Impression lost his mail, handled and shut off in the stretch. Water Wells just lasted after chasing Gail from the quarter pole to the stretch. Gail's race a big improvement over his previous effort. Scallywag could never get up. Crosbon locked his usual early speed.

166 SECOND RACE. Three-year-olds and upward, selling, $400 added, six furlongs. Post 3.02. Off 3.05. Start good. Won driving, place same. Winner, b. f., by Dick Wells—Picaro. Owner, Mrs. M. R. Farmer. Time, 1.14.

Rapos had a world of speed, and, setting going all the way, had something left at the end. Toffee chased his stablemate all the way. Recession had no early speed and was blocked when making her stretch run. Northerner, as usual, made up a lot of ground under a bunging ride.

167 THIRD RACE. Four-year-olds and upward, selling, $500 added, one mile and a sixteenth. Post 3.26. Off 3.27. Start good. Won easily, place same. Winner, ch. g., by The Serb—Tarantella. Owner, Montpelier Stable. Time, 1.47 3-5.

Amalfi, well ridden, came away easily at the eighth pole and was going away at the end. Golden closed fast through the stretch. Lehengin, well up all the way, ran a good race. Patog fell off in the rack, couldn't go through in the stretch. Belle of Bryn Mawr had a lot of early foot, but stopped when caught.

168 FOURTH RACE. Claiming Handicap, $2,500 added, three-year-olds and upward, seven furlongs. Post 4.02. Off 4.06. Start good. Won easily, place same. Winner, b. g., by Knight Errant—Rose Tree II. Owner, Andrew Miller. Time, 1.24 4-5.

WOMEN IN CROWD OF 35,000 SEE MORAN-JOHNSON FIGHT

Champion and "White Hope" Both Get Great Reception on Entering the Ring at 10.20—Negro Wins a Protest That Battle Must Be Fought Under Straight Queensberry Rules.

JOHNSON GOT THE DECISION AT END OF 20TH ROUND.

VELODROME D'HIVRE, PARIS, June 27.—Both Johnson and Moran were given a great reception when they entered the ring.

Tom Kennedy, Willie Lewis and George Considine were in Moran's corner. Tom Flannagan and several negro trainers, with James Pratt as timekeeper, were in Johnson's corner.

Before entering the ring Johnson said he intended to fight straight Queensberry rules. He was informed that Moran would do the same.

M. Vienne, the chief manager of the fight, says the rules are those of the International Boxing Federation, which do not allow holding and are a slight modification of the Queensberry rules.

Johnson entered the ring at 10.20 amid cheering. A great shout went up as Moran followed. The crowd gave Moran a better hand than Johnson. Georges Carpentier, the French champion, who is to referee the fight, was given an ovation.

Time was called at 10.38.

FIRST ROUND—Moran landed first to the stomach and head. Johnson got one on Moran's jaw. They mixed in hard, Johnson reaching the Pittsburgher's stomach.

SECOND ROUND—Moran forced the fighting, but Johnson managed to get some hard uppercuts to Moran's jaw. Moran in return landed hard on Johnson's head. Johnson sent a light left hook to Moran's cheek.

THIRD ROUND—Johnson gave Moran several terrific uppercuts to the jaw while Moran responded with several jolts to the negro's stomach. Johnson landed a hard jolt on Moran's eye and followed with hard knocks on the body. Johnson crowded Moran, who stumbled against the ropes as time was called.

FOURTH ROUND—Johnson drew first blood with a right to Moran's nose. The negro smiled confidently as he met Moran's attack. Both led at the same time, each landing on the other's head without harm. Johnson landed on Moran's face as the gong sounded.

FIFTH ROUND—Johnson appeared fresher and confident as the round began. Moran landed hard on Johnson's jaw and the crowd cheered. Johnson retaliated with several blows to the body. Moran blocked several hard uppercuts and landed lightly on the negro's solar plexus, which amused the crowd.

SEVENTH ROUND—Moran led and landed several hard ones to the negro's head, while Johnson got in a hard one to the stomach. Moran landed a straight left to Johnson's chin. Johnson then rushed Moran to the ropes without damage. Johnson opened wider the cut on Moran's nose.

EIGHTH ROUND—Johnson followed his old style of fighting on the defensive. He succeeded in putting three uppercuts to the Pittsburgher's jaw.

In a clinch Moran pounded Johnson's stomach, landing five or six blows, and blocked more uppercuts from the negro. Johnson landed a hard right to the jaw. Both fighters did fine work.

NINTH ROUND—Moran sent a left hook to the body, while Johnson landed one on the head and several hard ones to the jaw. Johnson rushed the fighting somewhat, Moran receiving a left on the jaw.

TENTH ROUND—The men mixed it immediately at the opening of the round. Johnson was successful in the infighting. As the referee told the men to break away, Johnson sent one to Moran's nose. Moran's seconds claimed a foul. The blow out Moran's nose and mouth. The referee warned Johnson, while the crowd hooted the negro. Hard fighting was resumed. It looked as though Moran was weakening. This was all Johnson's round.

ELEVENTH ROUND—Moran landed one on Johnson's head. The negro then rushed the Pittsburgher and received another warning for holding. Moran sent three hard blows to the body, the negro retaliating viciously with blows to Moran's jaw.

TWELFTH ROUND—Johnson succeeded in landing several uppercuts to the jaw and a straight left to the nose and also over the eye. Moran was breathing hard and it did not seem that he could last long. Moran cleverly dodged a hard swing to the jaw.

THIRTEENTH ROUND—Moran led, but could not land effectively, while Johnson sent one to Moran's jaw. The Pittsburgher landed hard on the negro's jaw, which again drew a cheer from the crowd. Johnson stood back smiling and then sent a hard right to Moran's jaw.

FOURTEENTH ROUND—Moran tried hard but unsuccessfully for the negro's jaw. Several of Moran's blows brought smiles from his opponent.

FRANK MORAN

Moran ran into a punch on the nose, and in making a futile swing at Johnson he ran into the ropes.

FIFTEENTH ROUND—Moran avoided the negro, who stood still, laughing. Moran landed hard to the negro's face, while the latter rushed him to the ropes.

SIXTEENTH ROUND—Johnson forced the fighting. Moran landed on the stomach and the negro sent a left to Moran's nose. He followed this with five more blows in rapid succession to the same place. Moran landed two straight lefts to the chin.

SEVENTEENTH ROUND—Johnson sent a hard left to the jaw, while Moran made a wild swing. Moran then sent a left to the negro's face which seemed to make little impression on his opponent. Moran sent another left to Johnson's face, which brought a cheer.

EIGHTEENTH ROUND—The negro sent one to the stomach, two to the face and then a hard left to the body.

Full-Dress Crowd Saw Men in Terrific Battle

PARIS, June 27.—Jack Johnson and Frank Moran got a rousing reception from a great crowd gathered outside the Velodrome to-night, when they arrived to fight for the championship of the world. Johnson was the first to appear. It was learned that he had only narrowly escaped arrest for speeding on his way from Asmeres in an automobile. The champion was detained by the police, but finally was allowed to proceed after being warned.

The men were called to the ring at 10.30 o'clock.

Before the fight began the full dress audience of 35,000, which included many hundreds of women in evening gowns, was so thoroughly permeated with American admirers of the young "White Hope" that the feeling of encouragement could actually be felt.

Every seat in the immense Velodrome d'Hiver has been sold. Members of the nobility of France and England are rubbing elbows with American jockeys and sporting men here for the double purpose of seeing the championship decided and attending the races at Longchamps to-morrow, when the Grand Prix will be run. The Duke Louis d'Uzes, the Premier Duke and Peer of France, and the former Premier, Louis Barthou, are among the Frenchmen who have engaged accommodations, and they are representative of the class that has reserved the highest priced seats.

The programme calls for the big fight to begin at 10.30 o'clock—5.30 o'clock New York time. Several minor contests will precede the main event.

Thousands of Americans are here for the fight. The Cafe de la Paix and Henry's American bar looked like resorts picked bodily from New York this afternoon when the visitors from the United States got together to talk over the chances of the rivals.

Johnson remains the favorite in the betting, but the odds have shrunk and there is plenty of Moran money in sight. Dan McKetrick, Moran's manager, says he has $10,000 furnished by an American millionaire to bet on Moran at 1 to 3, but has been unable to find a taker.

It was reported in Henry's this afternoon that Johnson is not in the good condition claimed. He is said to be fat and peevish, but confident. It is a fact that Johnson thinks Moran is a poor fighter and expects to beat him with ease.

Moran is in the pink of condition. He, too, is confident, and his [illegible]
