Valentine Wright, brother of Mose Wright, and well known in this county, of which he was a former resident, left Saturday with his wife and son for Downs, Kas., his present home. He took with him four car loads of spuds, which he plans to dispose of to the Kansas trade. He had a good time visiting Alliance friends, but wanted to be sure to be home by election day, so he and his wife could cast a vote for Governor Allen.

Men's fashion notes say patch pockets are to go, but patched trousers will still be worn.

A Danish exile kept out of sight in the United States for forty-seven years, and sugar seems to be going after his record.

The last two days have been productive of a number of straw votes, and strange as it may seem, they have been favorable to whichever side took them. We learn, for instance, of a pool at Joe Smith's billiard emporium at 10 a. m. Sunday, which disclosed 13 democrats, 2 republicans and 1 socialist. At 10 p. m., in the same place, a second pool was taken with this result—12 democrats, 2 republicans, 0 socialists. At 11 p. m., at Everett Cook's, there were present 15 democrats and 5 republicans. Hooray for our side.
