FERNANDO ESTOPINAL,
Secretary Board of Commissioners for the Lake Borgne Basin Levee District.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of our dear brother, Norbert Pierre Buras who died September 14, 1908, one year ago.

The day you left us,
Our tears were shed in vain,
In the heavenly home above us
We may sometime meet again.
Oft from our hearts
Comes a bitter cry, why, oh! why
Should our dear brother die?
Then comes a thought, solemn, deep,
He is not dead, only asleep.

His loving brother,
Joseph H. Buras.

CHARTER.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, STATE OF LOUISIANA, PARISH OF PLAQUEMINES, TOWN OF BURAS.

BE IT KNOWN, That on this 31st day of the month of July, in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Nine,

BEFORE ME, Ernest Alberti, a Clerk of Court and Ex-Officio Recorder, duly commissioned and qualified, in and for the Parish of Plaquemines, State of Louisiana, aforesaid, therein residing and inthe presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned,

PERSONALLY CAME AND APPEARED, the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declare, each for himself, that availing themselves of the provisions of the laws of this State, relative to the organization of corporations for the objects and purposes hereinafter mentioned, they have covenanted and agreed and do by these presents, covenant, and agree to bind themselves to and with each other, as well as such others as may hereafter become associated with them, to form and constitute a corporation and body politic in law for the objects and purposes and under the stipulations and conditions as set forth in the following articles, to-wit:

ARTICLE I.

The name and title of this corporation shall be the LOWER COAST MERCHANTS & GROWERS TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, and by that name it shall have the power and authority to enjoy succession and existence for a period of ninty-nine years from and after the date of these presents; to contract, sue and be sued, to make, use and have a corporate seal and the same to break and alter at pleasure, to name and appoint such managers, directors and officers as its business may require, and to make and establish such laws, rules and regulations for the proper management of the affairs of said corporation as may be deemed necessary.

ARTICLE II

The domicile of this corporation shall be in Buras, Parish of Plaquemines, in the State of Louisiana, and all citation and other legal process shall be served on the President, and in his absence on the Vice-President, and in the absence of both of said officers, then on the Secretary.

ARTICLE III.

The objects and purposes for which this corporation is created, established and organized, and the nature of the business to be carried on by it are declared to be, to lease, hire, charter, construct, purchase and own and to man, equip, maintain and operate for sea, coast and inland navigation, one or more steamship, sail vessels, steam and gasoline boats, towboats, barges and other water craft of whatsoever description, for the transportation of passengers and freight, for hire, and in the performance of a general lighter- and towboat business, and rendition of salvage services on water; to transport United States Mails, to purchase, own, maintain and operate ferry boats, and to do and perform and carry on the operation of water craft upon and between places on rivers, lakes, bays and other waters, and upon the high seas, and to ports and places in foreign countries, to construct, charter, purchase, own, maintain and operate dredges, scows, floating elevators and pile drivers; to acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, ware houses, landing places and wharves as the business of this company may require; to improve navigation on rivers, bayous and other waters; to construct wharves, landing places and facilities for vessels; to construct, maintain and operate drydocks and floating docks suitable for building and repairing vessels; to build, rebuild and repair vessels of every description; and to do such other acts and things as may be useful, necessary or convenient for the welfare and business of said company. Any one or more of the purposes, objects or pursuits above mentioned may be carried on without regard to carrying on the other objects set forth.

ARTICLE IV.

The Capital Stock of this corporation is hereby declared to be in the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars, represented by Five Hundred Shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars each; which Shares shall be paid for in cash, property or personal service. This corporation shall begin business just as soon as Three Hundred and Sixty Shares of Stock are subscribed for.

ARTICLE V.

The general corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a Board of Directors composed of seven persons, each of whom shall at all times own and hold not less than Five Hundred Dollars of the Capital Stock of this corporation. The following named persons shall constitute the first Board of Directors, to-wit: Paul Zibilich, Paul F. Renaud, J. B. Fasterling, V. Scurich, P. Cuselich, P. Paretto and John Martello, of whom Paul Zibilich shall serve as President and Paul F. Renaud shall serve as Manager. J. B. Fasterling as Vice-President, and V. Scurich as Secretary-Treasurer. The General Manager shall be eligable to serve at the one time in any other official capacity the Board may determine. This Board and said Officers shall continue in office for a period of three years from date hereof and shall meet at least once every three months.

ARTICLE VI.

On the first Monday in August of each year, beginning with the year 1912, there shall be a general meeting of the stockholders to elect directors for the ensuing year. Each Share of Stock shall be entitled to one vote by the last registered owner or his proxy. But no shares shall be transferred on the books of this corporation within ten days prior to such meeting. Failure to hold such election shall not cause a forfeiture of this Charter, but the last elected Board shall hold over until their successors are duly elected. A special meeting of the Stockholders may be called for any purpose upon written request of two members of the Board of Directors or upon such request of Stockholders owning and holding two-thirds of the Capital Stock of this corporation, after ten days notice of the time of such meeting is mailed to the last known address of each stockholder, and an advertisement of the time of such meeting is published in an established newspaper at the domicile of the company, at least three days prior to the time fixed therefor.

ARTICLE VII.

No Stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of this corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due to the Company on the Shares owned by him; nor shall any mere informality in organization have the effect of rendering this Charter null or of exposing a Stockholder to any liability beyond the amount of his stock.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Capital Stock of this corporation may be increased or decreased in the manner provided for by law of this State, and this Charter, or Act of Incorporation may be modified, changed or amended, or this corporation may be dissolved by a vote of two-thirds of the Capital Stock represented at a meeting called for the purpose in the manner provided for in article VI of this Act; or if Stockholders holding two-thirds of the Stock of this corporation will not request such a meeting, then, upon the request of the Stockholders holding and owning a majority of the Shares of Stock of this corporation, such a meeting shall be called after notice of the time and place of such meeting is mailed to the last known or registered address of each Stockholder, and after further notice of the time and place of such meeting is published at the domicile of the Company, at least four times within thirty days prior to the said meeting, and in case of dissolution of this corporation, its affairs shall be liquidated by three Commissioners selected by the Stockholders at the meeting which decides upon the said liquidation. In the event of the death or inability of one or more of said liquidators to serve, the remaining liquidators or liquidator, shall continue to act and shall complete the liquidation.

The undersigned set opposite their respective names the amount or number of Shares of Stock subscribed for by them respectively, and the said subscription as so set forth to stand for and as the subscription list as required by law.

Thus done and passed at my office in the town of Buras, Parish of Plaquemines, on the day, month and year first above written in the presence of Paul Balleverio and George Collin, both of this town, and competent witnesses, who have hereunto signed their names with the said appearers and me, Clerk of Court and Ex-Officio Recorder, after due reading.
