ARTICLE IV.

The capital stock of this corporation is hereby fixed at ten thousand dollars, to be divided into four hundred shares at the par value of twenty-five dollars each, which shall be paid for in cash, labor performed or property conveyed, which stock shall be non-assessible. Transfer of stock shall be made only on the books of the company, under such rules and by-laws as may be established by the board of directors. This corporation shall commence business when three thousand dollars of stock shall be subscribed and paid for.

ARTICLE V.

All powers of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors, composed of three stockholders, said directors shall be elected annually by the stockholders on the first day of February of each year, commencing February 1, 1913. At such election each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote on each share of stock held by him. In case of any vacancy on the board, said vacancy shall be filled by the remaining directors. The board of directors shall continue in office until their successors shall have been elected and qualified, and their failure to hold meetings shall not have the effect of rendering this charter null. Meetings of stockholders shall be held only after ten days' notice of such meeting shall have been given by the Secretary-Treasurer in writing, either in person or by mail, to each stockholder ten days prior to said meeting.

Any member of the board absent from the city or unable to attend a meeting may give his proxy to another director to represent him at such meetings. The board of directors shall, immediately after their election, appoint out of their number a President, a Vice President and a Secretary-Treasurer. The first board shall hold office until Feb. 1, 1913, or until their successors are elected, and said first board of directors shall be composed of James S. Gautreaux, Joseph Mailhes and Michel S. Mailhes, with James S. Gauthreaux, President; Joseph Mailhes, Vice President, and Michel S. Mailhes, Secretary-Treasurer.

ARTICLE VI.

This charter may be amended or the corporation dissolved or ordered liquidated by three-fourths of the stock present and voting at a meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose, after the notice is given as above profided for.

ARTICLE VII.

Whenever this company shall be dissolved, either by liquidation or expiration of charter or otherwise, three liquidators shall be appointed by the stockholders at a general meeting held after the notice above shall have been given. The liquidators shall remain in office until the full liquidation of the company, and in case of death or resignation or inability to act of one of the liquidators, the stockholders shall elect a successor as above provided for, and until such appointment the surviving liquidators shall act.

ARTICLE VIII.

No stockholder shall ever be held responsible or liable for the faults or obligations of the company beyond the unpaid balance that may be due by them in the stock subscribed by them; and no informality in organization shall have the effect of rendering this charter null or exposing the stockholders to any liability beyond the said unpaid balance that may be due on their stock subscription.

THUS DONE AND PASSED, in my office, 317 Carondelet street, this city, on the day, month and year hereinabove written, in the presence of Messieurs William Christianson and John J. McCloskey, competent witnesses, who hereunto sign their names with the said apeparers and me, notary, the said appearers writing opposite their names the number of shares of stock subscribed by them, which shall act as the stock subscription list.
