Extraordinary Sale of Women's Suits

Worth $25.00 to $30.00—Choice of 30 New Models, Three of Which We Illustrate, at - - - - $15

An Epoch Making Event in the Buying and Selling of Women's Suits

THESE ARE NO HASTILY PLANNED AND CHEAPLY EXECUTED SUITS, BOUGHT MERELY TO MAKE A SALE, BUT THEY ARE FROM OUR SMARTEST TAILORS, WHOSE WORKMANSHIP, STYLES AND FABRICS UNITE IN MAKING THEM THE MOST DISTINGUISHED IN THEIR LINE.

Never before has a collection of suits in such a variety of models, such startling values and such attractive materials been offered to our patrons at so modest a price.

Hard to please, indeed, would be the woman who could fail to find "just what she wants" among so varied an assortment. They run the entire gamut, from severely tailored styles to the most elaborate and bewitching types. Cloth makers have exhausted their ingenuity in weaves and colorings.

Black and white checks, pin-striped serges, worsteds with hairline stripes, are some of the fabrics in the more mannish suits.

The English homespuns and the sackings belong to the same family, though a more striking air is given them by their unusual weaves and colors in stripes of blended effects. Shadow-striped serges, wide wales and diagonals, boucle cloth in fresh Spring tones, whipcords and fancy worsteds are all represented, while mannish and French serges receive every treatment that handsome and elaborate braidings, satin, laces, embroidery, terry cloth and ratine, bengaline in plain colors and stripes, taffeta, batiste and linen can give.

The linings vie with the outer fabrics in elegance and variety. They include peau de cygne in plain colors and two-tones, twill silk, Faille Francaise and peau de soie. Most of these Suits were so recently made and purchased that our receiving department force is busy unpacking them as this advertisement goes to print. Every woman who wishes a full selection from this wonderful offering should come in the EARLY MORNING and avoid the crush of the later hours. Bona fide $25 to $30 suits, tomorrow, at $15

ALL SIZES FROM 32 TO 44, BUT NOT IN EVERY STYLE. NO MAIL OR C. O. D. ORDERS FILLED IN THIS SALE.
