REINFORCED ARMY MARCHES AGAINST RUSSIANS FROM PRUSSIA

south of Ypres we have lost a section of trenches near Hollebeke.

"In the region of Lens, near Carency, the enemy yielded under our stacks 800 yards of first line trenches.

"In the valley of the River Aisne and in Champagne there has been intermittent artillery fighting which was particularly severe in the vicinity of Rheims and around Perthes. Here the enemy directed their artillery especially against the positions to the west of Perthes, conquered and occupied by us.

"On the heights of the Meuse there has been slight progress by our troops along the entire front.

"In the Vosges the enemy bombarded the railroad station at St. Die, but the railroad service has not been interrupted.

"In Upper Alsace, to the northeast of Steinbach, a counter attack of the Germans was repulsed.

Big Guns in 48-Hour Battle In Vosges Mountain Passes

PARIS, Dec. 28 (United Press).—For two days a violent battle has been raging along the entire front in the Vosges.

Reports received here to-day from Basel declare that, during Friday and Saturday, extremely heavy cannon fire could be heard in Switzerland. It was evident that the heaviest guns of both the Germans and French were in action and the firing continued day and night.

The fighting was preceded by one of the most remarkable flights yet credited to the French aviation corps. Leaving the French lines an aviator flew over Muelhausen and the surrounding country.

Circling back and forth over the German lines he located the artillery of the enemy. The French gunners were given the range and immediately afterward a deadly fire was opened upon the Germans.

Zeppelin Bombs Set Fire to British Ships, Say Germans

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 28 (United Press).—The Neue Hamburger Zeitung gives this account of the British raid on the German naval base at Cuxhaven:

"Cuxhaven was not a sleepy Scarborough. Everybody was on duty and we prepared a worthy reception.

"The difference was that our airmen and Zeppelins dropped bombs which set the English on fire. The English dropped missiles which fell alongside the objects at which they were aimed. The gas station at Cuxhaven is still undamaged, but it is a question whether the British gunboats are still navigable, the German bomos being much better aimed."

LONE TURKISH WARSHIP WHIPPED A RUSSIAN ARMADA, TURKS REPORT.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 28.—An official communication issued Sunday says:

"One of our warships, on Dec. 24, met a Russian squadron composed of five battleships, two cruisers, ten destroyers and three mine layers. The Turkish ship single handed, during the night, attacked and bombarded the battleship Rostislav and sank the two mine layers Olog and Athos. Two Russian officers and thirty sailors were rescued and taken prisoners.

Simultaneously another portion of our fleet successfully bombarded Batum. On Dec. 25, in the forenoon, two of our ships offered battle to the Russian fleet, which retreated to Sebastopol."

CRUISER TENNESSEE TAKES 500 REFUGEES FROM JAFFA TO EGYPT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Not mentioning the reported threat to bombard Tripoli, Asia Minor, Capt. Decker of the cruiser Tennessee cabled Secretary of the Navy Daniels to-day that he was transporting about 500 refugees of different nationalities from Jaffa, Asia Minor, to Alexandria, Egypt.

Secretary Daniels summarized the report in this statement: "The Tennessee is transporting about 500 refugees of different nationalities from Jaffa to Alexandria. These refugees were unable to get passage from Jaffa by other means.

"Capt. Decker says his action was taken at the request from the Consuls, which requests, approved by the American Ambassador to Turkey, had been made after permission had been given by the Turkish authorities."

5,000 TURKS MARCH TO MEET THE BRITISH; HOLY BANNER RAISED.

AMSTERDAM, Dec. 28.—(United Press.)—Mohamed Ali Bey is marching with 5,000 volunteers against the British, who are said to be advancing against Bagdad, according to Constantinople reports reaching here to-day.

The Turkish reports tell of an enthusiastic demonstration in Damascus when the holy standard of the Prophet was carried through the city. The entire population turned out amid the greatest rejoicing. The Muftis and the military commander of Damascus met the standard and the garrison was marched past, each man saluting the holy banner.

EMPEROR OF AUSTRIA THANKS AMERICA FOR CHRISTMAS GIFT SHIP.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The State Department to-day announced the receipt of the following telegram from Ambassador Penfield in Vienna:

"Emperor Francis Joseph has communicated to me his grateful thanks to the sympathetic friends in America who sent gifts of clothing and toys to the war orphans by ship Jason. Half million girls this week being distributed throughout Austria-Hungary. Emperor thanks every donor and person taking part in work of sending Christmas cheer to his suffering people."

TURKS PUT TO DEATH ALL BUT THIRTY IN AN ARMENIAN TOWN.

PETROGRAD, Dec. 28 (United Press).—Only thirty men of the population of Bushkara escaped from the Armenian town following a massacre there ordered by the Turkish commanders upon the approach of Russian troops, according to stories told by fugitives from the war region to-day.

Old men, women and children are said to have been slaughtered. The homes of Christians were entered and the occupants thrown from windows into the street.

CZAR IS AT THE FRONT.

Joins Grand Duke Nicholas—Heavy Fighting Southwest of Warsaw.

PETROGRAD, Dec. 28 (United Press.)—Czar Nicholas is now at the front at the headquarters of Grand Duke Nicholas. Heavy fighting is still in progress along the Pilica River, southwest of Warsaw, but the Russian line is declared to be holding there against violent assaults of the Germans.

After suffering tremendous losses in assaults along the Bzura and Rawka Rivers, the Germans confine their activity largely to a bombardment of the Russian positions. The main attack upon Warsaw from the west has been completely checked, it is claimed here.

It is admitted that the situation in Northern Poland is again becoming threatening. The army of Gen. Francois is believed to have been heavily reinforced by troops drawn from the West, and it is officially admitted that Mlawa has again been occupied by the Germans. This advance of the enemy from the southern portion of the East Prussian frontier is being pressed with extreme vigor.

Both armies have now turned largely to sledges for transportation work. The Germans are bringing up heavy guns along the Bzura front on motor sledges.

TWO BAFF CASE INDICTMENTS ASSURED, SAYS MR. WHITMAN

as Rettich learned he would be contradicting his mother by denying the truth of questions about the weapons he readily gave the desired information.

A new witness in the person of Thomas, alias "Fog," McCauley, appeared in the Baff case this afternoon, when he was escorted to Whitman's office by detectives of Capt. Carey's Homicide Squad at Headquarters. It is known that the District Attorney had wanted McCauley for several days, but for what purpose is not revealed.

McCauley has figured in police records on more than one occasion as a sworn enemy of "Owney" Madden, the leader of the Hudson Dusters, now awaiting trial for the murder of Paddy Doyle, and was once arrested for shooting at Madden.

He is a close friend of James Moore, the first informer in the Baff case, and is known to be "wise" in matters concerning the chicken handlers' gang.

Besides finding and pinning responsibility upon the chauffeur who piloted the "murder car" to and away from the scene of the murder, the only unfinished task of Headquarters and the District Attorney's office is now said to be the tracing of the blood money and "defense funds" from payer to receiver.

It is known that Herman Binowitz carried $50 from a person believed to be in the murder conspiracy to Rettich for counsel retainers and that Rettich used this to engage counsel for Moore.

But who paid the gunmen and who now holds the residuum of the "defense fund" for use in building legal bulwarks around suspects are factors not yet fully developed by Whitman and his aides.

It is known that the police and District Attorney have been handicapped by their inability to get the chauffeur who drove the murderers. It is believed one, possibly both, of the gunmen are in cells, and a number of those who participated in the exchange of money for the killing are prisoners. The police are satisfied they know who inspired the murder and will get the "men higher up," just as was done in the Rosenthal case.

Alexander Pearlman, who has a garage in the rear of No. 476 Thatford Avenue, East New York, believes it was his car that was stolen and used by the gunmen who killed Baff. His car answers the description of the murder car as given by all the eye witnesses. Pearlman says he went into business at No. 476 Thatford Avenue early in 1913 and was a personal and business friend of Barnet Baff and his son.

WAR SUMMARY

It is reported from Paris that for two days a terrible artillery battle raged in the Vosges. A French aviator sailed over the battlefield and gave the range for the guns.

Gen. von Hindenburg, the German commander, seems to have come to a standstill on the Vistula. At the same time Vienna admits a check to the Austrian forces stationed along the Galician Carpathians.

French troops during the past three days have made minor advances, judging from the official communications given out in Paris, but apparently not at the same rate of speed as reported a fortnight ago. Fog accounts in a measure for this slackening of efforts.

North of the River Vistula in Russian Poland the Germans, again reinforced, have retaken the town of Mlawa, but south of the river they still stand on their old ground.

WALL STREET.

Stock Market Closing.

There was a renewal of strength in the market in the late afternoon, when leading issues recovered to about their best prices of the morning. Careful observers thought there was a good sized short interest.

Houses with Washington connections had a report to the effect that the month's foreign trade of United States would result in a nexcess of about $125,000,000 of exports over imports and that it would probably have been considerably more but for difficulty of obtaining vessels to carry the freight offering. These estimates had some influence on buying movement in the stock market and also in decline of exchange on London to lowest level since this time last year.

BISHOP'S WEDDING MAY HALT

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Dec. 28.—The wedding of Bishop Frederick Foote Johnson of the Episcopal diocese of Missouri to Elizabeth L. Beers of Newtown may again be halted through the death of the Bishop's father, Ezra Levan Johnson, late yesterday. Bishop Johnson, who had gone to Newtown for the wedding, was at the bedside of his father when he died. The wedding had been previously postponed owing to the illness of Miss Beers.

Mexican General Strangely Missing Is Foe of Villa and Zapata.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Concern is felt at the State Department for Gen. Eduardo Iturbide, former Huerta Governor of Mexico City, who has mysteriously disappeared after being given safe conduct from the capital by United States Agent Leon Canova. Both Villa and Zapata are anxious to capture Iturbide.

Gen. Villa's forces have suspended their attacks on Ebano, near Tampico, and have concentrated their attacks on the seaport of Tuxpam, where fighting is in progress to-day, according to advices to the State Department.

TYPISTS IDENTIFY AFFIDAVIT NOTES IN ST. CLAIR CASE

Tell How Jerome Dictated Statements Now Basis of Perjury Charges.

The identification of the stenographic notebooks in which were taken down the affidavits made by Edith St. Clair before William Travis Jerome, was the first business of to-day in the trial of Miss St. Clair for perjury, growing out of an alleged agreement with Abraham L. Erlanger, the theatrical manager.

The identification was made by Miss Esther Schallender, a stenographer employed in the Mr. Jerome's office. The affidavits made before Mr. Jerome, which were in repudiation of testimony Miss St. Clair had made in her suit against Erlanger, were the basis of the perjury charges against her. Miss Schallender testified that she had not taken all the affidavits; only part, and this part she identified.

Miss Schallender testified that in taking dictation for the affidavit of May 7, 1913, which Miss St. Clair signed, she had included in it, at the suggestion of Mr. Jerome, extracts from the testimony Miss St. Clair had given before Justice Pendleton in her successful suit for $22,500 against Erlanger. Also, she stated that Mr. Jerome had instructed her to put in quotations these excerpts from the testimony, so that they might be refuted.

Q. When Mr. Jerome dictated to you the notes of the affidavit of May 7 he read from some typewritten or printed record? A. Yes.

Miss Elsie Devlin, a pretty stenographer in Mr. Jerome's office, was then called.

She was asked in detail as to her share in the taking and transcribing of the St. Clair affidavit of May 9, and in the main she could remember very little about the events of May 2, the day of the dictation.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—President Wilson is celebrating his fifty-eighth birthday quietly to-day in the White House with his family.

President Wilson received numerous letters and telegrams of congratulation to-day. Some of them were from personal friends in all parts of the country, while others were from the rulers of the world's nations. A number of gifts were also sent him.

Practically all the Democratic Senators in the city and many representatives called on the President to congratulate him. Mr. Wilson told his callers that he never felt better.

The President's Cabinet arranged to call on him in a body at 6 o'clock this evening to pay their respects and congratulate him. Other Government officials left cards or sent letters of congratulations during the day.

MISS WHITLOCK BURIED; HER ESTATE A MILLION

Daughter of Wealthy Wholesale Grocer Left Bequests for Companion and Butler.

The funeral of Miss Caroline P. Whitlock, who died at her home, the Alcazar, Atlantic City, Thursday, at the age of sixty years, took place to-day at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Miss Whitlock was the only surviving daughter of the late John W. Whitlock, who made a fortune in wholesale groceries here half a century ago. She left a fortune estimated at nearly a million dollars.

Though her will has not been made public, it is known substantial bequests were made to Mrs. Helen Woodward, her companion, and Charles Sessions, her negro butler, in consideration of their care of her for the last fourteen years, during which she has been a helpless invalid. Sessions is a member of a negro brass band in Atlantic City and told the family Miss Whitlock had once expressed a wish that the band might play at her funeral. No such plan was carried out, as the wish was not directly communicated to any of her relatives.

Rev. Dr. James Palmer presided at the funeral. The burial was at Greenwood Cemetery.
