BUTTERFLY GIRL HURT IN JOY RIDE AFTER GAY BALL

Helena Gilbert's Giddy Career Probably Ended by Crash of Automobile.

Miss Helene Gilbert, the beautiful young woman who flashed like some tropic butterfly into the dance at Berry's cabaret, Far Rockaway, early yesterday morning and an hour later was lifted, torn and mangled, from the wreck of a heavy automobile on the Cedarhurst road, cannot live through the day, so the physicians at St. Joseph's Hospital, Far Rockaway, say. She lies unconscious and alone. But one friend called at the hospital early to-day to inquire as to the young woman's health, and she hurried away without leaving a name.

Helene Gilbert, whose daring ball costume of dead black silk, splashed with cerise, was the sensation of the night when she tripped out upon the floor at the gay cabaret dance in Far Rockaway, has lived five years in New York swiftly and dizzily. In more than one place where the white lights pale into the dawn her beauty and the sprightliness of her wit have made her a familiar figure. She came here from Montreal five years ago and had lived at No. 124 West Forty-sixth street until recently, when she moved to the Hotel Maryland at No. 104 West Forty-ninth street.

Miss Gilbert's beauty was wiped from her face with the swiftness of thought when the car in which she was riding with three jolly companions back from the dance skidded and crashed into a group of trees on the Cedarhurst road. Her skull was fractured, her features torn and disfigured and she received internal injuries which almost preclude the chance of recovery.

CHAUFFEUR IS HURT, BUT MAY RECOVER.

Thomas Sweeney of No. 709 Eighth avenue, who was the chauffeur of the car, is only little less worse off than the girl, so the hospital authorities said to-day. He has a fighting chance for recovery, though he is suffering from concussion of the brain and broken bones. He was still unconscious today. Andrew Lister of Rockville Centre, who was taken to Nassau Hospital, Mineola, will recover; he has only broken bones to be mended.

Andrew Bernac of No. 400 West Fifty-seventh street, and May Smith, of No. 211 East Fifty-fifth street, the other members of the joy riding party, were able to leave St. Joseph's Hosital late yesterday after their injuries had been attended to.

Sweeney is the chauffeur employed by H. Anspacher, No. 15 West Fifty-seventh street, who is summering with his family at the Nassau Hotel, Long Beach, and it was in Anspacher's rented machine, the property of the Naughton & Mulgrew Motor Cab Company of No. 153 East Fifty-third street, that the joy riders went to the cabaret dance.

Saturday afternoon Sweeney got permission from his employer to go to New York by train; but he took the auto out of a garage at Rockville Centre instead, met the two men and their women companions on the 7 o'clock train from New York and drove them to the Rockville Centre Hotel.

After the early part of the evening had been spent there in drinking and hilarity the trip was made to Berry's hotel and thence, after the dancing, the party started for the early morning spin to New York which ended in the accident.

SHOT AS HE SLEPT BY ASSASSIN AT WINDOW.

"Yoshky Nigger" Badly Scared as He Loses Portion of His Skull.

An echo of the east side horse-poisoning cases was heard early to-day when Joseph Toblinsky, known as "Yoshky Nigger," told the police that he had been shot as he lay in bed by a man standing outside on the fire-escape. One bullet buried itself in the wall; the second ploughed through about two inches of Toblinsky's scalp.

Toblinsky, who is twenty-seven years old and No. 7155 in the Rogue's Gallery, is at liberty on $5,000 bail. He was arrested on complaint of Max Levine of No. 65 Rutgers street in connection with horse poisoning threats. Toblinsky is credited with membership in the Yiddish Camorra, and declares that east side stable men have raised a fund to have him assassinated.

The shooting created much excitement in the tenement at No. 39 Montgomery street. Toblinsky and his wife were asleep in their room at the rear of the ground floor. Policeman Hickson of the Madison street station quieted the tenants and called Dr. Graben of Gouverneur Hospital.

Love Will Find a Way.

One of the strangest things in this world is how a bright young woman can coax a timid lover along by making him believe he is a bold thing.

PRETTY SINGER WHO WAS HURLED FROM AUTO; NOW DYING

HELENE GILBERT

Ends Life With Gas in Brother's Home.

The body of Thomas Williams was found last night in the apartment of his brother-in-law, I. P. Pierson, at No. 660 West One Hundred and Eightieth street. Williams had been occupying the apartment with Chapin Ropes during the absence of the Pierson family. Williams was found in bed with two gas jets turned on. He left no note and no motive for the deed can be found. He was forty-five years old and had formerly been a breeder of fancy dogs.

$62,000 FROM REFUSE HEAP.

Old Smelter Leakage Expected to Yield $25,000 More.

KANSAS CITY, July 22.—Gold, silver and other valuable metals from an old smelter dump at Argentine, Kas., have yielded $62,000 in the last thirteen months. The site is now occupied by a structural steel company. Officers of the steel company to-day said they believed $25,000 more in metal is in the dump. It is said that the company paid $45,000 for the property.

In the years of the old Argentine smelter the metal splashed from the ladles and escaped through crevices in the floors of the buildings. The smelter suspended operations fifteen years ago.

Dr. Deimel (LINEN-MESH) Underwear

One of these hot days try a suit of Dr. Deimel Underwear and see how marvellously it keeps your skin dry despite the humidity.

It's that unique linen-mesh fabric. Linen is the quickest textile to absorb moisture and the quickest to dry again. Having the linen in the mesh form makes the process quicker still.

Dr. Deimel Linen-Mesh Underwear is therefore ideal for perspiration weather.
