"THE MOST ACCURATE AND INTERESTING HISTORY OF AMERICAN REVOLUTION EVER PUBLISHED.

NOW READY: THE

Pictorial Field-Book

—OF—

THE REVOLUTION;

Or, Illustrations, by Pen and Pencil, of the History, Biography, Scenery, Relics, and Traditions of the War for Independence.

BY BENSON J. LOSSING.

Two Volumes Royal Octavo, containing upward of 1500 pages, and 1100 Engravings. Price Cloth, $6,00; Sheep extra, $7 00; Embossed Leather, $7 00; Half Calf, $9 00, Morocco, gilt edges, $15 00.

The preparation of this work occupied the Author MORE THAN FOUR YEARS, during which he traveled NEARLY TEN THOUSAND MILES, in order to visit the prominent scenes of the Revolution, gather up local traditions, and explore records and histories.

The object of the Author was to reproduce the history of the American Revolution in such an attractive manner as to entice the youth of his country to read the wonderful story, and become familiar with the founders of our Republic and the value of their labors. The manner in which it has been arranged and set forth renders it no less attractive to the general reader and the ripe scholar of more mature years.

Explanatory notes are given on every page and also a biographical sketch of every man distinguished in the events of the Revolution.

A copious Analytical Index is given at the close of the second Volume, embracing eighty-five closely printed pages.

This is in itself, a complete synopsis of the History and biography of the period of our Revolutionary History, and will be found exceedingly useful for reference.

The work contains all the essential facts of the early history of our Republic, which are scattered through scores of volums, often inaccessable to the great mass of readers. It forms a complete Guide Book to the tourist seeking for the fields consecrated by patriotism, which lie scattered over our broad land.

Upward of THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS were expended in the preparation of this work. The exquisite engravings, under the immediate supervision of the Author, from his drawings, required the greatest care in printing. To this end the efforts of the Publishers have been directed, and they take great pleasure in presenting these volumes as the best specimens of typography ever issued from the American press.

Sold only by Subscriptions.

☞ The Agent may assure Subscribers that the work cannot be obtained at the Bookstores, and that the price will never be less than above named.

J. A. FREELAND is only authorized agent to solicit subscriptions for this book, in the Parish of Ouachita and Morehouse.
