ARMORY DANCES POPULAR

The Wednesday and Saturday evening dances given by the Firemen each week find great favor with the young people. The music dispensed by Anderson's Jazz Orchestra pleases everyone. In spite of the rainy weather the past weeks the crowds have continued gratifying to Messrs. Clark and Brennan, managers for the local department. With the advent of real dancing weather devotees of dancing anticipate a season of fine enjoyment.

MORGAN-BROWN

Arthur L. Morgan of Alliance and Miss Frances C. Brown, daughter of Mrs. Cora L. Brown, 424 Laramie, were quietly married at the bride's home Wednesday evening in the presence of a few close friends and relatives. The ring ceremony was used, Rev. J. Orrin Gould officiating. The young people expect to make their home in Alliance for the present.

M. E. CHURCH

The missionary society will meet with Mrs. F. M. Phelps, 412 Laramie on Tuesday afternoon.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's club will hold their reception for new members Tuesday afternoon, May 25, in the library basement at 3 o'clock. It is requested that all members be present on this occasion.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The young peoples' missionary circle of the Christian church will meet with Miss Leah Weaver, 702 Mississippi Monday evening, May 31st, with Miss Weaver, Miss Margaret Shawver and Miss Glenna Lawrence as hostesses. Miss Lella Cutts, leader.

BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. W. R. Metz entertained the Bridge club at a luncheon Thursday afternoon at the Alliance hotel. The table decorations were of sweet peas, each guest receiving a bouquet. After a delicious lunch, cards were played for the afternoon's entertainment. Those present were: Messrs. James William Mitchell, Minor Morris, E. H. Boyd, Howard Reddish, Bob Reddish, H. E. Gantz, W. B. Barnett, W. R. Metz and E. McManis.

TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Percy Cogswell and Mrs. Fred Hanson entertained the teachers of Emerson school at the home of the former Tuesday at a 5 o'clock tea. The color scheme was yellow. Delightful refreshments were served.

LADIES' NIGHT

The wives of the Rotarians had an opportunity of attending a meeting of the club for the first time Wednesday evening, when they were entertained at dinner at the Alliance hotel. The regular dinner and business meeting of the club was held at 6:30 p. m. By way of variation partners for dinner were chosen by lottery, and a contest among the ladies as to the best answer to the question, "Why I married my husband?" was held. The winner of the prize was Mrs. Harry DuBuque. The men's question was, "How can the wife help in business?"

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wetz, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gantz, Mr. and Mrs. Harry DuBuque, Mr. and Mrs. H. Coursey, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Miller, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slagle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hively, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cogswell, Dean J. J. Dixon.

The committee on entertainment was Harry Gantz and Percy Cogswell. At the conclusion of the evening the committee reported that the women had stood the test and ladies' night is an established Rotarian precedent in Alliance.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

METHODIST CHURCH

Sermon topics for next Sunday will be, "The Repose of the Soul," in the morning and in the evening, eminent workmen. At the opening service there will be the annual installation of the newly elected officers of the Epworth League.

This being "Pentecost Sunday," it will be the time for reception of members in all the Christian churches by the Inter-church World movement. The doors of our church will be open Sunday morning for all who wish to unite with us.

ST. MATTHEW'S CHURCH

Whitsunday, May 23rd, 1920. Holy communion, 8:00 a. m.; church service, 10 a. m.; holy communion, 11:00 a. m.

DEAN J. J. DIXON, Priest-in-charge.

All members of the I. O. O. F. are urged to attend lodge next Tuesday evening as it will be election of officers. Alliance lodge will observe May 30 as Memorial day. All branches of the order will attend memorial services at the First Baptist church May 30 at 8 o'clock p. m.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. and close at 10:45 a. m. Please note this change in time. Reasons for this change will be enumerated at the Sunday school hour next Sunday morning. Let every one be on time. The banner class percentage of attendance on time and the roll of each class will be taken when Sunday school begins. One reason for this change of time is that as we use the same auditorium that is used for the church service, we ought to be through with our school and make it possible for people to assemble for the church service a few minutes before the beginning of the service at 11 o'clock. Then there are other reasons. Come and see.

Morning worship, 11 a. m. "The Educational Crises in America." A theme for all of us to consider.

Evening service, 8 p. m. A saved individual is one who is seeking to do the will of God. More about this

The Christian endeavor society meets at 7 p. m. A fine hour of fellowship and training. The meeting is on "Stewardship," and is led by Miss Vera Spencer.

A week from next Sunday is Memorial Sunday and special observance will be made Sunday morning. The choir presents special music at every service. You will enjoy these services. Com. First Presbyterian Church. A. J. KEARNS, Pastor.

The music, the floor and the crowd are all three good at the Wednesday and Saturday night dances at the Armory. If you feel like having a good enjoyable evening Saturday, come.
