ST. ROSE'S HOME ISSUES WARNING AGAINST FRAUDS

Says No Solicitors Are Sent Out to Collect Contributions for New Hospital.

ONE HALTED ALREADY.

Now that the prospect of their new hospital is assured, the Servants of Relief, who are in charge of St. Rose's Free Home for Incurable Cancer, wish to thank especially the committee of business men who have recently secured such large additions to the funds of the home. 4 MEN AND A DOG RESCUED FROM A CAPSIZED BOAT

One Couldn't Swim and Was Kept Up By Friend—Dog Clung to Master.

Four Brooklyn men and a dog in a boat outside of Coney Island attempted last night to row through a choppy sea caused by the meeting of the ocean swell and the rollers made by a steamboat, when their rowboat shipped water and capsized.

The occupants of the boat were Charles Repp of No. 351 East Eighty-third street, George Seyfert of No. 351 East Eighty-third street, Michael Sayler of Coney Island, Lieut. Kaufman of Bay Forty-third street and the Lieutenant's dog Chubby.

The men had rowed early in the evening from the Pilgrim Yacht Club at Elmer Park to Sea Gate and when they were starting to return the calmness of the sea tempted them to round Norton's Point and row out toward Rockaway Point. All went well until a passing steamboat made a cross sea which swamped the little boat.

Repp, the only one of the party who could not swim, went down when the boat turned over. His companions caught him when he arose, but had difficulty in keeping him afloat.

While two of the swimmers balanced the overturned boat another laid Repp across its upturned flat bottom and every one of the four found himself busy for the next half hour, Repp to cling to his rolling perch and the others to prevent the perch rolling far enough to roll him. Chubby, the dog, sank his teeth in Kaufman's clothing and hung on. Their shouts for help were heard by Percy Johnson of the Coney Island station of the City Life Saving Corps, who rowed out, rescued the men and dog, and rowed the boat ashore.

SHERMAN'S SON SOUSED.

BRETTON WOODS, N. H., July 13.—J. A. Sherman, son of the Vice-President, playing here in the golf tournament of the advertising men, won a gold medal for the lowest score. When he came from the links, his friends gathered around to treat him to a "drink." They picked him up and unceremoniously threw him into the Mount Washington swimming pool, clothes and all, congratulating him as he floundered in the water.

DAMN ICE TRUST, PASTOR SAYS AND STARTLES JERSEY

He Also Damns Milk Trust and Everything and Everybody That Boosts Prices.

The Rev. L. S. Osborne, rector of the Trinity Episcopal Church of Newark, N. J., whose congregation is composed of many of the wealthiest and most fashionable families in that city, wrote this letter to a Newark newspaper:

I have been taught that "damn" is a good scriptural word; not, however, to be used unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently, discreetly and advisedly, soberly and in the fear of God, like matrimony or a blue pill; and so I say advisedly and soberly: "Damn the Ice Trust and the Milk Trust and the farmers and the cows and everybody and everything that is making this hot weather an excuse for boosting the price of ice and milk."

The Sugar Trust may be faulty and the Standard Oil not all that could be desired, but they don't conspire to kill sick babies. Thank God the undertakers haven't raised the price of coffins!

Neither have the doctors raised their prices and there are persons who still minister to the sick and poor without money and without price.

So here's $10 more for your ice fund direct, and to help alleviate the poverty of the indigent milkman and impecunious iceman.

I hope they'll repent in time to escape that place where they'd give their moral souls for a drink of iced milk.

Yours truly,
L. S. OSBORNE,
Rector Trinity Episcopal Church.

Newark, July 12.

Mr. Osborne is regarded as one of the leading Episcopal clergymen in New Jersey. His letter in the Newark paper has created no end of comment.

Fischer-Hansen Bankruptcy.

Three creditors of Carl Fischer-Hansen, one-time son-in-law of Isaac V. Brokaw, yesterday asked the United States Court to put Hansen's French-American Stores Company in bankruptcy. It is charged that Fischer-Hansen's stores, which are at No. 2111 Seventh avenue and No. 856 Westchester avenue and are run as French pastry restaurants, are bankrupt.

KILLED BY FALL FROM ROOF.

Willie Foye, Seeking Relief From Heat, Tumbles Down Shaft.

Mrs. John Foye, one of the many sweltering tenants of the building No. 312 Adams street, Brooklyn, took her son Willie, six years old, to the roof last night to get some sleep.

Just as day was breaking somebody peered over the coping down the airshaft and saw Willie at the bottom.

The father picked up the child and ran with him to the Adams street station, nearby. Dr. Scott of Brooklyn Hospital said the child had been almost instantly killed. It is thought he made an attempt to get back to his room and walked into the airshaft.

WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it had worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. NATHAN B. GREATON, 51 N. Main Street, Natick, Mass.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.
