered the constant application of oil necessary in dressing it. When I commenced using your Hair Restorative about two months ago it was it was in that condition, and having continued it use till still in the last three weeks, it has turned to its natural color, leaving it soft, easy and large greatly to be preferred to those preparations which have used oils or any other preparation I have used. I regard it as an indispensable article for every lady's toilet, whether to be used as a Hair Restorative or for the simple purpose of dressing or beautifying the hair. You have permission to refer to me all who entertain any doubt of its performing all that is claimed for it.

MRS. C. EDMUND,
114 Third-st., Cincinnati, O., Feb. 10, 1857.

WASHINGTON, MO., Dec. 2, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: By the advice of a friend of mine, who had been using your Hair Restorative, I was induced to try it. I had the fever, some time last May, and nearly every hair in my head came out.—Now my hair has come in a great deal thicker than ever it was. Nothing can I do, not equity that I feel to communicate to others who are afflicted as I have been would induce me to give this public a knowledgement of the benefit I have received from Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. You can respectfully, A. R. ALCOAS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ¼ a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for one dollar per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $2 a bottle.

O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 441 Broadway, New York, (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market-st., St. Louis, Mo.
