The average amount of all moneys, effects, or dues of every description belonging to such bank or banking company loaned, invested, or otherwise used or employed with a view to profit, or upon which such bank or banking company receives, or is entitled to receive interest: provided, however, that the average amount of the specie funds of every such bank kept on hand unemployed, except with a view redeeming its circulation and meeting its accruing liabilities to depositors, and the average amount of the balances due from other banks upon which no interest, profit or consideration is reserved or received, shall be excluded in the above estimates of the taxable property of such bank required to be made and returned as aforesaid.

Sec. 61. Sec. 62. Every person who shall have money employed in the business of dealing in coin, notes, or bills of exchange, or in the business of dealing in, or buying or shaving any kind of bills of exchange, checks, drafts, bank notes, promissory notes, bonds or other writing obligatory, or stocks of any kind or description whatsoever, shall be held to be a banker, broker, or stock jobber, and in making out their statement for taxation, as required by the sixty-sixth section of this act, shall include in his statement the average value estimated as provided in the sixtieth and sixty-first sections of this act, of all moneys, notes, bills, of exchange, bonds, stocks, or other property appertaining to his business as a banker, broker or stock jobber, which he shall have had from time to time in his possession, or under his control, during the year next previous to the time of making such statement, if so long he shall have been engaged in such business, and if not, then during the time he shall have been so engaged.

Sec. 64. In default of any such president and cashier to pay the amount of the said draft to the treasurer of state, at his office, on or before the thirty first day of December in any year the treasurer of state shall immediately notify the attorney general thereof, who shall thereupon proceed, in the supreme court of the state, against the said president and cashier, by mandamus, to compel the payment of the said taxes; and it shall be the duty of the said court to allow the said writ. Or the attorney general may also, at his option, commence a civil action against the president and directors of said company, in the court of common pleas or superior court of Franklin county, in the name of the state, for the amount of such taxes.

Sec. 65. All taxes, so paid to, or collected by the state treasury, shall be distributed by the auditor of state, in the proportions to which the several counties, townships, and other local organizations are entitled.

Sec. 66. Sec. 68. It is not too much to say

SINCE ALL,

OLD AND YOUNG,

AFFIRM ITS TRUTH,

Viz: That Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will preserve INVARIABLY the growth and color of the hair, if used one or three times a week, to any imaginable age. Perfectly restore the gray, cover the bald with nature's own ornament, the hair; make it more soft and beautiful than any oil, and preserve the scalp free from all disease to the greatest age. Statesmen, Judges, Attorneys, Doctors, Clergymen, Professional men, and Gentlemen and Ladies of all classes, all over the world, bear testimony that we do not say too much in its favor. Read the following:

HIGGINS GROVE, St. Charles Co. Mo. Nov. 10, '57.

PROF. J. WOOD—Dear Sir; Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your Hair Restorative and the effects were so wonderful we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted to report it. Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it a scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend recommended the flattering accounts of your Restorative; we did so with little hope of success, but to our surprise, and that of all who witnessed, a very few applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxuriant crop of hair soon started out; and we can now say that our boy has as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can, therefore, and do hereby, recommend your Restorative as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are yours respectfully,

GEO. W. & SARAH A. HIGGINSOTHAM.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir; My hair had, for several years, been becoming prematurely gray, accompanied by a dryness which rendered the constant application of oil necessary in dressing it. When I commenced using your Hair Restorative about two months ago it was it was in that condition, and having continued its use till now in the last three weeks, it has turned to its natural color, and assumed a softness and lustre greatly to be preferred to those produced by the application of oil or any other preparation I have used. I regard it as an indispensable article for every lady's toilet, whether to be used for dressing or for beautifying the hair. You have permission to refer to me all who entertain any doubt of its performing all that is claimed for it.

MRS. C. SUMNER,
114 Third-st., Cincinnati, O., Feb. 10, 1857.

WILLIAMSBURG, MO., Dec. 5, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir; By the advice of a friend of mine, who had been using your Hair Restorative, I was induced to try it. I had the fever, some time last May, and nearly every hair in my head came out—Now my hair has come in a great deal thicker than ever it was. Nothing but a duty and sympathy that I feel to communicate to others who are afflicted as I have been would induce me to give this public acknowledgement of the benefit I have received from Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. Yours respectfully, A. R. JACOBS.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ¼ a pint and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, or per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

HOME TESTIMONY.

HARTFORD, Trumbull Co., O., March 7th, 1857.

I have been for years dealing in the Graffenberg Medicines for the past year, and can truly say that I have never offered any medicines to the public that have met with the decided approbation of the people like these, particularly the Pills and Catholicon.—They will readily perform all and more than represented for them. I have sold about fifty bottles of the Catholicon the past season, and I hear the best results in every case.

J. H. C. JOHNSON, Medical Agent.

Read what Dr. Bushnell says of the Graffenberg Medicines. Dr. B. is a physician of extensive practice, and one of the most successful in the county (Trumbull) in which he resides:

"This certifies that I have used the Graffenberg Pills and Marshall's Catholicon, and have found H. C. Johnson, to be my practice to my entire satisfaction. They are good medicines. DR. G. W. BUSHNELL."

Hartford, Trumbull Co., O., March 7, 1857.

I am a physician of thirty years' practice. My principal study has been diseases of females. They have generally bathed my best efforts. Obtaining the material composing Marshall's Uterine Catholicon, I was pleased with them, gave them a fair trial, and found myself abundantly successful. In my former practice I could only mitigate the symptoms of about half the cases and could not cure one in ten. Now I can radically cure at least seventeen in twenty and mitigate the rest. I consider Marshall's Uterine Catholicon the greatest blessing to females I have met with.
