ATHLETICS WIN FIRST GAME FROM HIGHLANDERS

Connie Mack's Team Finds Caldwell Easy and Walk Away With Victory.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 27.—A double header between the Athletics and the New York Highlanders proved to be a magnet for the fans this afternoon and thousands of them trotted to the home of the world's champions early to witness the encounters on the diamond.

Manager Mack announced that he would use Plank. Manager Chase rejoined his team, but did not play. He selected Caldwell to do the twirling.

First Inning.

Daniels filed to Oldring. Wolter fouled to Barry. Barry made a swell running one-hand stop of Hartzell's grounder over second, but Davis muffed the throw. Cree got a two-bagger on a Texas Leaguer back of first base. Knight walked, filling the bases. Gardner fanned. NO RUNS.

Johnson threw Lord out. Oldring singled to centre and stole second. Gardner fumbled Collins's grounder, Oldring scoring. Baker lined to Wolter. When Knight relayed Wolter's throw-in Caldwell dropped the ball and Collins took a desperate chance and reached second. Knight fumbled Davis's grounder, but Wolter's perfect throw to Blair caught Collins at the plate. ONE RUN.

Second Inning.

Collins fumbled Johnson's grounder, the runner reaching second. Blair sacrificed. Plank to Davis. Caldwell struck out. Barry threw Daniels out. NO RUNS.

Murphy singled to left. Barry sacrificed. Knight to Gardner. Thomas was hit by a pitched ball. Plank sent a line drive to Johnson, whose quick throw to Gardner doubled up Murphy at second. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Wolter singled to centre. Baker robbed Hartzell of a hit by leaning down and with his gloved hand stretched to the limit taking Roy's drive within a few inches of the ground. Wolter died stealing. Thomas to Barry. Cree got a two-bagger on his grounder, which took a lucky bound over Baker's head. Knight walked. Gardner flied out to Davis. NO RUNS.

Caldwell threw Lord out. Oldring flied to Knight. Collins flied to Hartzell. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Barry threw Johnson out. Plank threw Blair out. Caldwell fanned. NO RUNS.

Baker grounded out to Knight unassisted. Davis walked. Murphy was called out on strikes and made a very vigorous kick. Barry went out, Knight to Caldwell. NO RUNS.

Fifth Inning.

Baker threw Daniels out. Wolter flied to Baker. Hartzell flied to Collins. NO RUNS.

Thomas fanned. Plank singled to centre. Lord fanned. Oldring singled to centre, sending Plank to third. Collins fanned. NO RUNS.

Sixth Inning.

Cree got a single on a drive which took Baker off his feet. Knight sacrificed to Davis unassisted. Collins threw Gardner out. Johnson got a single on a hot drive to Barry, Cree scoring. Barry fell in stopping the ball and in making a quick throw to Davis, hurled the ball to the bleachers, Johnson going to second. Plank threw Blair out. ONE RUN.

Baker singled past Knight. Davis fouled to Hartzell. Murphy walked. Barry doubled to centre, scoring Baker. Thomas beat out a grounder down the third base line, Murphy scoring. When Caldwell's throw to get Thomas pulled Knight off the bag Barry also scored, and when Knight threw wild to the plate Thomas kept on to third. On Plank's sacrifice fly to Cree Thomas scored. Lord fanned. FOUR RUNS.

Seventh Inning.

Caldwell fanned. Daniels fouled to Thomas. Wolter doubled to left. Hartzell fanned. NO RUNS.

Oldring flied to Daniels, so did Collins. Baker doubled to centre and scored Davis's double to left. Murphy flied to Daniels. ONE RUN.

BOSTON, Mass., May 27.—There was joy in the hearts of the Rustlers as they came out for their preliminary spin this afternoon. The new lineup of the outfit seemed to have infused a whole lot of ginger into the work and with the Veteran Steinfeldt at the third sack there was no doubt but that the team was materially bettered. Ingerton has been chased into the left garden from the infield.

In the second Sweeney threw out Burch. Coulson reached second on Herzog's wild heave of his high bounder. Miller lost Zimmerman's fly in the sun and it went for two bases. Erwin singled, scoring Coulson and Zimmerman. Reil hit into a double play, Steinfeldt to Sweeney, to Tenny. Two runs.

In the third inning Stark singled to left. Brown threw Barger's grounder into right field, Stark taking third. Wheat fanned. McElveen fanned also. Stark and Barger worked a double steal, Stark scoring. Burch was passed. Coulson flied to Goode. One run.

Associated with the College of the City of New York All His Life.

Professor Solomon Woolf, of the chair of drawing and descriptive geometry, in the College of the City of New York, died this morning from a complication of diseases at his home, No. 324 West Eighty-third street. He was seventy years old.

Professor Woolf was born in Mobile, Ala. He was graduated from the College of the City of New York in 1859. He remained there as instructor and professor, being made Professor Emeritus in 1901. His father was Edward Woolf, leader of the orchestra in the old Bowery Theatre. M. A. Woolf, well known as a caricaturist, and H. F. Woolf who wrote the play "The Mighty Dollar," were his brothers.

EDITOR GETS APPLE.

(From the Hell Gate (Kan.) New Era.)

On Saturday Will Knouf came into our den with an apple in his pocket, which made his pocket stick out like a bustle, and, explaining to us that he was not engaged in bootlegging apples, but that he had brought us one, he pulled out the aforesaid apple and laid it on our desk. The apple was raised in Washington near Walla Walla, and was one of the three or four which compressed the bushel shipped to Mr. Knouf by his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Garner, who is out in that land. The apple stands four inches high in its stocking feet, measures twelve and one-half inches around the waist and tips the scales at fourteen ounces. As the express charges on the bushel amounted to $3.50, it will be seen that no extensive traffic is liable to be built up here in Washington apples.

M'ANENY'S PLAN TO BRING THE B.R.T. INTO MANHATTAN

To Tunnel Under River From Pineapple Street, Brooklyn, to Liberty Street.

A condition under which the B. R. T. may come into Manhattan has been evolved by the Transit Committee of the Board of Estimate, of which President McAneny is chairman. Before the latter went away to-day to Lake George to be gone until Wednesday, it was learned that during his absence he will draw up a report which, while wholly favoring the Interborough, will present the plan enabling the B. R. T. to come into Manhattan.

This will contemplate the building of a tunnel from Pineapple street under the East River to Liberty street, Manhattan, thence finally hooking up with the McAdoo system.

In turn, the McAdoo subway will connect with the Pennsylvania Railroad station via a branch through Thirty-third street.

MICHAEL RYAN SECOND IN LONDON MARATHON.

Irish-American Athlete Makes Good Showing at Annual Event Abroad.

LONDON, May 27.—The Polytechnic Harriers' Marathon for the Sporting Life cup was run here to-day and won by Harry Green of the Southern Athletic Club. Michael Ryan of the Irish-American Athletic Club of New York, but who was entered from Hamilton, Ont., finished second. The race was started from the grounds at Windsor Castle and ended at Stamford Bridge.

The Marathon had an international aspect. There were forty-nine starters, including a number of Continental competitors, besides Ryan, who ran as a Canadian. The course was practically identical with the memorable Olympic struggle of 1908, which was won by John J. Hayes upon the disqualification of Dorando.

Ryan took the lead at the fifteenth mile. At Putney, after twenty-three miles had been covered, Green went to the front and retained his lead up to the finishing mark. The winner was in fresh condition at the end of the race. His time was 2 hours 46 minutes 29 4-5 seconds. Ryan finished in 2 hours 50 minutes and 45 seconds.

The Inflexible was struck on the starboard bow, where she has a seven-foot hole below the water line. Two of her compartments are flooded. The vessel is now in this harbor preparing for docking.

Crushed to Death by Coal Car.

Michael Gibbons, aged thirty-six, a coal shoveller employed by the New Edison Company at the Company's power house at Fortieth street and First avenue, was caught between a coal tram chute late to-day and instantly killed. He lived at No. 246 East Eightieth street. Gibbons was waiting with a tram at the bottom of a coal chute when another tram, running wild, pushed into his car and jammed his head between the chute and the top of the car.

AUTO KILLS BOY PLAYING BALL IN UPTOWN STREET

Dies as Chauffeur Races With Him to a Hospital After Accident.

The police of the West One Hundredth street police station received orders today, after the death last night of eleven-year-old Alfred Larson under an auto in front of his home, No. 100 West Eighty-ninth street, to stop boys from playing ball in the street. The killing of the boy is grieved by all the boys of his neighborhood, who had planned to make him captain of their baseball nine. The little fellows who were to play with him will be his pallbearers to-morrow.

Coroner Winterbottom is investigating the circumstances of the accident. Alfred died just as the machine which struck him raced up to St. Luke's Hospital. Charles Rogers, chauffeur for J. B. Boncal of No. 160 West Seventy-eighth street, stopped to pick up the boy after hitting him.

Alfred and his eight-year-old brother, Edward, were motherless and they were waiting in the street for their father. The housekeeper told them not to play ball, which their father had forbidden, but they were nevertheless tossing back and forth. Father and sons had but recently come here from California and Alfred was proud of the fact that he came from the same State as Hal Chase.

"I'm going to be another Hal Chase," he had said.

Edward threw the ball wild and Alfred dashed after it, crying:

"Here's where I show how Hal Chase would do it."

The lad dashed directly in front of the approaching automobile. Rogers was running slowly, but before he could shut off the power the boy had been knocked down and dragged a few feet.

Rogers picked him up and, throwing on all his power, raced for the hospital. Just as the boy was put in the machine his father turned the corner and was informed of what had happened to his son.

"Get a doctor; I have a patient who is dying!" shouted Rogers as he came up to the hospital entrance. Then he stopped his machine and ran to the toneau to pick up the child. Almost as quickly two doctors came running to the automobile. They had their stethascopes ready and were pulling temporary bandages from their pockets.

"I hope he will pull through," Rogers said as he lifted a blanket from the boy.

The doctors glanced at Larson once. Then they placed their first aid implements in their pockets and walked away. Larson had been dead for several minutes.

Immediately after the body had been placed in the hospital morgue Rogers drove to the West One Hundredth street station where he told about the accident.
