Kneisel Quartet In Final Concert

BY SYLVESTER RAWLING.

THE Kneisel Quartet gave the sixth and last concert of its twenty-first season in New York at Aeolian Hall last night. The Beethoven quartet in A minor, opus 132, was the opening number. It was played with all the devotional skill to be expected of the accomplished musicians that make up Mr. Kneisel's organization, but the impression that this composition of the master's—one of his latest—is too long and too full of repetitions would not down. Next came Dvorak's terzetto in C major, opus 74, for two violins and viola, that, if for nothing else, made a cheering contrast. At the end there was Schubert's quintet in C major, in which the assisting 'cellist was our old friend Leo Schulz of the Philharmonic Orchestra. The sprightliness of the work and the masterfulness with which it was played sent everybody home in good humor. The audience was large, sympathetic and, for a Kneisel audience, enthusiastic.

HUNDREDS TURNED AWAY FROM AN EXTRA "AIDA."

"Aida," at an extra performance at the Metropolitan Opera House last night, with Caruso in the cast, drew another capacity audience, with hundreds turned away. The crush in the Broadway lobby was so great that, once or twice, the doors had to be shut. Caruso sang "Celeste Aida" in exquisite taste. It was a pity that the boxholders did not arrive in time to hear it; but then Verdi should have anticipated the habits of modern New York society and saved the aria, say, for the second act. The verities? What matter? Only the standees, packed to the limit behind the rail and the people in the galleries would care.

Johanna Gadski, impersonating Aida for the first time this season, was at her best, and the audience recognized it in no uncertain fashion. Her singing was altogether admirable. Amato, as Amonasro, seemed to wish to show how wrong he was that he was not singing Cyrano, for never has he done better in the part. Louise Homer, as always, was a stunning Amneris. For the rest, there were Rossi as the King, De Segurola as Ramfis, Audisio as the Messenger and Lenora Sparkes as the unseen Priestess, all attractive, beside a fine chorus, an acceptable ballet and a fine spectacle, Mr. Polacco conducting with authority as well as with skill.

Capsized in East River; Saved.

As he rowed out about midnight to take up his shift as watchman on the Docks and Ferries Department derrick lying in the East River, about 150 feet off One Hundred and Twenty-third street, Hugh Gallagher got into a choppy cross current and was capsized. Though twice washed off, he managed to cling to his boat until picked up by Patrolman Farrell, who heard his cries and went out in another rowboat. Gallagher was taken to Harlem Hospital.

Thief Robs New York Woman.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 9.—Mrs. Alice J. Seiger of New York, who is visiting a sister, Mrs. W. A. Burbank, reported to the police that a thief entered her room last night and took a handbag containing several diamonds and $100.

P. F. M'GOWAN BURIED; 1,500 ATTEND SERVICE IN ST. ANN'S CHURCH

Many Persons Prominent in Official and Political Life Join in Paying Last Honors.

The funeral of Patrick F. McGowan, President of the Board of Aldermen under Mayor McClellan, took place today in St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church, East Twelfth street, between Third and Fourth avenues. Fifteen hundred persons attended. Requiem mass was celebrated by Father Thomas J. Mynan, pastor of St. Ann's, assisted by Father Francis Sullivan, chaplain of the Police Department, and the Rev. Thomas A. Barry, a sub-deacon.

Led by a funeral coach piled high with wreaths of flowers, the funeral procession, more than a quarter of a mile long, left the McGowan home at No. 224 East Twelfth street, at 10 o'clock. Ahead of the carriage marched more than 300 representatives of the social, fraternal and religious bodies, including the Royal Arcanum, Legion of Honor, Loyal Association, Friendly Sons of St. Patrick, Pensacola Club, Manhattan Club, Catholic Club and American-Irish Historical Society, of which Mr. McGowan was president.

The pallbearers were C. Louis Duval, Dr. Charles H. Chetwood, the McGowan family physician; Thomas W. Churchill, Franklin Simon, P. J. Murphy, M. A. McCormick, James E. Dillon, P. J. Foster, Moses Hermann, Louis Stern, John Whalen, Patrick Jones, H. L. Joyce, Joseph F. McLaughlin, John W. Gorman and William Blake.

Among those who attended the services were Commissioner Waldo of the Police Department, Deputy Police Commissioners McKay and Dillon, Fire Commissioner Johnson, Commissioner Thompson of the Water Supply Department, Aldermen Walsh and Gaynor, Col. Klein, Jacob A. Cantor, Thomas F. McAvoy, Patrick R. McCue, Dr. Thomas Dwyer, District Superintendent of Schools in the Bronx; Park Commissioner Thomas F. Higgins of the Bronx, Judge G. F. Roesch, Joseph Haag, secretary of the Board of Estimate; William O'Connor, secretary of the Board of Aldermen; Supreme Regent T. T. McFaden of the Royal Arcanum, Howard F. Wiggins, Father John Roach, Herman Ridden, Edward E. McCall, chairman of the Public Service Commission, and John Fox.

J. H. McClenen Bids in Allis-Chalmers Property in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 9.—The Chicago property of the Allis-Chalmers Company, which was placed in the hands of a receiver a year ago, was sold for $1,000,000 to J. H. McClenen of New York.

NOTES OF THE THEATRES.

Miriam Clements, the English actress who is to play Lady Noeline Belturbet in the revival of "The Amazons," was a passenger on the Olympic and left at once to join Billie Burke in rehearsal at Lexington, Ky.

"Within the Law" reaches its 350th performance Saturday night. July 5 it starts on a month's vacation and then will continue running.

Arthur Hammerstein's first offering as a producer of musical farce will be "High Jinks," by Otto Hauerbach, author of "The Firefly," with music by Rudolf Friml. He will put it on at Chicago and then at a Shubert house here.

Contracts have been signed for Montgomery and Stone and Elsie Janis to play in "The Lady of the Slipper" in San Francisco during the Exposition in 1915.

The premiere of "Cooper Hoyt, Inc." in which Douglas Fairbanks returns to Broadway, takes place at Atlantic City April 21.

Directors of the Stage Children's Fund are looking for a country home to send the children to in the summer.

Well Known World Man Dead.

John Nevin, one of the oldest employes of The World, having been a member of the composing room force for nearly a quarter of a century, succumbed to a severe attack of pneumonia yesterday after a week's illness. His genial personality endeared him to every one in the building, and his sudden demise came as a great shock to his old associates, to whom "Jack's" presence and invariable good humor was ever a ray of sunshine. Funeral services will be held on Friday morning at 10 o'clock from St. Aloysius Church, West One Hundred and Thirty-second street.

YOUR HAIR IS FLUFFY, BEAUTIFUL, AND LUSTROUS IN A FEW MOMENTS

Girls! Get a 25-cent bottle of "Danderine" and try this. Also stops falling hair; destroys dandruff.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair, growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

BOWELS SLUGGISH, LIVER TORPID, HEADACHY, BILIOUS?—"CASCARETS"

No odds how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches; how miserable and uncomfortable you are from constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sluggish intestines—you always get the desired results with Cascarets.

Clean your stomach, liver and bowels to-night; end the headache, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sick, sour, gassy stomach, backache and all other distress; relieve your torpid liver and constipated bowels of all the sour bile, gases and clogged-up waste which is producing the misery.

A 10-cent box of Cascarets keeps your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and you feel cheerful and bully for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing too
