GRAHAM'S

American Monthly Magazine.

IN announcing his readiness to receive orders for the new volume, the editor does not know that he has any very brilliant ideas to hold out in large capitals to dazzle people's eyes—"Graham will be pretty much what it has been this volume, with some improvements which experience suggests. No number will contain less than 100 pages of reading matter, and the readers of "Graham" may rely with great confidence upon this,—that the volume shall contain over twelve hundred pages of the very best reading matter that capital can command from original sources, or taste select from the vast mass of available material.

The aim of the editor will be to produce a publication which shall be valuable in matter, and choice in taste and style; and he flatters himself, from the known talents of his contributors, that he will be able to present as many good original articles to his readers as any publication of the day. He shall not, however, hesitate to publish, from time to time, articles from English authors, and translations from the best German and French writers, provided the pieces have never before appeared in print in this country. Essays on important political subjects will likewise be inserted, and criticisms on the literature of America and the movements of the age. The review department, in which a large and liberal spirit of criticisms will always be maintained will be extended. For the defence of American literature the editor will always be ready; for the maintainance of a correct tone in the Magazine, he will, if possible, be still more watchful. Each number will contain an engraving from a splendid steel plate. In addition to the choice designs and engravings of Devereux, who will still supply illustrations for the text in the body of the book. The aim of the editor will not be, so much to increase the number of his engravings, as to secure for those he publishes the utmost finish which the artist can give them; for common wood cuts are so easily multiplied, that the most indifferent publication may outrank in dreary display the choicest periodical.

The editor does not feel, that with his own readers, he can increase his claims to their respect by insisting on any very great superiority of Graham over several similar publications, but thinks he may safely confide in their friendship for the Magazine, and in its past management for its present list, and such increase as naturally grows out of an extended circulation in a country where readers are multiplying so rapidly.

Of the January number the first edition will be 30,000 copies, and the editor trusts his old friends will be so prompt in renewing old clubs, and extending the list among new ones, that the first edition shall be but half of what the new year will ultimately establish as the permanent circulation of Graham.

Postage.—Subscribers in any part of the United States may now receive the Magazine, by mail, at three cents a number, or thirty-six cents a year postage, payable at the post-office where it is received.

TERMS.—The terms of Graham are $3 for single subscribers, if paid in advance For $6 in advance, one copy is sent three years. Two copies $5; five copies $10; eight copies $15; eleven copies $20.

Address, always post-paid,

GEORGE R. GRAHAM, Editor,
No. 50 South Third Street, Philadelphia.

A record of the beautiful and useful in Art.

THE object of this paper is to present, in the most elegant and available form, a weekly literary melange of notable events of the day. Its columns are devoted to original tales, sketches and poems, by the

SCOTT'S WEEKLY PAPER,

IS the the largest family journal in the United States. It has been acknowledged by the press, for six years past, and thousands of subscribers in letters to the publisher, as decidedly the best now published for the family circle, the farmer, the business man, the artisan the housewife, and the man of leisure. And, since its enlargement, it surpasses anything in the newspaper line ever attempted. It is conceeded by all to be the favorite family newspaper. Congressional proceedings are given in full during the session of Congress, and correspondents in most of the principal cities keep our readers advised of every incident of note occurring there. In matters of news our paper is second to none. The best original tales and stories appear in Scott's Weekly paper, and every attention is paid to procuring choice poetry, select reading, the latest news from all parts of the Globe, Reports of markets, stock tables, rates of discount, &c., &c.

Forty columns of reading matter!

Observe.—There is no deception in this statement. The forty columns are full length; each column is of the usual newspaper width, and is two feet six and a half inches long.

☞ The best way to determine the size and quality of newspapers is to send for specimens, before subscribing or making up Clubs. We prefer that our paper should be selected for its merits alone.

The Publisher is not connected with any other publication, and his whole time and attention are devoted to his favorite Weekly Paper. It will be perceived that, notwithstanding the size and character of the journal, the prices to Clubs are less than those of any other first-class journal in the world.

WHAT CAN BE HAD FOR FIVE DOLLARS.

THE undersigned have entered into an arrangement by which they agree to furnish the Knickerbocker Magazine, (monthly,) the Home Journal, (weekly,) and the Musical World and Times, (weekly,) to new subscribers, at the very moderate price of five dollars a year for the three publications; all orders, enclosing that amount to Dyer and Willis, will be promptly attended to.

Grand Literary and Artistic Combination.

Arrangements have been made to furnish the Knickerbocker Magazine, the Home Journal, and the New York Musical World and Times, to new subscribers, for five dollars a year, This is cheap literature, with a vengeance. The Knickerbocker is $3 per annum; the Home Journal, $2: and the Musical World and Times, $3; making $8 a year at the usual rates. That three such works can be obtained for five dollars a year, is a fact truly worthy the Coloric age, which is just now being ushered in. Of the Knickerbocker Magazine, edited by Lewis Gaylard Clark, it is unnecessary to speak. For twenty years it has been the most genial, humorous, and spicy "monthly" in the world; and the present volume will be better than any which preceeded it. The Home Journal, edited by Geo. P. Morris and N. P. Willis, is well known as the best family newspaper in America; and the Musical World and Times, edited by Richard Stores Willis, and Lowell Mason, Geo. H Curtis, Thomas Hastings, Wm. B. Bradbury, Geo. F. Root, and other musical writers contributing: and which gives, among other things, over $35 worth of music and a full course of instruction in harmony annually, is the very best musical journal ever published. These three publications will post a family up in regard to nearly everything worth knowing:—Art, Science, Literature, Music, Painting, Sculpture: Inventions, Discoveries, Wit, Humor, Fancy, Sentiment: the Newest Fashions and other attractions for Ladies: Choice New Music for the Sabbath, the Church, and the Fireside: Reviews and Criticisms of Musical Works, Performers and Performances: in short, the very pick and cream of Novelty, Incident, History, Biography, Art, Literature and Science: including whatever can be given in periodicals to promote healthy amusement and solid instruction in the family, and help to make it better, wiser, and happier, may be now obtained for $5.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE has now reached a monthly edition of ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND COPIES; and the demand for it is still increasing with greater rapidity than ever. This unparalleled and unexpected success has compelled the Publishers to resort to extraordinary means for printing the work with the requisite rapidity, and at the same time preserving the typographical elegance by which it has always been distinguished. It is now electrotyped by a new process, which makes it easy to print any number of copies from the same plates, without in the least imparing the clearness and beauty of the impression. The Publishers desire to repeat their cordial acknowledgments to the press and the Public for the extraordinary favor which has thus far attended their efforts to interest and instruct the great body of the American people; and to renew their assurances that every possible effort will be made to increase still further the claims of the Magazine upon public favor and support. It will continue to present, at the cheapest price, the most interesting and instructive literary matter, original and selected, domestic and foreign, in the most elegant and convenient style, and accompanied by the finest pictorial illustrations, which a lavish expenditure of money can command. They appeal with confidence to the past, as a guarantee that their promises for the future will be abundantly fulfilled.

Subscribers in any part of the United States may now receive the Magazine by mail, either by the Publishers, the Booksellers, or Periodical Agents, at three cents a number, or thirty-six cents a year postage, payable at the post-office where it is received.

Each Number of the Magazine will contain 144 octavo pages, in double columns each year; thus comprising nearly two thousand pages of the choicest Miscellaneous Literature of the day. Every Number will contain numerous Pictorial Illustrations, accurate Plates of the Fashions, a copious Chronicle of Current Events, and impartial Notices of the important Books of the Month. The Volumes commence with the Numbers for June and December; but Subscriptions may commence with any Number.

Terms.—The Magazine may be obtained of Booksellers, Periodical Agents, or from the Publishers at $3 00 a year, or 25 Cents a Number. The Semi-annual Volumes, as completed, neatly bound in cloth, are sold at two dollars each, and Muslin covers are furnished to those who wish to have their back numbers uniformly bound, at twenty-five cents each. Six Volumes are now ready, bound.

The Publishers will supply specimen numbers gratuitously to Agents and Postmasters, and will make liberal arrangements with them for circulating the Magazine. They will also supply Clubs, of two persons at $5 00 a year, or five persons at $10 00.—Clergymen supplied at $3 00 per year. Numbers from the commencement can still be supplied.

The Magazine weighs over seven and not over eight ounces. The Postage upon each number, which must be paid quarterly in advance, is three cents.

FEMALE

LITERARY INSTITUTE.

ELMIRA, CHEMUNG COUNTY, N. Y.

Mrs. MARY ELIZA HILLS, Principal.

THE situation of this Institution combines the advantages of both town and country, being pleasantly located in a retired part of the beautiful village of Elmira, with every regard to the taste, comfort and convenience of the Pupils.

The rooms are large, well warmed and ventilated, with in-door exercises in bad weather. Every effort being made to combine home-comforts with school advantages.

The primary object of the Institution is to qualify the young for the cheerful discharge of the duties of subsequent life, and as this cannot be accomplished by the development of the intellectual powers alone, special attention will be directed to the education of the physical system and the heart. Every pupil will be taught to cultivate a proper reliance on her own powers—a love of pure morality and a just appreciation of the responsibilities which her relation to time and eternity involves.

The government is purely parental, uniting mildness with great decision.

Very particular attention will be paid to the refinement and elegance of the manners.

On the Sabbath, no calls or visits are allowed; and all are expected to attend punctually upon public worship, at such places as their parents may prefer, under the care of a governess. The number of boarders will at no time exceed twenty.

Bath rooms, to which all young ladies have access, are provided with ample accommodations for both warm and cold ablutions. The most accomplished and efficient teachers will be in attendance.

CONTINUE to publish the following British Periodicals, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, (Conservative.)
THE EDINGBURGH REVIEW, (Whig.)
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, (Free Church.)
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, (Liberal.) And BLACKWOOD'S EDINGBURGH MAGAZINE, (Tory.)

These Reprints have now been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competion they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class, and from numerous Eclectics and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer;") "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be re-printed by these publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

For any three of the four Reviews,	7	"

CLUBBING:

A discount of twenty-five per cent. from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering four or more copies of any one of the above works. Thus: Four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one address for $9; four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30; and so on.

REDUCED POSTAGE.

The postage on these Periodicals has, by the late law, been reduced, on the average, about forty per cent! The following are the present rates, viz:

FOR BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE—Any distance, 24 cts, and 14 cents a year on either of the Reviews.

At these rates no objection should be made, as heretofore, to receiving the works by mail, and thus ensuring their speedy, safe and regular delivery.

This Journal, as its name implies, will record the history, progress and results of the New York Industrial Exhibition.

The Literary portion of the paper will be prepared under competent editorial supervision, by the ablest literary, scientific and practical men, and will include essays, descriptions and criticisms in the following departments:

I. Natural Sciences—Raw Materials, &c.
II. Machinery.
III. Manufactures—in Subdivisions.
IV. Fine Arts.

General Essays may be expected on the condition and results of the several departments, on the natural resources of our country, and on the methods by which they may be made most available to American Art, and to artistic and industrial Manufactures.—Other articles of a more general scope, on topics naturally suggested by the Exhibition, will be occasionally admitted. It is intended that all the descriptions and criticisms shall be accurate, and strictly impartial and independent. The Essays will be as free as possible from mere technicalitics, and every effort will be made to render them attractive and interesting to general readers.

The Letter press will be illustrated by engravings of the most beautiful, interesting, and suggestive of
