McCarty Does Fexy Stunt by Agreeing to Take On Flynn.

Copyright, 1913, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York World).

LUTHER McCARTY is matched to box Jim Flynn six rounds in Philadelphia April 14.

This protects Luther from being angered by challenges during the next three or four weeks. Foxy stunt, taking on little Flynn, who was knocked out by McCarty in Los Angeles a few months ago, and using him as a buffer to keep off Willard, Gunboat Smith and others who might be dangerous!

Probably McCarty will get a thousand or so for boxing Flynn—after turning down $10,000 for boxing Wells. But, of course, there's little doubt of the outcome of a bout with Flynn.

Willard writes rather indignantly from Chicago. He repudiates statements given out by the managers of both Smith and McCarty, to the effect that he has turned down offers for fights. Willard says that he has been ready and willing to meet Wells, McCarty or Smith, and that he's more than anxious to meet either of the latter any old time that a purse is offered.

PROBABLY Smith and Willard will be matched now that McCarty has taken on a side attraction. The outcome of this bout will be in doubt until it's over. Smith knows ten times as much about boxing as Willard, and he doesn't try to be the village cut-up during bouts, like the good-natured big cowpuncher. He settles right down to business. But is punching ability he has nothing on the giant.

Willard showed his punching power when he beat McCarty to a standstill in ten rounds. He showed it again in the bout with Kearns. In that fight Willard clowned around until Kearns hit him a number of good body punches. Then he became petulant for a moment, shot his right over just once, and helped the Soldier's seconds to carry him to his corner. Yes, Willard has the real "kick." He is big too, and can take a hard punch and fight back. So he may have a chance against Smith—a pretty good chance.

ANOTHER gentleman of the padded mitt who would like to make the acquaintance of that popular entertainer, Gunboat Smith, is Soldier Kearns. The Soldier has redeemed the reputation lost when Willard nicked him by stopping that tough old ram of the ring, Kubiak. As no one else has been turning this trick the Soldier believes it entitles him to a fight with anyone. He prefers the Gunboat, which shows that his heart is in the right place, at any rate.

The Soldier and his manager approached Jim Buckley, manager of Smith, soon after Smith defeated Wells. They announced Kearns's entire willingness to fight Smith. According to Bob Clark, Buckley answered the challenge by saying that Smith would give Kearns a chance to fight him for a $5,000 side bet.

"Which was, of course, only Buckley's way of running out," says Clark. "He knew Kearns wasn't making any $5,000 side bets, and for that matter he knew that his own 'side bet' talk was all a bluff. There aren't any side bets in fights now-a-days, and when a manager talks about 'five thousand dollar side bets' he might just as well hang out a sign telling the public that he is a cheap four-flusher."

WITH the Columbia crews out on the river, baseball only two weeks away, and outdoor track meets about to begin, it looks as if old winter's back is broken at last. Although this has been a pretty mild winter, for New York, nobody will go here mourning over its departure. Now for all the good old outdoor sports!

A. W. disputes the assertion that John L. Sullivan was once champion of the world. It's all right to dispute that now, A. W., but there was a day when nobody questioned John's right to be called champion, except from a distance of a few thousand miles.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN in his best time beat every crack heavyweight in this country. He knocked out Slade, the Maori, supposed to be champion of the Antipodes. He went to England and publicly offered to fight Jem Smith, heavyweight champion of England, for nothing, and agree to give Smith a few thousand dollars if he stayed four rounds. Overcome by the audacity of such a challenge, Smith refused to fight Sullivan under any circumstances. John returned to America. Not long after that he began to lose his fighting form, through dissipation. He wasn't the great Sullivan when he fought Mitchell in France, or when he avoided Jackson and Fitzsimmons, picking Jim Corbett as an easier mark. When Corbett beat Sullivan at New Orleans John L. was a fat man, possessing few fighting qualities aside from a stout heart and the pride that goes with a championship.

Corbett beat Sullivan, and was acclaimed "champion of the world." He wouldn't have won a world's championship had not Sullivan held the title.

George Burns Sure of Becoming the Giants' Regular Left Fielder

Batting and Fielding in a Way That's Bound to Give Him Devore's Job.

Galveston, Tex., March 24.

IT looks like a sure thing that George Burns will be used regularly in left field by Manager McGraw of the Giants this coming National League season. The way he has been playing both in the field and at the bat completely overshadows anything that his predecessor, Josh Devore, ever did at his best.

Burns is doing particularly well at the bat, his hitting being both timely and hard. In yesterday's game he was responsible for most of the runs that the Giant regulars scored against hte Galveston Texas League team. The score was 8 to 1. His single in the third inning sent a run scampering across the plate, while it was his triple in the fifth that sent two runs over the plate.

Jeff Tesreau pitched five innings and George Wiltse four. Only two hits were made off the Ozark bear. The lone run made off him was unearned. Only one hit was made off "Hooks."

Gene Moore, a big left-hander, who was tried out by the Reds last season, was in the box for the miners, and did well, with the exception of the last session on the mound, when he was clonted for five runs. Hiet, a recruit Manager Jim Maloney picked up off the corner lots, twirled during the last four innings, and the Giants only found him for one run. The Regulars were tickled to pieces because of the result of the game, as it was a case of getting even for the defeat the locals handed to the Colts on Saturday.

Colts Bat Ball Hard And Easily Win Game Over Houston Team.

HOUSTON, Tex., March 24.—The Colts of the Giants were good and sore for their defeat at the hands of Galveston on Saturday, so they took it out of the local team, whom they whipped to the tune of 7 to 3. They hammered out twelve hits.

On account of the strong wind which the batters had to hit against, Cooper's two-base hit was the only extra base hit of the game. Jim Thorpe was loudly applauded by the spectators every time he stepped to the plate, and the big Indian responded with three slashing singles out of five times at the bat. Jim gave the many people who had just come to see him in action a rare treat by his dashing base running and sped along the paths like a streak of lightning.

The redskin evidently made a hit with the Texans, as the bus could hardly get through the crowd who had waited to see him at close range after the game was over. Cooper, Fletcher and Robertson batted timely for the Colts, each succeeding in getting two safe bingles apiece. Groh's stop of Hoffman's hard grounder was the fielding feature of the game.

Demaree pitched the first five innings and Schupp the last four for the Colts. Demaree was the more effective with men on bases and only one run was scored against him. Although only one hit was made off Schupp in the four innings he pitched, the youngster was rather wild and issued four bases on balls, which placed him in a bad hole on several occasions.

Ray and Hightower did the hurling for Houston and were hit freely. Hightower was wild and passed five batters in the last four innings he pitched.

Another Club About to Enter Already Crowded Boxing Field

Paddock A. C. to Open Its Doors for the First Time Next Monday Night.

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

ALTHOUGH you could count on one hand the number of boxing clubs that are making money in this State, it doesn't keep other promoters from venturing into the game. Last week saw the opening of the Atlantic Garden A. C., while next Monday night will mark the opening of the Paddock A. C. on Fourth street. This club received its license at the same time as the Bowery club.

Billy Gibson probably has made more money out of the game than anybody in the commonwealth. The McMahon boys, too, have made a profit with their shows, but as for the other promoters most of them are losing money right and left. There are very few of the original thirty-five clubs who received licenses to run from the State Commission who are still doing business.

The reason for the clubs failing to make a success of the sport are the big guarantees demanded by the boxers, the lack of good men in this section of the country, the high cost of conducting a big club and the State tax of 5 per cent. of the gross receipts. Despite all this, Jack Doherty, who has been identified with the ring sport for twenty years, thinks he can make a go of the Paddock A. C., and for the opening show has made a match between Willie Beecher and Danny Ridge, two east side boys.

Frank Gelvin, the old-time fighter and now a six-day bike rider, has just returned from a three months' stay in Europe. He now has Charles Ledoux, the crack French bantam, under his wing and he is negotiating for a match for him with Kid Williams of Baltimore. Ledoux was to have accompanied Gelvin to this country, but on the day he was supposed to sail his wife was stricken with appendicitis, but as she is now on the road to recovery he will sail just as soon as he manages to settle his boat so is matched.

Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight champion, is now on his way to New York, having sailed Saturday on board the Mauretania. Harry Pollok, who is looking after his affairs, is trying hard to arrange a match for his man against Willie Ritchie, the American champion. A year ago, when Ritchie was virtually a novice, the pair met and Welsh received the decision at the end of an interesting twenty-round bout. Ritchie, took the bout at short notice, as Ad. Wolgast, who was then champion, was scheduled to face the Briton, but he had to cancel the match owing to being operated on for appendicitis.

Local boxing promoters expect to do a bigger business now that Lent is over. Most of the clubs suffered a big falling off in attendance during the lenty season, especially last week when some of them didn't want to take a chance and kept their doors closed. There's nothing very big in sight this week, but the clubs that do put on shows should draw better than they have for some time.

Johnny Dundee, the lightweight champion, [illegible]

as one person, at least, who thinks that Luther McCarty is a great fighter. In speaking about the cowboy's ability a few nights ago little Coulon said that he is certain if McCarty and Gunboat Smith ever meet that Luther will surely defeat him. "I have catched McCarty meet all comers," said Coulon, "and I can't figure where Smith has a chance of winning from him."

Tom McCarey, fight promoter of Los Angeles, has already opened negotiations for a contest between Luther McCarty and Gunboat Smith, the battle to take place at Vernon, Cal., on the afternoon of July 4. McCarey has already got in communication with the managers of both fighters in regard to the match, and it looks like a cinch that it will be clinched.

Mike Rosen, the fast bantamweight of Jersey City, who is developing into a great little fighter, added another victory to his bill on Saturday night at the Brown Gymnasium A. A., by easily defeating Young Rieger the Hoboken bantam, in ten round go. Rosen took the place of Eddie Doyle who was overweight.

Young Ahearn, who is under management of Dan Morgan now, won a clean cut victory by knocking out Charley Pierson, the Kansas City welterweight, in the second round of a ten-round go at the Atlantic Garden A. C. show on Saturday night. A short right hand swing to the jaw put Pierson out. At the same show Young O'Leary outpointed Milton Biere in the second ten-round bout.

Three ten-round bouts will be put on at the Brooklyn Beach A. C. of South Brooklyn tomorrow night. K. O. Jack O'Donnell will meet Harlem Tommy Tompkins, Australian Charley Griffin will go against Harry Condon, and Paddy Sullivan will tackle Willie Schaefer.

PALMETTO DERBY WINDS UP RACE MEET AT CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 24.—To-day's races marked the opening of the last week of the sport at Palmetto Park. The meeting will close Saturday with the feature event of the season, the Palmetto Derby. It is certain another meeting will be held here next season, which will open directly after the Jamestown races close in the fall.

Benny Meyers, Toronto Outfielder, Joins the Dodgers at Augusta, Ga.

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 24.—Benny Meyers, the great outfielder the Brooklyn club secured from the Toronto club of the International League, has reported to Manager Bill Dahlen. Meyers arrived here yesterday and informed Dahlen that he will only need about ten days in which to get into the best of shape, as he has been taking the best of care of himself since the season closed. The exhibition game between the Dodgers and Ty Cobb's All-Georgians, which has been postponed several times on account of the inclement weather, will be played to-day providing the grounds are in good condition.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 24.—The Chicago Cubs made a show of the Memphis Club of the Southern League in an exhibition game yesterday by winning from them by a score of 17 to 1. The cubs hammered the curves of the local pitchers, Krob, Freeman and Needles, to all parts of the field for twenty safe drives, Zimmerman getting three of the hits. Reulbach and Cheney twirled for the Cubs and had the locals completely at their mercy.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 24.—By defeating the Louisville team of the American Association by a score of 7 to 6, the Athletics captured the second game of the series of three games. The feature of the game was the terrific batting of Home Run Baker who made a triple, a double and a single out of four times at the bat.

BEAUMONT, Tex., March 24.—The Philadelphia American League recruits had to play their hardest in order to win from the Beaumont Club of the Texas League, the final score being 2 to 1. Peaster, the star twirler of the local team pitched a splendid game, only allowing the Philadelphians to make one safe hit in five innings.

MOBILE, Ala., March 24.—George Mullin of the Detroit Club was in good pitching form yesterday, and as a result the Tigers defeated the Mobile Southern League team by a score of 5 to 1. Mullin was only hit safely twice during the five innings that he was in the box.

FORT WORTH, Tex., March 24.—The St. Louis Club of the American League was beaten in an exhibition game here yesterday by Fort Worth team by a score of 3 runs to 1. Phillips did the twirling for the locals and pitched in masterly fashion, only allowing the visitors to make one safe hit off his delivery in seven innings.

NEW ORLEANS, March 24.—In a one-sided game here the Cleveland Club of the American League defeated the New Orleans Southern League team, 7 to 4. The feature of the game was the home run by Jackson of Cleveland in the third inning.

HOLLYWOOD INN ELEVEN TO PLAY YONKERS FOR CUP.

The Hollywood Inn eleven has earned the right to meet the Yonkers team for the $500 Dewar Cup, emblematic of the championship of the American Amateur Football Association, which will take place the middle of next month. In the semi-final game of the series, which was witnessed by 5,000 people, the Hollywoods defeated the Clan McDonalds by a score of 3 to 1.

CHASE READY TO PLAY AGAIN.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, March 24.—New York fans will undoubtedly be greatly pleased to learn that Hal Chase, who is considered one of the greatest infielders in the history of the diamond, is ready to get back in the game. It was on March 8 that he hurt his ankle in a practice game between the Colts and the Regulars, and at the time it was thought that it would be several weeks before he would again be able to play. Trainer Doc Barrett gave the star a thorough examination and tested the injured right ankle in many ways, after which he pronounced it just as strong as ever. Chase is tickled to death at the prospects of resuming play, and in to-morrow's game between the Highlanders and the Skeeters he will cavort at second base. There are many things he still has to learn about covering the middle station, and he hopes by the time his team meets the Dodgers in the series at Brooklyn next month that he will prove to the fans that Manager Chance made a good move when he converted him from a first sack guardian to a second baseman.

ENGLAND'S FLAT RACING SEASON IS STARTED

LONDON, March 24.—The English flat-racing season opened to-day at the Kempton Park racetrack, just outside London. The opening was devoid of gayety because of the Court mourning for King George of Greece. The King and Queen were not in attendance, as had been planned. The most important event on the card was the Queen's Prize, a mile and a half race for $5,000. For this contest there were three American entries—August Belmont's Monotone and Louis Winans's Dalmatian and Rot's Pride.

This week's racing will be in the nature of a curtain-raiser, for no Britisher feels that the season has opened until the Lincoln meeting with the big Lincolnshire Handicap.

While the death of the late James R. Keene has left a big gap in the ranks of the American sportsmen who yearly try for English turf prizes, there is still a strong contingent left, headed by Harry Payne Whitney, August Belmont, H. B. Duryea and Charles Carroll.
