FORMER WRITER DIES, APOPLEXY VICTIM

Arthur Martin Stricken in Hotel. Police Unable to Find Relatives.

Arthur Martin, sixty years old, said to have been an author, died of apoplexy at the Sixth Avenue Hotel, No. 55 Sixth avenue, early to-day. He had lived there more than a year, but kept to himself and no one knew much about him.

The watchman heard groans from the washroom at 5 A. M. and found Martin unconscious. He died before an ambulance arrived from St. Vincent's Hospital. A few months ago Martin worked as a clerk in the Manhattan Hospital.

Edward Grieshaber of No. 230 West Fourth street said his brother had known Martin almost twenty years, and that at one time he made plenty of money from books and other writings. In recent years he had been in poor circumstances. The police have been unable to learn anything about the dead man's family.

Miss Anna Hayes Engaged.

The engagement of Miss Anna G. Hayes, of No. 61 Henry street, Long Island City, to Walter H. McFadden, of No. 117 North Fourth street, Brooklyn, is announced. No date for the wedding has been set.

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD

Restored to Health by Vinol—A Letter to Mothers.

Anxious mothers often wonder why their children are so pale, thin and nervous and have so little appetite. For the benefit of such mothers in this vicinity we publish the following:

Mrs. M. L. Cassedy, of Thomasville, Ga., says: "My little daughter was anaemic, delicate and nervous. She had no appetite and seemed listless. We could not seem to find anything that would help her until we were advised to give her Vinol. Inside of two weeks after taking it she showed a marked improvement, both in appetite, vim and looks. I continued giving it to her and words fail to express my gratitude for what Vinol has done for her."

This child's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cods' livers—combined with the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol.

Vinol will build up and strengthen delicate children, old people, and the weak, run-down and debilitated. We return the money in every case where it fails.
