HITS NEW YORKERS FOR CRITICAL ATTITUDE ON HARRY THAW'S CASE

E. G. Eastman, Long Attorney-General, Objects to "Slings" at New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 20.—Officials and newspapers of New York to-day were attacked in a statement by E. G. Eastman, for twenty-three years attorney general of New Hampshire, for their "critical and belligerent" attitude over the Harry K. Thaw case.

"There is nothing in our judicial history which seems to warrant New York officials in throwing stones at the New Hampshire judiciary, Federal or State."

Eastman pointed out that Thaw was acquitted of homicide on the ground of insanity, and added:

"So far as any criminal charge is concerned he stands here as innocent as any one of the nine million residents of New York. Counsel for New York admit that they cannot legally demand Thaw's extradition on the ground that he is an insane person escaping from New York custody, nor on the ground that his escape is a crime under the laws of New York; but they rest their claim on the sole ground of an indictment for a conspiracy to escape."

FIREMAN'S COURT WILL HELP FIRE PREVENTION

Board of Standard to Hear All Complaints of Owners and Inspectors.

That the orders of the Fire Prevention Bureau shall be revised and obeyed, that they may be revised if necessary and that the friction between property owners and the bureau may be obviated, Fire Commissioner Adamson to-day appointed a board of Standard which is to take the matters in hand and serve also as a court of appeals for the property owner.

The members of this new Board are Deputy Fire Commissioners Weeks and Laimbeer, Chief Kenlon and William H. Swartout, acting Chief of the Fire Prevention Bureau. Commissioner Adamson has discovered that there were two elements of trouble in effecting fire prevention; one, the refusal of owners to make alterations and repairs in conformity with the orders of inspectors, and the other that these orders were frequently unreasonable.

RASH ON HEAD FACE AND BODY

Scratched and It Became Worse. Difficult to Comb Hair. Forced to Cut it Off. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

444 Rockaway Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.—"My child caught cold in her head and this cold worked into sores. Her disease spread as a rash from the head over her entire face and body. Her face itched and soon she began to scratch and it became worse than ever. It was very difficult to comb her hair. The trouble lasted for a month and then I was forced to cut my child's beautiful hair off.

"At first I put on ——— ——— then ——— ——— and many home remedies but each had little effect. I then saw the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I decided to try them. After using them for a week I saw my child's body, and her head especially were improving. First I bathed her with the Cuticura Soap, then I would put the Cuticura Ointment on the rash. The next week she was cured." (Signed) Mrs. M. Sackowitz, Oct. 31, 1913.

If you wish a skin clear of pimples and blackheads, hands soft and white, hair live and glossy, and scalp free from dandruff and itching, begin to-day the regular use of Cuticura Soap for the toilet, bath and shampoo, assisted by an occasional light application of Cuticura Ointment. Sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

☞ Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Wednesday is Clover Day

Introducing Our First Monthly Feature Day---January 21st

Let us take it for granted there's "Nothing new under the sun"—everything is an old idea in a new dress—an improvement on something now in vogue. This we had in mind as we planned a Monthly Feature Day for Brooklyn—it being our intention to lay the foundation for a one-day sale, the like of which no Brooklynite has ever seen. In angling for a name we hit upon one which has been tried and tested by time—one which has a meaning, not mythological.

Clover Day Was Originated by Strawbridge & Clothier---That Famous House of Philadelphia

—that was over thirty years ago—and to-day it stands as the greatest monthly one-day sale in America. Why not a Clover Day for Brooklyn—surely we are none the less aggressive than Philadelphians? Thus it is that we have laid the foundation—the feast is spread—into it we have put our best efforts.
