NOTES OF A PAID AMATEUR

BY BOZEMAN BULGER.

AFTER a long and laborious fight Charles Historical Ebbets got his opening scheduled for April 8, a day before the other teams fire their first shot. They refused to let him get away happy, however, by inquiring what he would do in case of rain or snow.

Now come Miller Huggins and George Stallings with a complaint. It is all right for Brooklyn and Philadelphia to get the handicap of a day's start, they admit, but they want to know why St. Louis and Boston should be compelled to start from the scratch with teams of the first division.

CARRYING WEIGHT FOR AGE.

John E. Bruce, Secretary of the National Commission, goes back to Cincinnati financially satisfied, but much lighter in cargo. On the incoming trip he complained continually about the excessive weight of his handbag, and had to pay double price to have it carried from the train. While searching for a boiled shirt for dinner the first night in New York he discovered that he had carted all the way from Cincinnati a thirty-pound paving brick. It seems that some one tried to slip the brick to Joe Flanner, who immediately transferred it to the satchel of the honored secretary. The commission will investigate.

NOT KNOCKING, NOR ANYTHING LIKE THAT.

While making a speech at the dinner given by McGraw to Frank Foharty, Johnny Evers gave as an illustration of his regard for the Giant manager the fact that he had put his brother under McGraw's charge for a year.

"Don't try to hand us that complimentary stuff any more, Johnny," spoke up Jimmy Callahan. "I have a hunch that you sent him there to tip off the signals."

AND THAT ENDED M'CAFFERY'S SPEECH.

Owner McCaffery of the pennant-winning Toronto club, who is of Republican leaning, was raking Manager Joe Kelley, a dyed-in-the-wool politician, over the coals in a speech, in which he remarked: "The trouble with Kelley is that he gets my baseball club and the Democratic party mixed up."

"Well, you notice," drawled Joe from a distance, "they both win."

THE ARTISTIC TEMPERAMENT.

Mike Donlin ran across Rube Marquard while the latter was starring in vaudeville in Chicago. When Mike was there before he was the big star, and, naturally, was a little peeved at Rube's superlative air.

"What do you suppose he pulled on me?" Donlin said to Tommy Ratty. "Why, while I was talking with him his valet—sure, he's got one—came up and asked: 'Mr. Marquard, have you seen Miss Seeley's maid?' And I'd bet my life," added Mike, "that big left-handed stringbean had that rehearsed for my especial benefit!"

DID YOU EVER TRY IT AT $15,000?

A headline in The Evening World, reading: "It is easier to live on $15 a week than on a salary of $15,000 a year," got a wide circulation at the joint baseball meeting. President Navin of Detroit immediately mailed a copy to Ty Cobb, and in an hour thereafter other owners fell in line and a clipping was sent to every holdout in the business. If it works The E. W. is entitled to a commission.

CUTTING DOWN THE COST OF LIVING.

The baseball magnates are immensely pleased with the bar checks at the McAlpin. They are not only a different color, but Joe Kelley and Willie Keeler declare after eating a half dozen of them a certain member of their party found them much more palatable and digestible than those pink ones at the Waldorf.

AND BIG LARRY HAS SIGNED THE PLEDGE.

Joe Tinker ran all around the lobby with $10,000 in his pocket and a proposition to buy drinks for anybody that would even put him on the track of a catcher. This reminds us of the fact that it was a few drinks that kept Larry McLean from having the job now.

FROM THE FRYING-PAN INTO THE FIRE.

It is none of our business and neither is it a hint, but, somehow, we are curious to know why Charley Ebbets is going to have the dinner in celebration of the opening of his new park in what his plans and specifications call the "Ivory Arcade" instead of at the "Mahogany Inn," where the last one was pulled off by the Chowder and Marching Club?

KID WILLIAMS GIVEN AWARD OVER CAMPI IN HURRICANE BOUT

Twenty-Round Battle at Los Angeles Anybody's Up to Fifteenth Round.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 12.—Kid Williams won a twenty-round decision over Eddie Campi in one of the fastest and most sensational fights ever held here. It was speed from start to finish and was anybody's contest up to the fifteenth round.

For the first ten rounds Campi easily outpointed Williams, and in the twelfth it looked like Eddie would win by a knockout. In that round Williams looked tired and Eddie was going great guns.

The decision was anything but a satisfactory one, and will call for another match between these two boys before the question of supremacy is definitely settled.

On boxing points alone Campi won. But he did several things that no doubt caused Charlie Eyton to take credit from him. These principally were Eddie's constant holding in the clinches and hitting at times with his open gloves.

Campi had a decided advantage in reach and height and put these to good account. He also made good use of his straight left. As the contest progressed it was quite plain that Williams was easy to hit with a right punch, but strange to say Campi did not take advantage of this until the last three rounds, and then it appeared to be too late. Eddie was also lacking in his countering and this was Williams's strong point.

Williams did not win by a big margin by any means, and has little to brag about.

Coffey Knocks Out Carpenter.

Chance Off for Camp Saturday

Frank Chance, P. L., of the New Yorks, will start for the training quarters at Bermuda much sooner than expected. He will leave Saturday, accompanied by Business Manager Irwin, Roy Hartsell and probably Hal Chase. The pitchers and Catcher Ed Sweeney will follow a week later, while on March 1 the rest of the men will sail. Chance wants to be in condition so he can put the men through the stiffest kind of paces after they limber up.

The National League solons got together again yesterday at the Hotel McAlpin and ratified the schedule for games as announced. There was no opposition to Charley Ebbets's plan to open on April 9 at the new Ebbets Field with the Phillies, as that date was given for the opening in Brooklyn instead of April 17.

YALE SEVEN CRACKS AND TIGERS GLOAT

When First Half Ended It Looked as If Blue Would Win Contest.

During the first twenty-minute period between the Princeton Hockey team and the Yale seven at the St. Nicholas Rink last night, it looked as if the sons of Old Eli would take a big bite out of the Tiger. The half ended with the count 1 to 0 in favor of the Blue team. But something happened to the New Haven aggregation during the ten-minute rest, and in the second period they went to pieces, while the redoubtable "Hobey" Baker and his teammates kept sizzling the puck into the Blue team cage. When the game was over the electric score board flashed, Princeton, 8; Yale, 2.

It was the stirring racquet work of Neal G. Stevens, the former Yale star, and E. T. Dodd of California that stood out most prominently in the opening rounds of the fourteenth annual holding of the national indoor lawn tennis championship tournament on the courts of the Seventh Regiment Armory. Stevens worked the great reversal of the form round by defeating William B. Cragin Jr., the regimental champion, after three grueling sets at 1—6, 7—5, 8—6.

Harold F. McCormick of the University Club, Chicago, won the championship at racquets at Tuxedo Park, defeating Earnest Greenshields Jr. of the Tennis and Racquet Club of Montreal three games to one in the final round for the gold racquet championship on the courts of the Tuxedo Tennis and Racquet Club.

William Rosette of the Irish-American Athletic Club struggled to victory in the Brooklyn-Sea Gate Marathon run held under the direction of Battery E of the Thirteenth Regiment. The sturdy runner of the Irish-American Athletic Club snatched victory from Harry Jensen, the amateur "Marathon King," in the last two miles by a gritty finish that came as a fitting climax to a cruel, gruelling race under conditions that were almost impossible. Rosette made his way over the ice-covered, wind-swept roads in 2 hours 53 minutes 8 seconds, and finished as fresh and strong as one who had been under such a strain might be asserted to be.
