CARDINAL FARLEY'S IMPOSING ENTRY TO ST. PATRICK'S

Impressive Ceremony Planned for To-Morrow at the Great Cathedral.

The solemn formal reception into St. Patrick's Cathedral of His Eminence John Cardinal Farley, will take place to-morrow at 11 o'clock when the newly created prince of the church will make his formal entry into the great church attended by the most magnificent ceremonies in the ritual of Rome.

Cardinal Gibbons, the bishops of Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Buffalo, Ogdensburg, Albany, Rochester, Newark, Trenton, Erie, Fall River, Burlington and Portland, together with prominent Monsignori from all over the country will form an escort with the Papal Knights and conduct Cardinal Farley from the Cathedral College in a street procession to the door of the Cathedral.

As the Cardinals enter the door of the church together the New York Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of James C. Ungerer, will render a hymn of welcome. John Finnegan of the Cathedral choir will lead the vocal service.

During the Solemn Pontifical Mass, which will be celebrated by Archbishop Prendergast of Philadelphia, assisted by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Kearney, Rev. E. M. Surrey and Rev. O. M. Strack, Cardinal Farley will occupy a throne on the north side of the altar and opposite on a special mahogany throne, built for the occasion, Cardinal Gibbons will sit attended by Monsignori Flood and McCready, who are his Deacons of Honor.

The assistant priest to Cardinal Farley is Right Rev. Mgr. Lavelle, V. G., who will address the Cardinal in behalf of the clergy. Justice Victor J. Dowling will speak in behalf of the laity, and the sermon will be preached by Auxiliary Bishop Cusack. Monsignori Hayes and Lewis and Father Byrne will be masters of ceremonies. The deacons of honor to Cardinal Farley will be Right Rev. Mgr. Mooney, V. G., and Right Rev. Mgr. Edwards, V G. Deacons of honor to Archbishop Prendergast Right Rev. Mgr. McMahon and Right Rev. Mgr. Burtsell. Mgr. McGean will be assistant priest to Cardinal Gibbons.

The procession from the Cathedral College will start at ten minutes of eleven, when the uniformed color guard of the Knights of Columbus and the Papal Knights of the order of St. Gregory will form an escort on either side of the Cardinals and proceed down Madison avenue to Fiftieth street, through Fiftieth street to Fifth avenue and north to the middle door of the Cathedral.

Last night Cardinal Farley was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Countess Leary at her home, No. 1023 Fifth avenue. In his scarlet robes, the Cardinal sat between the Countess and Father Bernard Vaughan, the eminent preacher of London. Other guests were Monsignori Lavelle, Mooney and Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft, Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry, Mrs. Frederic Kernochan, Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collier.

The Catholic Club is being decorated elaborately for the reception to Cardinals Farley and Gibbons, which takes place to-morrow evening.

CARDINAL OFFICIATES AT FUNERAL IN CATHEDRAL.

Impressive Services in St. Patrick's Over the Body of Eugene Kelly, Banker.

Cardinal John Farley officiated today in the first public mass in the Cathedral since his elevation, giving the absolution at the funeral of Eugene Kelly, the banker, in St. Patrick's Cathedral at 11 o'clock. The Cardinal was on the throne while the mass was being celebrated by Mgr. M. J. Lavelle, and at each side of the throne were Mgrs. Richard L. Burtsell and John Edwards.

The body of Eugene Kelly had reposed in the Lady Chapel in the Cathedral, having been removed from his late home at No. 641 Madison avenue last night. A guard of honor from the Christian Brothers remained in attendance all night. This chapel was the gift to the Cathedral from the Kelley family.

Of the fifteen hundred persons attending the funeral there were four old retainers and servants of the Kelly family in the front pews; Miss Nellie McNamara, who nursed the dead banker; Joseph Tomeselli, Thomas Owen Quinn and Thomas McGlowhey, who have been with the family for years. Near them were one hundred young girls from the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum, all garbed in black, including black bows and hats, attended by sisters from the institution, and there as a mark of respect to one who had long been a large benefactor of the asylum. Others present included Countess Annie Leary, Miss Marie Berrill, Morgan J. O'Brien, John D. Crimmins, Mrs. Joseph J. O'Donohue and Miss O'Donohue.

DOCTOR TIGHTENS CHAIN.

Spots Found on Accused Slayer's Clothing Are Identified.

Dr. James Ewing, pathologist of Cornell University, was a witness to-day in the Court of General Sessions before Judge Foster, where Joseph Roberts, the West Indian negro, accused of the killing of Isaac Vogel, an aged jeweller, is on trial. Dr. Ewing identified numerous spots on clothing worn by Roberts on the night of the murder as being blood and by his testimony removed all suggestions that were made by the defendant's counsel to the effect that the spots might be paint from freshly painted chairs that were in the basement where the killing took place.

There was not an article of clothing that had been worn by Roberts in his capacity of elevator man in the building at No. 135 Canal street where Vogel met his death, that was not spotted. Jewelry valued at about $10,000 was removed from the person of Vogel by his murderer. This was found in a loft in the Canal street building covered with an old shirt. The shirt was identified to-day as the property of Roberts.

FACTORY GIRL GIVES UP

Too Sick to Work—Doctor Advised Operation. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—"I run a sewing machine in a large factory and got all run down. I had to give up work for I could not stand the pains in my back. The doctor said I needed an operation for female trouble but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me more than the doctors did. I hope that every one who is suffering will get the Compound. My pains, nervousness and backache are gone and I have gained five pounds. I owe my thanks to your medicine for it is the working girl's friend, and all women who suffer should write to you for special advice."—Miss Tillie Plensig, 8 Jay St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

When a remedy has lived for over thirty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their very lives to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

We challenge anyone to show any other one remedy for a special class of disease which has attained such an enormous demand and maintained it for so many years as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MILLIONAIRE HORSEMAN, ROBERT M. TAGGART, DIES.

Lover of Trotters Arranged that High Bred Steppers Should Be Pensioned.

Robert Morrow Taggart, a millionaire lover of trotting horses, died today at the age of sixty-four years at the home of his brother-in-law, William Bailey, former residence of Andrew Reasoner of the Lackawanna Railroad, at No. 10 North Arlington avenue, East Orange.

Mr. Taggart, to whom his parents gave a million dollars when he married Miss Jennie Bailey—whose parents made a similar gift to her—was the owner of Lady Wilkes, Gladys and other noted trotters. He arranged that the horses on his great stock farm in Dutchess County, this State, shall not be sold, but shall be pensioned for life. Mr. Taggart was a humanitarian. He would not allow his horses to contest in races and did not allow them to be touched with a whip or handled harshly in any way.

Mr. Taggart's grandfather was James Danforth, the founder of the locomotive building industry of Paterson. He was Past Master of the Masonic Lodge of Poughkeepsie, where he lived many years.

Airship Company Incorporated.

ALBANY, Jan. 24.—"Louis L. Crane's Airship Transportation Company" of Brooklyn, was incorporated to-day to engage in the business of carrying passengers in air navigating machines. The capital is $100,000 and the directors are Louis L. Crane, C. Crane and John F. Callaghan of Brooklyn.

Why?

Great English Doctors Recommend

Whit--bread Ale and Stout

BECAUSE it is matured only in bottles by the brewers in England and contains all the natural gas. There's a GREAT difference.

Diamonds

Specials To-morrow

When in buying Diamonds, as in other things, one naturally wants the best value for their money. We have made a study of the Diamond Market for over thirty years and have resident buyers in London, Paris, Amsterdam and Antwerp, the Diamond markets of the world. No diamonds too fine or lots too large for us to handle. We call your attention to some of the largest diamonds in New York at the price. These we obtain from odd lots that cannot be matched or paired and are just the right sizes for Solitaire rings. Our inspectors would be obliged to sort thousands of carats to get another collection like this. Some have slight imperfections not visible to the naked eye. On this account we are able to sell a much larger stone for the same amount of money. Our bill of Sale guarantees the value, also provides for the return of the money any time within one year. Only a few are mentioned here that will be on sale to-morrow.

New Walters Pianos at Great Price Reductions

These are designs which the Walters Piano Company have discontinued for some reason or other. One reason is that they have too many designs, and intend to reduce the number of styles; another reason is that some of the case designs are too expensive to manufacture.

This is a most unusual offering, and we advise early selection. Pianos can be purchased on liberal terms of

$5 Down and $1 a Week

No extras to pay. Upon first payment of $5 Piano will be delivered to your home.

$750 List Waters W. N. de Luxe Pianos, sale price.... $325

$750 List Walters Style Renaissance de Luxe Pianos, sale price..... $300

These pianos are all of the very highest grade; they contain the very finest, low, motion double repeating action, which is guaranteed for 25 years.

They were built by the Walters Piano Co.'s most expert workmen, and are as fine as human skill can make them.

They are Walters Pianos de Luxe—exceptionally fine in tone, the highest grade pianos that can be manufactured at any price—and appeal strongly to musicians and lovers of music. The cases are the finest that the Walters Piano Company have ever built; the designs are rich and exclusive. Plain Colonial, Empire and Hand Carved.

Beware of Piano Frauds—Do not purchase a piano unless it bears the maker's name. When a manufacturer is ashamed to put his name upon a piano you can make up your mind there is something wrong with it.

Walters Caution—The name Walters on a piano stands for highest grade. One is as safe in investing in a Walters piano as in purchasing United States gold bonds. Don't buy a so-called "slightly used" or second-hand piano at any price, it soon becomes utterly worthless, like worn out machinery.

Exchange—Your old piano for a new Walters Piano or Player Piano and pay any balance at $1 or $2 a week. Upon request a representative will call.
