MINISTER SLEUTH RUNS DOWN AND NABS BIGAMIST

The Rev. William Fincke Faces Poherly in Flat and He Confesses to Bride.

FIRST WIFE SAW NOTICE.

The Clergyman Had Formerly Been a Detective in the Pennsylvania Coal Mines.

The sleuth germ is still in the blood of the Rev. William Fincke, pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church. Before he began studying dogmatics and ecclesiastical polity he was a coal mine detective in Pennsylvania. He was in the Harlem Police Court to-day in a bigamy case against the husband of one of his parishioners. Not only did the clergyman-sleuth dig up the evidence, but conducted the raid that led to the arrest.

Mr. Fincke, after becoming a divine, had a call from a woman who once was Miss Mary Mara, forty years old, of No. 313 East Eighty-first street. In September, 1907, she married Emmanuel J. Pohorely, whose late address has been No. 305 East Seventy-sixth street. Pohorely was only twenty-six years old then.

Mrs. Pohorely told the clergyman that her husband had deserted her, and had married Miss Emma Kesl last Nov. 25 at the Kesl home on Avenue A, near Seventy-third street. And it was Mr. Fincke who had performed the ceremony.

Mr. Fincke got right on the job. He knew how to do it, too. He went first to the marriage records and got the goods on Pohorely. Then he snooped around to the Pohorely flat. Pohorely wasn't at home. A clergyman without sleuthing experience might have given it all away and flushed the game, but the Rev. Mr. Fincke knew a thing worth two of that. Instead, he went away quietly, and returned last night with exactly three detectives, who shoved revolvers at Pohorely, sitting there with Mrs. Pohorely No. 2.

The Pohorely bulldog showed his fangs, but Mr. Fincke only said:

"Better call off your dog."

Pohorely did. Then he recognized the clergyman.

"What does this mean?" he demanded.

When they broke the news to him Mrs. Pohorely No. 2 stormed and wept details, but Pohorely said: "It's true. I'm a bigamist. You've got the goods on me. I was only a drunken kid when I married that other woman."

Both wives were in court to-day. No. 1 rather severe, No. 2 young and pretty, with tear-stained eyes. Magistrate Appleton held Pohorely in $1,500 bond for trial.

The minister-sleuth didn't want to talk to-day.

"That's all done and over," he said. "It isn't doing me any good or the church any good to revive it now. It's only a personal matter, and I don't care to discuss it. Yes, I was a detective."

According to Mrs. Pohorely No. 1, her husband deserted her after four days of married life. She says that for five years she has kept track of him, and admits that she awaited the psychological moment before setting the clergyman on the trail.

Mr. Fincke is a pleasant appearing man, about forty years old. His church is at Seventy-third street and Madison avenue.

BUTTER AT 65 CENTS TO THE CONSUMER SOON, IS PREDICTION NOW.

Wholesalers Expect to Put Price to Fifty Cents or Over—Say Supply Is Short.

Fifty-cent butter within a few days, with the chances that it will go higher still, is what New Yorkers have to look forward to, say wholesalers, who to-day are asking forty-two cents a pound. This means that butter at retail in the stores will be sixty to sixty-five cents a pound.

G. W. Martin, President of the Mercantile Exchange, agreed with other wholesale dealers that butter would reach the half dollar mark within a short time and even go higher. He says the supply is exhausted, and butter is being imported from Canada.

Assemblyman Brenhan, father of the cold storage law, also predicted higher prices.

"There can hardly come much relief before the late spring," he said. "My bill provides that butter may be kept in cold storage twelve months. That became effective June 15 last, so the wholesalers have until next June 15 before they are forced to clean out their holdings. It is probable, however, that they will start the cleaning out some weeks before the time limit is up."

MINE WORKERS REFUSE TO INDORSE SOCIALISTS.

Defeat Resolution Committing National Organization to the Party.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 18.—By a vote of 515 to 155, the convention of the United Mine Workers of America refused to-day to adopt a resolution committing the organization to the Socialist party and approved the substitute measure of the Resolutions Committee, declaring "it would be well if workers would unite on the political as well as the industrial field."

The Resolutions Committee had reported that it would be unconstitutional for the United Mine Workers to indorse any political party.

Tuberculosis Medicine Saved This Man's Life

Pneumonia is a serious disease, and often lays the foundation for chronic lung troubles—sometimes Tuberculosis results. After Pneumonia, or any serious or stubborn cold, it is wise to take Eckman's Alterative.

Don't wait to find out whether the trouble is getting worse, but take Eckman's Alterative in time and avoid the dangers of disease. Read of the recovery in this case:

336 No. 41st St., Philadelphia, Pa.

"Gentlemen, I am getting along very nicely and gaining strength all the time. I now weigh 154 pounds, a gain since September 16, 1907, of 28 pounds more than when I first started to take the Alterative. I wish I had known of it two years ago as it would have saved me much misery and distress.

"I was suffering from a very serious abscessed lung, which followed a bad attack of pneumonia. My physician and a specialist declared my case hopeless.

"I cannot but be very thankful to you and the Almighty God for the great blessing and change of health it has brought me."

"Since writing the above statement I wish to say that I have fully recovered my health, having been cured for over three years."

(Signed Affidavit) THOS. REILLY.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by all Hegeman and Riker's drug stores and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

This Wife and Mother

Wishes to tell you FREE How She Stopped Her Husband's Drinking

By all Means Write to Me and Learn How I Did it.

For over 20 years James Anderson of 116 Elm avenue, Hillburn, N. Y., was a very hard drinker. His case seemed a hopeless one, but ten years ago in our own little home I gave him a simple remedy which much to my delight stopped his drinking entirely.

To make sure that the remedy was responsible for this happy result I also tried it on my brother and several of my neighbors. It was successful in every case. None of them has touched a drop of intoxicating liquor since.

I now wish every one who has drunkenness in their homes to try this simple remedy, for I feel sure that it will do as much for others as it has for me. It can be given secretly if desired, and without cost. I will gladly and willingly tell you what it is. All you have to do is write me a letter asking me how I cured my husband of drinking and I will reply by return mail in a sealed envelope. As I have nothing to sell do not send me money. Simply send me a letter with all confidence. Mrs. Margaret Anderson at the address given above, taking care to write your name and full address plainly.

I earnestly advise every one who wishes to cure a dear one of drunkenness to write to me to-day. My offer is a sincere one.
